GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

To the Officers and Members of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada, in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren,

It gives me the greatest pleasure to welcome each one of you to this One Hundred and Fifty-Sixth Annual Communication of your Grand Lodge. It is a particular privilege to welcome so many distinguished guests from our sister Grand Jurisdictions, and representatives of the concordant Masonic bodies, among them some of the most eminent and respected leaders in the world of Freemasonry. I extend a special welcome to the Worshipful Masters of the Constituent Lodges that have joined us this morning. Freemasonry exists, has its life and being, in the Lodges over which you preside. You, my Brethren are the real leaders of the Craft, and upon your enthusiastic and competent leadership depends its success or failure. If this is the first time you are attending the Annual Communication of your Grand Lodge, I hope that you may return home with a broader view and greater appreciation of the great institution of which you are an integral part.

These Annual Communications are more than just a general meeting of the shareholders to conduct business, but are more like a family reunion. They provide an opportunity to cement the bonds of friendship and strengthen the Mystic Tie that binds us together in that indivisible chain of fraternal affection, mutual respect and steadfast fidelity. As in all families, differences of opinion arise, but in the true spirit of brotherhood these are resolved by working together for the common good and in the best interests of the whole. In short, we are gathered here to celebrate the inexpressible joy that comes from being Freemasons.

If I understand it properly, there are several functions that the Grand Master's Address should fulfill. First, it is a summary review of the year past to report and record the events, benchmark our performance, and evaluate the progress made from the perspective of the Grand Master's office. Freemasonry is, always has been, and ever will be, a work in progress. Secondly, it provides an opportunity to recognize, acknowledge, and pay tribute to the Officers, members of Grand Lodge, and those Brethren that have contributed to that progress in special and exceptional ways. Thirdly, it is the instrument by which the Grand Master fulfils the requirements of the Constitution to report certain actions to Grand Lodge for approval. And finally, being delivered at the end of the second year of the Grand Master's term, it takes on the role of a Valedictory address – Ave atque vale! – in other words, the 'exit speech' everyone has been waiting for. But, let me remind you, just as in the opera, "It's not over till the fat lady sings."

OBJECTIVES

During the two years I have served as the 74th Grand Master, I have challenged the Brethren with these words from the ancient Wisdom Literature of the Hebrew Scriptures: Get Knowledge – get Wisdom – but with all thy getting, get Understanding. In his Address to Grand Lodge at the Fifth Annual Communication in 1860, our first Grand Master defined the Mission of Masonry: "The great aim of Masonry, as I understand it, is to cultivate and improve the mind," and one of the 'characteristics' of Masonry he listed among its benefits and values stated that, "it opens the sources of knowledge." Upon this premise, our Grand Lodge was founded. Freemasonry has been defined as a gentleman's philosophical society. In truth, Masonry and Education are synonymous terms! I make no apology for stressing the importance of the philosophical and intellectual aspects of the mysteries and privileges of ancient Freemasonry. After all, old teachers never die, they don't even fade away – they just go on being reincarnated!

This ancient and honourable institution is more than a social club, important as sociability is; it is more than a philanthropic society, important as benevolence and charity are. Freemasonry is an initiatory order engaged in the business of transforming men's lives – providing each one of us, "a lamp to guide my feet and a light on my path." I am convinced that the study of the profound meaning of Freemasonry leading to a deeper understanding of what it means to be a Freemason is the key to our future. It has been my endeavour to interpret and implement the Vision Statement of this Grand Lodge in these terms – "To ensure the timeless vitality of Freemasonry in Ontario."

NECROLOGY

"Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind; and therefore never ask for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee." Once again we are called upon to reflect on the transitory nature of mortal life, and to mourn the loss of many of our Brethren. There are vacant chairs in every lodge, once occupied by Brethren we loved and lost awhile – a sponsor, a mentor, a friend. They enriched our lives by precept and inspired us by example. Their labours here being ended, their journey here being completed, they rejoice with us on another shore in a greater light. "Their bodies are buried in peace, but their name liveth for evermore."

I will mention only a few representatives:

- R.W. Bro. Leonard Munroe Fourney (1920–2010) Past Master of Lancaster Lodge No. 207, Lancaster (Eastern District), Past District Deputy Grand Master, Member of the Board of General Purposes 1995–1999. Bro. Fourney's zeal for Freemasonry never flagged, and he worked assiduously, contributing to the success of many projects in Eastern District, not the least of which was the establishment of the display lodge at Upper Canada Village.
- R.W. Bro. William Fairley (1918–2010) Past Master Victoria Lodge No. 398, Kirkfield (Victoria District) Past Grand Chaplain. Reverend Bro. Fairley was a dedicated parish minister of the Presbyterian Church and served as Chaplain in several Masonic lodges and concordant bodies.
- R.W. Bro. James R. Gilpin (1925–2010) Past Master Goodwood Lodge No. 159, Richmond (Ottawa District 1) and True Britons' Lodge No. 14, Perth (St. Lawrence District), Past Grand Senior Warden, Member of the Board of General Purposes 1989–1992.
- R.W. Bro. Reginald Alfred Hoddy (1912–2011) Past Master of Ancient St. John's Lodge No. 3, Kingston (Frontenac District), Past Grand Junior Warden. Bro. Hoddy was renowned for his meticulous delivery of the Ritual, and inspired many generations of Grand Junior Wardens by his example.
- V.W. Bro. Gordon Loudon Wright Finbow (1933–2011), Past Master of Unity Lodge No. 376, Huntsville (Muskoka-Parry Sound District), and Heritage Lodge No. 730, Cambridge, Past Grand Steward.. Bro. Finbow was a quiet, unassuming man, but always one who had an encouraging word, one who made a difference in the lives of all those he touched, either as students, friends or Brethren.

These were men such as Will Durant had in mind when he wrote this epitaph: "The individual succumbs, but does not die if he has left something to mankind."

PAST RANK

In accordance with, and acting under the authority of Section 73 of the Constitution, I recommend that the rank and title of Past Deputy Grand Master (Honorary) in this Grand Lodge be conferred upon M.W. Bro. Richard E. Fletcher as a token of our esteem, appreciation and respect for his immense contribution to Freemasonry in general and to this Grand Lodge in particular during his many years of service as Executive Secretary of the Masonic Service Association of North America, an office from which he has recently retired.

I further recommend that the rank and title of Past Grand Senior Warden (Honorary) be conferred upon V.W. Bro. Bruce Miller in recognition of his outstanding services as Editor of The Ontario Mason Magazine, making the official publication of this Grand Lodge one of the highest quality anywhere. In addition to many other labour intensive tasks, Bro. Miller has worked diligently and devoted many hours to creating a more accurate data base for the delivery of the magazine.

I also recommend that the rank and title of Past Grand Senior Warden be conferred upon W. Bro. Frank Broomhead, Past Master, Lorne Lodge No. 622, Capleau (Algoma East District). W. Bro. Broomhead has worked assiduously to maintain and rejuvenate his Lodge in so many practical and fraternal ways. Lodges in our Northern Districts face unique challenges. W. Bro. Broomhead exemplifies what can be done to meet those challenges. He has shown by example how to stimulate the rebirth of a Lodge.

WILLIAM MERCER WILSON MEDAL

The William Mercer Wilson Medal was adopted at the Annual Communication in 1945 as a tangible means to recognize the service of those Brethren that, while never having occupied the Chair of Worshipful Master in their lodge, have rendered exceptional and outstanding service over an extended period to their lodge, their community, their place of worship, their fellowmen in so many ways, never courting applause, but always without thought of reward or self-interest, personifying the ideal of a Freemason. To the end of this Masonic year (2010–2011) only 234 such men have been honoured in the 65 years since it was first presented.

It was my honour to present this most prestigious award on behalf of the Awards Committee to four of the recipients. Unfortunately, severe winter weather conditions prevented both the Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master travelling to Windsor for the presentation to Bro. Caird, and the presentation was made by the District Deputy Grand Master.

- Bro. Robert Gordon Bryson, Sudbury Lodge No. 658, Sudbury (Sudbury-Manitoulin District)
- Bro. Alexander Caird, Trinity Lodge No. 521, Windsor (Windsor District)
- Bro. William George Dodds, Richmond Lodge No. 23, Richmond Hill (Toronto York District)
- Bro. William James Lewis, Hugh Murray Lodge No. 602, Hamilton (Hamilton District C)
- Bro. Gerald Siddall, Shuniah Lodge No. 287, Thunder Bay (Algoma

District)

Five new recipients will be announced by the Chairman of the Awards Committee at this Communication to join this elite corps of worthy Brethren.

GRAND MASTER'S MERITORIOUS SERVICE AWARD

This meritorious award was established by M.W. Bro. William R. Pellow, Grand Master 1987–1988, to recognize exceptional services rendered by members of this Grand Lodge. It is the personal award of the Grand Master. This year I am pleased to announce three recipients who, each in a special way, has contributed to the history of Grand Lodge.

- R.W. Bro. Ernest John Burns Anderson, P.D.D.G.M., Kilwinning Lodge No. 565, Toronto (Toronto West District). Bro. Anderson is well-known, highly respected and much-appreciated for his contributions to Masonic Education throughout the Toronto Lodges. He recently published a comprehensive history of the Display Lodge above the Tinsmith's Shop at Black Creek Village, established by the Heritage Lodge No. 730 in 1983, the first display lodge in Ontario. From the beginning, Bro. Anderson has acted as one of the volunteer interpreters and for eleven years chaired the Black Creek Masonic Heritage Committee.
- R.W. Bro. Donald Louis Jagger, P.D.D.G.M., Acacia Lodge No. 61, Hamilton (Hamilton District B). Bro. Jagger was the Worshipful Master of Millennium Lodge UD formed in celebration of the new millennium in 2000 as part of the Help to Hear Project. He has served on the Masonic Foundation of Ontario, tireless in its promotion as, 'the Charity of Choice' and has shared his pedagogical skills with many lodges in the Hamilton Districts.
- R.W. Bro. Graydon Henry Thomas Jones, P.D.D.G.M., Norfolk Lodge No. 10, Simcoe (Wilson South District). For many years Bro. Jones has been the custodian of the extensive collection of archives and artefacts related to our First Grand Master, M.W. Bro. William Mercer Wilson, in the care and keeping of Norfolk Lodge No. 10. He has also been instrumental in arranging the Pilgrimage to the Grave of our First Grand Master held annually at St. John's Church, Woodhouse, on the Sunday afternoon closest to the Feast of St. John the Baptist.

APPOINTMENTS

Acting in accordance with and under the authority of Section 131(e) of the Constitution, I am pleased to recommend the re-appointment of R.W. Bro. David E. Jacklin and V.W. Bro. A. Douglas Nichols, for a further three-year term as Honorary Members of the Board of General Purposes.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES

The role of Grand Representative in the Masonic context is two-fold: First, to exchange information and report the activities through the Fraternal Correspondence Committee. This information is summarized and appears in the Fraternal Reviews published with our Proceedings, providing an insight into the wider world of Freemasonry. Second, the appointment is a form of recognition accorded to one worthy to be a representative abroad of this Grand Lodge. The Grand Representatives may be considered the 'diplomatic corps' of Grand Lodge, maintaining channels of communication between sister jurisdictions.

I appointed the following Grand Representatives near other Grand Lodges on the recommendation of their respective Grand Masters:

- Grand Orient Brazil – R.W. Bro. Robinson Murta
- Michigan – W. Bro. Robert W. Trussell

I am also pleased to recommend to the Grand Masters of their respective Grand Lodges the following worthy Brethren as Grand Representatives of their Grand Lodge near our Grand Lodge:

- Honduras – R.W. Bro. Patrick J. McGrenere
- Kentucky – R.W. Bro. David J. Cameron
- North Carolina – R.W. Bro. John R. Hay

ANNIVERSARIES

I was privileged to attend as guest of honour the anniversary celebrations in many lodges. The years immediately following the institution of the Grand Lodge saw incredible growth in the Craft, with many new lodges being instituted, warranted, and consecrated. The significance of these centennial, sesquicentennial, and bicentennial celebrations is a tribute to those dedicated and devoted members who have maintained their lodges through good times and bad, serving the communities where they are located. In many instances, especially in some of the rural communities, the lodge is the oldest institution still in existence.

UNVEILINGS AND DEDICATIONS

It was a pleasure to be invited to conduct several unveilings and dedications for lodges that have enhanced and beautified their meeting places with various Masonic artefacts or new furnishings.

- Pembroke Lodge No. 128, Pembroke (Ottawa District 2) – Unveiling and Dedication of Commemorative Plaque for 150th Anniversary.
- St. Andrew's Lodge No. 16 – St. John's Lodge No. 75, Toronto (Toronto Don Valley District) – Dedication of Altar Cloth.
- Conestogo Lodge No. 295, Drayton (Wellington District) – Dedication of Mosaic Pavement.
- Richardson Lodge No. 136, Stouffville (York District) – Unveiling & Dedication of Sun Dial and Time Capsule for 150th Anniversary.
- Oak Branch Lodge No. 261, Innerkip (Wilson North District) – Dedication of Mosaic Pavement.

I was honoured to preside at the official opening of the, 'Freemasonry: A History Hidden in Plain Sight' exhibit at the Bruce County Museum and Cultural Centre, Southampton. This exhibit was devised and mounted by a committee of St. Lawrence Lodge No. 131 as part of the 150th Anniversary celebrations of the lodge.

The Deputy Grand Master unveiled a Commemorative Plaque on the occasion of the official opening of the King Edward Heritage Display Lodge in the Canadian Transportation Museum and Heritage Village, Kingsville.

AMALGAMATIONS AND SURRENDER OF WARRANTS

The Ceremony of Amalgamation was conducted by the Grand Master for the following lodges:

- Liberty Lodge No. 419 and St. Paul Lodge No. 601, Sarnia (Sarnia District)
- Porcupine Lodge No. 506 and Aurum Lodge No. 704, Timmins (Temiskaming District)
- Mount Sinai Lodge No. 522 and Lodge of the Pillars No. 703, Thornhill (Toronto Don Valley District)
- Lebanon Forest Lodge No. 133 and Huron Lodge No. 224, Exeter (South Huron District)

Regrettably, two lodges decided by resolution to surrender their warrants:

- Galt Lodge No. 257, Cambridge (Waterloo District)
- St. Aidan's Lodge No. 567, Toronto (Toronto East District)

After reports of irregularities were received from the District Deputy Grand Master indicating dysfunctionality, that culminated in the Brethren registering dissatisfaction with the choice of Worshipful Master at the Installation Ceremony, coupled with the demits of several Past Masters, and the cancellation of a subsequent meeting specifically ordered by the Grand Master, without asking for or receiving dispensation, I, in the company of the Deputy Grand Master and the Grand Wardens attended Cathedral Lodge No. 643, Toronto (Toronto East District), and under the aegis of Section 85, arrested the Warrant, "until such time as convincing evidence could be presented to the Grand Master that the lodge could be restored to viable working conditions." And now, after filing a statement with the Grand Secretary, I am, in accordance with Section 85, reporting my actions to this Grand Lodge.

COMMUNICATIONS OF OTHER GRAND LODGES

BROCK UNIVERSITY PARTNERSHIP

At the beginning of my term as Grand Master in 2009, I announced an initiative to establish the Sankey Centre for Masonic Studies at Brock University. The partnership with Brock University has three separate and distinct aspects all aimed at this single objective. First, to establish an annual public lecture by a well-known scholar to increase awareness of the formative role Fraternalism and Freemasonry have played in shaping our distinctive national culture. Second, to sponsor the International Conference on the History of Freemasonry in 2015, bringing together the leading academics engaged in Masonic studies around the world. During my term as Grand Master all funds that have been donated to Project No. 2937 will be directed to this phase of the project, enabling Grand Lodge to co-sponsor this significant event. I am pleased and very proud to announce that, because of the generosity of the Brethren, the fifth International Conference on Masonic History 2015 will be sponsored by our Grand Lodge. Third, to ensure the continuing partnership into the future by establishing funds to support study and research by students and scholars alike in the academic community of Freemasonry as a legitimate field for investigation and analysis by historians and sociologists, ultimately with the establishment of an endowed Chair for Masonic Studies at Brock University.

The second annual Charles A. Sankey Lecture in Masonic Studies was delivered to a large audience at Brock on Sunday afternoon, March 20, 2011, by Dr. Jessica Harland-Jacobs, professor of History in the University of Florida, author of the book, Builders of Empire: Freemasonry and British Imperialism, 1717-1927. When I am asked how this partnership will benefit our Grand Lodge, I suggest that it would do much to restore the fraternity the place of respect it once enjoyed. I firmly believe that our beloved Craft is too important to be left to the lunatic fringe and conspiracy theorists to define Freemasonry in the public perception.

Already, this partnership has paid great dividends. Through the collaborative efforts of Brock University, Heritage Lodge No. 730, and the Committee on Library, Museum, and Archives, The Proceedings of the Annual Communications of Grand Lodge 1855-2010 inclusive, have been placed on-line, thus providing a user-friendly, readily-available research tool for all Masonic students.

A HISTORY OF FREEMASONRY IN ONTARIO 1980–2010

I am delighted to announce that the history of the last thirty years following on where Whence Come We? Freemasonry in Ontario 1764-1980, published to celebrate the 125th Anniversary of the formation of the Grand Lodge left off, has been completed and is available during this Annual Communication. This volume takes its place with those published in 1900 (Robertson), 1930 (Herrington), 1955 (Herrington & Foley) and 1980 (McLeod). We must all be greatly indebted to V.W. Bro. Michael Jenkyns, the Grand Historian, for his meticulous research and comprehensive review of the last three decades, covering the period, 1980–2010.

Organized chronologically in chapters coinciding with the two-year terms of successive Grand Masters, this will become an invaluable reference resource.

CANADA LODGE UD, KANDAHAR, AFGHANISTAN

From the establishment of the Grand Lodges at the beginning of the eighteenth century, Military Lodges have played a major role in the history of Freemasonry and its proliferation around the world. With the initiative of three successive Grand Masters, and the perseverance of a committee chaired by R.W. Bro. William J. Lewis, P.D.D.G.M., Canada Lodge UD was established at Kandahar, Afghanistan, working under the Warrant of Trent Lodge No. 38, Frankford (Prince Edward District). The Lodge meets regularly on the first and third Thursdays of the month. Originally intended to provide fraternal support for our Brethren serving in the Theatre, such interest was created among the men stationed on the base that petitions for initiations were received. The Grand Secretary was able to create the protocol, and the first initiations took place on October 7, 2010. To date, 14 initiations have taken place, one has affiliated, and 12 candidates await initiation. Credit for the immense success of this project goes to V.W. Bro. Rick Fulford, Past Master of United Lodge No. 29, Brighton (Prince Edward District) who has acted as Worshipful Master. Motivated by the Masonic ornaments of benevolence and charity, the members of Canada Lodge UD have undertaken to provide school supplies for 14,000 students in three high schools. Donations of regalia and furniture for the lodge have been received from many lodges and individuals; Canada Lodge No. 532, Pickering (Toronto East District) has been very generous in its support, as has the Grand Lodge of Alberta. This is truly an example of Masonry at work, as Bro. Cpl. Joe Curry, a member of the Beaches Lodge No. 473, Scarborough (Toronto East District) so aptly put it in an email home: "to create a place of civility in an otherwise very uncivil place."

May the Most High watch over all our valiant men and women serving in the Canadian Armed Forces and support personnel anywhere in the world, and restore them safe and sound to their homeland and families.

THE CORNERSTONE PROJECT

The Cornerstone Project was introduced to fifteen Districts at the beginning of the Masonic year in 2009 by the Lodge Resources Committee. In its first year of test-marketing it proved very successful, and many lodges earned the designation "Cornerstone Lodge." Again this year, many lodges have been successful in completing the requirements. The full list of those so honoured will be found in Appendix B of this Address.

DISCIPLINE

I regret that it is necessary to inform Grand Lodge that the Grand Secretary continues to receive a number of complaints alleging un-Masonic conduct. Upon review by the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, and Grand Secretary, we find that many of these disputes arise from differences of opinion that may be classified as "private piques and quarrels." As such they ought to be resolved between gentlemen. Others of a more serious nature, upon recommendation of the Grand Master, are referred to the Committee on Discipline for resolution and disposition.

Acting in accordance with the provisions of Section 85, and having received and reviewed the court records submitted to us of charge, trial, and conviction, I forthwith suspended Brother 'A', a Past Master in Georgian North District, and after due process by Trial Commission, I recommend to Grand Lodge that Brother 'A' be expelled in accordance with Section 423(f). His actions prove that he is no longer worthy to be known as a Freemason.

A complaint having been filed alleging moral impropriety by two members of Peterborough District, I directed both individuals to absent themselves from all Masonic activity until these matters could be resolved to the satisfaction of all parties, reminding them that, "A member of the Masonic Order accepts the responsibility for maintaining a mode of conduct that is not only above reproach but is an example of good behaviour within the community." In matters of moral and ethical conduct, the Obligation of a Master Mason enforces a policy of 'zero tolerance.'

Long standing and lingering issues of discontent festering among a few members of a lodge in Muskoka-Parry Sound District culminated in a number of complaints and counter-complaints being filed with the Grand Secretary. They are members of a large and active lodge, with a number of candidates currently on the Master's trestleboard. Much of the discord seems to arise from frustrated ambition for preferment to Grand Lodge office resulting in bruised egos. After reviewing the documentary evidence placed before us and interviewing two of the disputants, and taking into account the judicious mediation of the District Deputy Grand Master, I directed the Worshipful Master to convene a meeting of the Past Masters of the Lodge. Evidence was placed before me indicating that the reputation of Freemasonry was being sullied in the community at large. Hence, in an attempt to restore peace and harmony and acting under the authority of Section 85 of the Constitution, I suspended three Past Masters, and have referred the matter to the Committee on Discipline for review and disposition.

Following an incident that occurred during the Installation meeting of a lodge in York District on May 11, 2011, complaints with supporting documentation were filed by the District Deputy Grand Master and several Brethren, alleging that Brother 'B', a visitor, had repeatedly and belligerently berated members of a certain religious faith, claiming that they should be excluded from Masonry, attacking in particular an Entered Apprentice in the Lodge, thereby committing the Masonic offence, "To show contempt for God or religion." Section 410 (b) The Charges of a Freemason state: "Let a man's religion, or mode of worship, be what it may, he is not excluded from the Order, provided he believes in the Architect of heaven and earth, and practises the sacred duties of morality." The matter has been referred to the Committee on Discipline, and pending the determination of a Trial Commission, I recommend that Brother 'B' be suspended indefinitely.

My Brethren, take heed of what the sacred writings warn: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand." By definition, "A Freemason's lodge is the temple of peace, harmony, and brotherly love," – "a retreat of friendship," where "nothing is allowed to enter to disturb the quietude of its pursuits." Ego can be a powerful incentive and creative force necessary for self-esteem; it can also be an insidious poison that fractures fraternal friendship and destroys the best intentions. Truly it has been said, “Where EGO is master, you reach disaster faster.” It should have no place in a fraternity based on equality and dedicated to serving humanity.

AUTHORIZED RITUAL

We will neither countenance nor tolerate those few lodges that, pleading historical precedent, long usage, or any other reason, introduce innovations or deviate from the authorized Rites and Ceremonies of this Grand Lodge. Error perpetuated is still error. Section 7 must be strictly observed both in letter and spirit. Our Ritual is our most treasured possession, the vehicle through which we transmit the essence of Ancient Freemasonry from generation to generation of initiates. Worshipful Masters must be faithful to the Obligation taken at Installation and will be held accountable. The District Deputy Grand Masters must be vigilant in their supervisory duties prescribed in Section 97. Study it, learn it, internalize it, interpret it, and, above all, live it – but do not, do NOT I repeat, tamper with it.

COMMUNICATION

Advanced technology in the 21st Century has provided the means for instant communication anywhere, anytime. Email and texting devices proliferate beyond our capability to absorb information. The information highway, despite the lane expansions we continue to construct and new gadgetry we continue to invent, suffers from gridlock. Yet, we do not seem able to get even the simple message across and be clearly understood. I have always believed that the decision-making Officers of Grand Lodge must, “Learn to Listen and Listen to Learn.” This Grand Lodge tries desperately to keep in touch with the so-called “grass roots.” This was the prime purpose for holding Especial Communications of Grand Lodge in other parts of the province (Sudbury in 2009 and Ottawa in 2010). This was the reason the Deputy Grand Master and I accepted invitations to hold open forum sessions to answer questions in Town Hall meetings. To this end, the Long Range Planning Committee conducted an online survey, the results of which will be reported at this Communication. Yet, we continue to receive feedback that, ‘Grand Lodge should be more transparent in its administration.’

In any institution founded, maintained, administered and conducted on democratic principles there is always room for ‘loyal opposition.’ However, one expects appraisal and assessment to be well-informed, judicious and based on verifiable data rather than spurious argument. As noted earlier in this Address, from its inception Grand Lodge has published its Annual Proceedings a copy of which is sent to every constituent Lodge clearly marked, “The property of and ordered to be read in all the Lodges and preserved.” “The Proceedings should always be available for use by all members of the lodge.” The direction to preserve does not mean keeping it unopened in its sealed plastic envelope. I suggest that every Worshipful Master read again Section 240 of the Constitution of Grand Lodge.

The information highway is not just a single-lane, one-way street. “Seek and ye shall find.” Our members must share the responsibility to inform themselves and become active participants in the democratic decision-making process.

There is a growing trend to disseminate material far and wide by email that ought to be considered personal and confidential. Such indiscriminate circulation of perceived grievances only exacerbates and creates further entrenchment. Such irresponsible broadcasting of private quarrels may seem to serve the selfish interests of one or two individuals; it does nothing but harm to the general welfare of the Craft, escalates dysfunctionality, and fractures fraternal relations. We should heed the comment posted by Bro. Christopher Hodapp, the well-known author: “The Internet will kill us all. – We are murderers of our own posterity.”

HONORS RECEIVED

I acknowledge, with deepest humility, several honours conferred upon the Grand Master during the year.

- Honorary Membership, Widows Sons Ontario Masonic Riders Association

GRAND MASTER’S BANQUET

From the formation of the first Grand Lodge in England 1717, feasting has been a great Masonic tradition, perpetuated in this Grand Jurisdiction with the Grand Master’s Banquet during the Annual Communication. This evening we are extremely honoured and privileged to have M.W. Bro. Richard E. Fletcher, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Vermont and recently retired Executive Secretary/Treasurer of the Masonic Service Association of North America, as the Guest Speaker. Bro. Fletcher has been a great friend and supporter of this Grand Lodge, and both he and his Lady Judy have been regular visitors at the Annual Communications. His topic, “What Makes a Man a Mason,” is certain to inspire us as he shares his thoughts on the value of Masonic Education. Our entertainment will feature performers from Drayton Entertainment.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND APPRECIATION

The Past Grand Masters

Although few in number, the Past Grand Masters continue to be a reliable source of strength and invaluable resource to this Grand Lodge in general and especially to the Grand Master in particular. Their accumulated knowledge based on long experience is of inestimable value.

The Deputy Grand Master

It has been a great personal pleasure to have enjoyed the partnership of R.W. Bro. D. Garry Dowling as the Deputy Grand Master. During the two years we have worked together as a team, consulting on a daily basis, our relationship has always been cordial, of one mind. As President of the Board of General Purposes and Chairman of the Management Committee, Bro. Dowling has given strong management direction and no one could have been more meticulous and diligent in the administrative role of his responsibilities. As ‘he who will undoubtedly be

Grand Master' moves from the administrative role to the leadership role, I am well assured that this Grand Lodge will be placed in the most capable hands.

The District Deputy Grand Masters

The forty-four District Deputy Grand Masters form the administrative link between Grand Lodge and the constituent Lodges. Their role as field-representative of the Grand Master is crucial in a Grand Jurisdiction of such vast geographical extent and diversity with more than five hundred lodges and almost fifty thousand members. By common consent this year's incumbents have done an excellent job and I congratulate them on their year of service to this Grand Lodge.

The D.D.G.M. Communiqué sent monthly is the principal vehicle of communication open to the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, and the Grand Secretary. We are grateful to those District Deputies that have shared the contents with the Lodges in their Districts, posted it on District websites, copied highlights in their District Newsletters, and used excerpts as the basis of their remarks at Fraternal and Official visits to their Lodges.

The Members of the Board of General Purposes

It was Woodrow Wilson (1856–1924), the 28th President of the United States that admitted, "I not only use all the brains that I have, but all that I can borrow." The thirty-five Honorary, Elected and Appointed Members of the Board of General Purposes are 'the brains' – the thinkers and the doers – that create the policies, devise the strategies, execute the initiatives, and administer the programs for the well-being of the Craft. These Brethren have accepted positions of added responsibility, donate their time and energy in countless hours of committee work and innumerable miles of travel to serve the Brethren.

This year, several long-serving Members of the Board of General Purposes are retiring, and I pay personal tribute to them and on your behalf express our gratitude for their many and varied contributions to this Grand Lodge:

- R.W. Bro. Douglas A. Conway, 2001–2011
- R.W. Bro. Lloyd W. Hammell, 2007–2011
- R.W. Bro. Samuel Kalinowsky, 2004–2011
- R.W. Bro. Henry Krajewski, 2008–2011
- R.W. Bro. Paul E. Todd, 2001–2011

The Officers of Grand Lodge

The ambassadorial and ceremonial roles of the Grand Wardens and Grand Registrar have never been better exemplified than by the present incumbents, R.W. Bro. John P. Logan, Grand Senior Warden, R.W. Bro. Steven E. Warren, Grand Junior Warden, and R.W. Bro. Perry M. J. McConnell, Grand Registrar. These brethren have gone far beyond their constitutional mandate and travelled extensively throughout the Grand Jurisdiction.

The Grand Chaplain, R.W. Bro. Ronald C. Smeaton has filled the office with dedication and his innate sense of humour has endeared him to the Brethren as he has travelled throughout the jurisdiction.

The role of the Grand Director of Ceremonies is one of the most demanding in this Grand Lodge. Acting as aide-de-camp, chauffeur, protocol officer, and, in certain circumstances, bodyguard for the Grand Master, I have been most fortunate in the service rendered by R.W. Bro. David J. Purvis and his lady Geraldine. I am also grateful to V.W. Bro. Anthony A. Atkins, the Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies, and his lady Sandra for assisting in some very special and personal ways. Their constant care and keeping in assisting me to maintain the schedule of events catalogued in the Appendix to this Address goes far beyond the job description, and has set the bar high for their successors.

I must also express my appreciation to the Grand Organist, V.W. Bro. Adrian DeVries and the Grand Piper, V.W. Bro. Robert Miller, whose fine music has enhanced many ceremonies of Grand Lodge and special occasions during the year. Acting as the Grand Master's personal Media Officer, R.W. Bro. Alan Arbuckle has been of inestimable service in arranging interviews with the press, radio and television providing many opportunities to explain Freemasonry to the general public.

The Custodian of the Work

There is no more important work done in this Grand Lodge than the training given by the Custodian of the Work, M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, the Lodge of Instruction Team of experts, and V.W. Bro. Gordon Crutcher, Chairman of the Committee on Protocol and Etiquette, under his direction. The forums scheduled during the early fall months and the District Lodges of Instruction held throughout the year have served to raise the standard of ritual performance to a new level of excellence, so important as our Lodges are conferring degrees on a steadily increasing number of candidates.

The Grand Secretary

The Grand Secretary's Office is 'action central' for this Grand Lodge. Only those of us who work there on a regular basis have the slightest concept of the scope of the Grand Secretary's duties. M.W. Bro. Terence Shand has been a true friend, reliable advisor, supportive confidant throughout my four years in office as Deputy Grand Master and Grand Master. His administrative skill and ability, his knowledge of the Constitution, his good humour and understanding have made my role as Grand Master a pleasurable experience. The efficient office staff: Stacey Birks, Rose Blandin, Gail Nickerson, and Angela Schmidt, have made every visit to headquarters a real pleasure. I also express my thanks to R.W. Bro. Kenneth Schweitzer and V.W. Bro. Robert Kliaman for the hours they both volunteer to assist in the everyday working of the Grand Lodge Office.

In all things and at all times, my Lady Brenda has been not merely a fellow traveller, but a participating partner – the epitome of a Mason's Lady. Her unwavering support, generous encouragement, abundant understanding and unbounded patience have made my Masonic journey possible. Little did she know when we were married almost five decades ago what she was getting into. In responding to the Toasts to the Ladies at many banquets and receptions, and as hostess during the Annual Communication, she has fulfilled her role as First Lady with great charm and dignity.

CONCLUSION

This Address, being a Report to Grand Lodge may appear to be preoccupied with looking backward over the year past. What is far more important is what lies ahead – the opportunities and the challenges – the vastly more important outlook for our future. I believe it to be a future bright with promise. That future, my Brethren, is in your hands and mine.

Max De Pree observed, “The first responsibility of a leader is to define reality. The last is to say thank you. In between the leader is a servant.” During the two years in office, in every situation, I have tried to define reality. Only with the passage of time will the course charted and the decisions made be judged right or wrong. M.W. Bro. Harry S. Truman, when serving as President of the United States had a sign on his desk in the Oval Office which read, “The Buck Stops Here.” I soon learned the meaning of that statement. It is almost trite to say, but it must be said, that election to this highest office by the sufferance of your Brethren is a humbling experience and proves that it is the journey, not the destination that gives the greater satisfaction and reward. It has been a great journey of discovery. And so now, nothing remains but to say ‘Thank You’ – Thanks for the privilege. Thanks for the memories.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Officers and Members of Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Canada in the Province of Ontario Inc.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Canada in the Province of Ontario Inc., which comprise the statement of financial position as at April 30, 2011, and statements of operations and changes in fund balance, the statement of operations and changes in fund balances for the General and Segregated Funds, statement of expenses for the General Fund and the statement of Special Programme operations and changes in fund balance for the year then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Canada in the Province of Ontario Inc. as at April 30, 2011, and the results of its statements of operations and changes in fund balance, the statement of operations and changes in fund balances for the General and Segregated Funds, statement of expenses for the General Fund and the statement of Special Programme operations and changes in fund balance for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

1. Description of the Organization

The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Canada in the Province of Ontario Inc. is a not-for-profit organization which serves as the central administrative body for Masonic Lodges in the Province of Ontario. During the year the Organization, which was previously unincorporated, became incorporated without share capital on December 6, 2010.

The Organization is exempt from income tax under section 149 of the Income Tax Act.

2. Significant accounting policies

Fund accounting

The Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Canada in the Province of Ontario Inc. follows the restricted fund method of accounting for contributions.

The General Fund reports the Organization's administrative activities.

Revenues and expenses related to the 175th Anniversary Fund, Special Retirement Fund, Commutation Fund and Memorial Fund are combined and reported in the Segregated Fund.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, balances held with banks, and highly liquid temporary money market investments with original maturities of three months or less from the date of the acquisition.

Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost less accumulated amortization. Only expenditures in excess of $5,000 are capitalized. Amortization is provided using the straight-line method as follows:

Computer equipment and workstations	3 years

The donations-in-kind revenue used to acquire capital assets has been deferred and will be recognized as income at the same rate as the asset is depreciated in order to match revenues and expenses.

Revenue recognition

Restricted contributions related to general operations are deferred or recognized as revenue of the General fund in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. All other restricted contributions are recognized as revenue of the appropriate restricted fund.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue of the General Fund in the year received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Donated materials which would otherwise be paid for by the Organization are recorded at fair market value when provided. The value of these donations-in-kind, as determined by the fair market value to acquire similar goods, amounted to $18,110 in 2011 (2010 - $40,020) and have been included in Masonic Child I.D. Program revenue - donations-in-kind, and capital assets for the year.

Financial instruments

Financial instruments classified as held-for-trading are measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in the statement of operations. Financial assets classified as held-to-maturity or as loans and receivables and financial liabilities not classified as held-for-trading are measured at amortized cost.

The Organization has classified its financial instruments as follows:

- Cash and cash equivalents are classified as "held-for-trading". Held-for-trading items are carried at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in the statement of operations and changes in fund balances in the current period.
- Receivables as "loans and receivables". Loans and receivables are carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.
- Investments are classified as "held-for-trading". Held-for-trading items are carried at fair value with changes in fair value recognized in the statement of operations and changes in fund balances for the current period.
- Notes receivable as "loans and receivables". Loans and receivables are carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.
- Accounts payable as "other liabilities". Other liabilities are carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Transaction Costs

Transaction costs related to held for trading financial assets are expensed as incurred. Transaction costs related to held-for-trading financial assets, loans and receivables and other liabilities are added to the carrying value of the asset or netted against the carrying value of the liability and are then recognized over the expected life of the instrument using the effective interest method.

The Organization has chosen to continue to apply the requirements of Section 3861, Financial Instruments – Presentation and Disclosure in place of application of Sections 3862, Financial Instruments - Disclosures and 3863, Financial Instruments – Presentation.

Use of estimates

In preparing the Organization's financial statements, management is required to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the period. Actual results could differ from these estimates. Significant areas requiring management estimates include amortization of capital assets, determination of useful lives of assets and calculation of accrued liabilities.

Future accounting changes

New accounting framework

The Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants ("CICA") has issued a new accounting framework applicable to Canadian not-for-profit organizations. Effective for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2012, not-for-profit organizations will have to choose between International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRSs) and accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, whichever suits them best. Early adoption of these standards is permitted. The Organization currently plans to adopt the new accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations for its fiscal year beginning on May 1, 2012; however, the impact of this transition has not yet been determined.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON AUDIT AND FINANCE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. J. C. Sutherland, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. J. C. Sutherland, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my pleasure to present the first financial report to the first Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Canada in the Province of Ontario Inc. as your Grand Lodge was incorporated effective December 6, 2010. Due to the prudent use of funds available our net operating loss is less than was projected. Your committees only spent 57% of the funds allocated and some expenditures were delayed to the coming fiscal year. We had anticipated the need to train a new staff member to replace retiring staff, which has now been put on hold. Thus, our net operating loss for the past year before the application of unrealized gains or losses on investments was reduced to $1,619 as compared to the budgeted net operating loss of $133,300 for the year ending April 30, 2010.

During the past year your Audit and Finance Committee was involved in the following:

ACTIVITIES

1. The financial statements of Grand Lodge were reviewed on a monthly basis and compared to the budget. We congratulate the Grand Lodge office and the various committees for staying within or under their budget for the past year.
2. The annual reports of the Grand Secretary, the Grand Treasurer and the auditors were reviewed and the committee recommends the adoption of these reports.
3. The Grand Lodge Pension Fund now managed by Manulife Financial was reviewed and found to be performing to our satisfaction and that of the members participating in the plan.
4. The Grand Lodge Insurance Program was monitored. The participation numbers continue to grow. There are now 52 Lodge building corporations and 162 Lodges in the program.
5. Your committee monitored the quarterly financial statements of MasoniChip, the College of Freemasonry and the Newsletter Reflections.
6. The insurance policies of Grand Lodge were reviewed and found to be satisfactory.
7. The rolling 5 year Budget for Grand Lodge was updated.
8. The Commutation Fund and Memorial Fund were reviewed. It was decided not to transfer any funds from the Commutation Fund during the past year.

PROJECT ACCOMPLISHMENTS

1. Completed the incorporation of Grand Lodge. This now provides another layer of protection for the assets of Grand Lodge and its members. We also now have an entity to hold any proprietary property rights of Grand Lodge.
2. With the Grand Treasurer completed a review of Grand Lodge Assessment needs and how that would impact our Commutation Fund. A special thanks to committee member V.W. Bro. Paul Skazin for heading up this sub committee and to R.W. Bros. Ed Standish and Robert Wands who assisted Paul with their expertise in this matter.
3. Completed a review and updating of the expense guidelines for Grand Lodge committees. Thanks to R.W. Bros. Patrick McGrenere and Randy Hawken who undertook this task.
4. Completed a review and updating of the Annual Communication expense guidelines. Thanks go to R.W. Bro. Patrick McGrenere, who with the assistance of the Grand Secretary completed this task.
5. We passed a motion to have our accounting firm adopt the new accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations effective May 1, 2011, instead of waiting until the mandatory date of May 1, 2012.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Your committee is in full agreement with the Grand Treasurer on the need to increase the Grand Lodge assessment to $20.00 from the present $12.00. We anticipate with this increase it will not be necessary to make any further changes to the assessment for the next 5 years. Even with this increase your Grand Lodge assessment will remain the lowest in Canada.
2. Your committee was also asked to review the Brock University Partnership motion to assess every member $2.00 as a donation to fund the initiative with the university. Your committee appreciates the transparent manner in which the funding of this project has been put to the membership. This is a very innovative venture, which has the potential to raise the profile and understanding of the importance and place of Masonry in Canadian history. This will not happen overnight, but we are confident in the checks and balances that have been put in place along with a 10 year sunset clause that the funds raised by this assessment will be well protected. This Grand Lodge has benefitted from the farsighted vision of our members in the past. Your committee supports this new and important vision for the future of our Grand Lodge.

INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO

During the past year your committee met with Scotia Asset Management L.P. three times to review our investments and the income generated by those investments. The General Fund Investment Portfolio of Grand Lodge as of April 30, 2011, stood at $1,942,616, compared to $1,839,698 on April 30, 2010. The other funds under the purview of this committee totaled an additional $2,549,432 as detailed in the notes of the audited financial statements. The overall Investment Portfolio of Grand Lodge as of April 30, 2011, stood at $4,492,048 compared to $4,307,375 on April 30, 2010. All our investments have been marked to market value. The strong stock market in equities over the past year has been responsible for the increase in the value of our portfolio.

We recommend that Scotia Asset Management L.P. continue to be engaged as the Grand Lodge portfolio managers.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The audited financial statements for Grand Lodge for the year ended April 30, 2011, were reviewed and discussed in detail with our auditors, Deloitte LLP at the May 31, 2011, meeting of the Audit and Finance Committee. These audited financial statements can be found elsewhere in the Annual Proceedings. For the year ended April 30, 2011, Grand Lodge experienced an excess of revenue over expenses of $7,573 for fiscal 2010 to 2011 compared with an excess of revenue over expenses of $128,068 for fiscal 2009 to 2010.

Your committee recommends that the audited financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2011, be adopted as submitted. We also recommend the continued engagement of Deloitte LLP as our auditors. Our thanks go to Evan McDade, C.A. for conducting the audit in such a short time frame to meet the time lines of Grand Lodge.

BUDGET 2011 – 2012

The budgetary requirements for all Grand Lodge committees were used in the preparation of the annual budget for Grand Lodge for the year ending April 30, 2012. The requirements of the Grand Lodge committees for the coming year total $134,970.

The budget for the General Fund for the coming year is set out in the appendix of this report which reflects anticipated revenues of $769,454 and expenses of $905,070 resulting in a projected deficit of $135,616 before the application of unrealized gains or losses on investments.

Your committee submits for consideration and approval the estimate of revenue and expenses as they relate to the General Fund for the period ending April 30, 2012. The committee believes that the budget set out in this report is realistic and provides for items that can be reasonably foreseen to meet the obligations, financial responsibilities and commitments of the General Fund of Grand Lodge for the coming fiscal year.

CHARITABLE DONATIONS

Your committee reviewed the donations made by the Grand Master on behalf of our Grand Lodge. The donations totaled $3,000 and were made to M.S.A. for Japan and New Zealand earthquake relief.

As such we recommend the approval of the same.

To the Grand Secretary and the staff of Grand Lodge, thank you for all your assistance during the past year. To the members of my committee, R.W. Bros. T. Hogeboom, N. McCarthy, M. Coulter, P. McGrenere, V.W. Bro. P. Skazin and W. Bro. R. Hawken, thank you for making it a pleasure to chair this committee. To Ex-Officio members M.W. Bro. R. S. J. Daniels and R.W. Bros. G. Dowling and D. Campbell your attendance, interest and input is greatly valued by this committee.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee.

REPORT OF THE GRAND TREASURER

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. T. W. Hogeboom, Chairman, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by R.W. Bro. T. W. Hogeboom, it was adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

What a great pleasure it is for me to be delivering my first Annual Communication report as your new Grand Treasurer at our 156th Session. I first want to thank all those who have put their trust in me as I undertake this new and important position within our Grand Lodge. I trust that each of you still know that I am always open to your feedback and input while we work together as the 'Financial Conscience' of our Grand Lodge.

I would next like to publicly thank my predecessor, R.W. Bro. T. Richard Davies, for his most excellent stewardship of the Grand Lodge finances, investments and overall business profile for the past seventeen years. Together with his service as the Grand Lodge Chairman of Benevolence and Audit and Finance, R.W. Bro. Dick Davies has provided exceptional service to our Grand Lodge for the past thirty years and for which our Grand Master recognized him at the last Annual Communication with the Grand Master's Meritorious Award. We were very fortunate to have such an esteemed member of the Canadian banking community as our financial steward for all of those years. We wish Dick and Thelma all the best of health and happiness for many years ahead.

That being said, I cannot take any credit for the strong, and perhaps, as financially sound a position that our Grand Lodge has been in for years. This is a tribute to our Past Grand Treasurer and the initiatives he directed over the past downturn of our economy and even as far back as twenty years ago. For it was at the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge in July 1990 when the membership decided to engage professional management for the investment portfolio of Grand Lodge and the introduction of diversification into our equity strategy. Since then, and to this day under the direction of our Portfolio Manager, Anne Strebel, and now Marcia Wisniewski, of Scotia Asset Management L.P., we have been most pleased with the wisdom and care exhibited in the management of these funds and recommend the approval of our continuing that relationship on the existing terms.

Our investment portfolio, which is presented annually to Grand Lodge, is soundly based on an investment strategy of two thirds in quality bonds and the balance in proven dividend paying equities. Our investment policy also stipulates that the fixed income securities must be rated at least BBB by a recognized rating agency; that the equity portion of investments must be on the approved list of Scotia Asset Management L.P. research; that no single issuer may represent more than ten percent of the total equities in the portfolio; and while the use of pool funds is permitted, derivative instruments and hedge funds are not permitted. Even given this balance as our safeguard over the past few years, caution must be observed. For when we look to the chaotic markets in Europe and Asian and the slow recovery in the United States, there is no certainty that we are yet free of market losses as a result. As always, there is no certainty in the world money markets. We are going through an unusual period of time with a great deal of uncertainty. The long term bond rates have been falling while the short term is increasing. This could have a major impact on our returns when some of our investments mature and need to be replaced in the years ahead.

Global markets were roiled in the first quarter by unrest in the Middle East, the Japanese earthquake, tsunami and nuclear crisis as well as a resurgence of concerns about European sovereign debt. Despite these events most equity markets, not directly affected, staged impressive first quarter results. In fact, it was the best first quarter for the S&P 500 in 12 years. Fixed income markets traded in a narrow range as fears of deflation and inflation alternated.

Scotia Asset Management expects that the next secular move in interest rates is higher and, as a result, they will be holding a lower than normal exposure to fixed income and their bond duration and weightings are currently neutral. In addition, they are augmenting yield through the high quality corporate issues and, where appropriate, Canadian preferred issues. Canadian stocks have provided excellent returns relative to the returns of the S&P 500. Capital markets absorbed several shocks during the first quarter and it is expected that the reverberations from those shocks may continue for some time. Our emphasis on high quality stocks and bonds can be expected to provide stability in the volatile environment that is projected for the coming months.

At our last investment portfolio review ending April 2011, Scotia noted the gradual decline in our portfolio yield from 4.04% in 2008 to this year ending at 3.5%. Marcia focussed on the projection for the year ahead with a forecast of approximately $94,000 composed of $68,000 in interest and dividend income plus $24,000 in capital gains less the management fees. It was noted that the financial world is paying out approximately 3.0% on bonds. It was suggested that to increase revenues, we need to reconsider equities. Our Investment Policy was then reviewed with a proposal to shift the weighting of investments to increase the flexibility and potentially improve gains. From this discussion, we are now suggesting a change in our Investment Policy Statement to include the guidance that 'all investments shall be dividend paying' and amending the asset allocation ranges for guiding the Scotia Portfolio Manager to read: "Cash and Equivalents - Minimum 0%, Maximum 20%, Normal Long Term 5%; Bonds - Minimum 35%, Maximum 85%, Normal Long Term 65%; and Equities - Minimum 15%, Maximum 45%, Normal Long Term 30%." This constitutes a decrease in the Bond minimum of 25% and an increase in the maximum of 5% and on the Equity side, an increase in the maximum allowance of 10%.

The Audit and Finance Committee of our Grand Lodge, under the chairmanship of R.W. Bro. James Sutherland, continues to review monthly, report to the Management Committee and the Board of General Purposes of our Grand Lodge when called upon and reports annually to the membership as a whole on all sources of income and items of expenditure. This job of managing every financial aspect of what is a very successful business with a budget of $850,000 per year is a daunting task and we must recognize all those volunteers involved, the Grand Lodge Committee Chairman and the Grand Lodge staff, including our Grand Secretary, M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, who monitor and manage within these boundaries. I can assure you there is no 'fat' in the committee or administration expenses. Contrary to the popular misconception, Grand Lodge Officers cover almost all of their expenses including regalia, travel, banquet tickets, etc. from their personal resources with the exception of partial recovery of expenses when on Grand Lodge Committee business in the field. I continue to pledge my support and thanks to each and every Grand Lodge Committee, Chairman and the Grand Secretary who spends so much time detailing accurate and accountable annual budgets and then living within them as approved by the Management Committee and the Grand Master. Given our unbalanced world economy and not knowing the details on our investment future will drive each of us to keep an even tighter handle on the spending of your money at Grand Lodge. Only those who have been involved can imagine the time and energy that goes into creating, massaging, approving and then monitoring the budgets of each Grand Lodge Committee and the Grand Lodge Office itself. We commend each of those involved for their stewardship and commitment to the financial stability of our Grand Lodge.

Again, I will refer you to the last report of the Grand Treasurer and thank him for bringing forward the matter of a potential per capita increase in our Grand Lodge returns. It should not come as any surprise that given our smaller numbers in membership and the inevitable effects of inflation that this matter has again reached the discussion table. Given that our Grand Lodge is currently experiencing substantial operating losses and the projected deficit budgeted for the 2011 Masonic year of in excess of $135,000 can only be attributed to declining membership rather than increasing expenses. Without the strong financial stewardship, cost cutting and avoidance of your Grand Lodge leadership over the past year, this number would have been even higher than the projected $150,000 at this time last year.

To this end, we thank the ad hoc committee that was created to include a few past and present members of the Management, Audit and Finance and Lodge Financial Advisory Committees to review and evaluate the Commutation Fund and make recommendations on the per capita assessment taking into consideration building for the future versus keeping the status quo regarding the expenses of the work of our Grand Lodge. The Management and Audit and Finance Committees and your Grand Treasurer endorse the recommendations of the ad hoc committee as witnessed by the proposed Constitutional amendments to increase the Commutation Fee by $100 to $350 and the Annual Return Fee from $12 to $20 per member. We have completed a five year budget preview into the future and expect that, with the approval of this increase, the per capita will remain at $20 throughout this period. The fifth year deficit projection will require a review of the per capita again at that time but until then, Grand Lodge will take whatever measures are required to maintain a balanced budget throughout this period. We thank you for your support of these Constitutional amendments to assure our Grand Lodge continues to operate as the model for others to emulate.

Sincerely and fraternally submitted.

THOMAS W. HOGEBOOM
Grand Treasurer

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Treasurer, the Report was adopted.

REPORT OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. G. Dowling, Chairman, and on motion of R.W. Bro. Daniels, seconded by R.W. Bro. D. G. Dowling, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

It is my privilege to present this report on behalf of the Members of the Management Committee. It was a pleasure this year to welcome R.W. Bro. John C. Green to the Management Committee as an Elected Member for one year to complete the term of former member R.W. Bro. Thomas Hogeboom.

The objective of the Management Committee this year has been to strengthen the concept of accountability within the leadership of the Board of General Purposes and to ensure that we continue to achieve success along the pathway of change that we introduced in 2009–2010. The success of our transition and evolution to a proactive leadership role is based on our commitment to change and the belief that the status quo is no longer acceptable. The Management Committee, along with the other Members of the Board of General Purposes, is still struggling with the two major cultural shifts required to move us along the pathway to change: acceptance of our new organizational model (Centres of Excellence) and acceptance and belief that our Strategic Plan is actually guiding our thinking and our decision making.

The Management Committee acting in its advisory and policy making role, and guided by the Yearly Tactical Plan approved by the Board of General Purposes in July 2010, dealt with the following during this year:

1. Supported the Grand Master's request to hold an Especial Communication of Grand Lodge in October 2010, in Ottawa.
2. Recommended significant changes in the College of Freemasonry and with the Reflections publication to achieve fiscal accountability.
3. Recommended an increase in the mentor pool for the College of Freemasonry, resulting in significant decreases in course turnaround time.
4. Recommended to the Grand Master that the development of the new Grand Lodge website be outsourced and subsequently approved the outsourcing arrangement.
5. Recommended that a separate initiative be started to acquire address data for members from Lodge Secretaries to build a data store that will enable the mailing of the Ontario Mason Magazine to all brethren whose names are provided by the Lodge Secretaries.
6. Recommended that a software development contract be issued for the conversion of the member database to a modern database management system and the old maintenance application be rewritten.
7. Approved a proposal to conduct a Grand Lodge online survey with the primary aim of validating the goals and objectives stated in the Grand Lodge Strategic Plan.
8. Recommended that future resources be allocated to the benchmarking of other Grand Lodges in terms of programs, initiatives, communication tools, and long term direction.
9. Recommended that approval be given to Chairman of Audit & Finance to pursue the incorporation of Grand Lodge with his recommended choice of legal firm.
10. Recommended that the MasoniCh.I.P. ad hoc committee continue in place during the process of incorporation of MasoniCh.I.P. as a non-profit, non-share corporation by July 2011.
11. Approved creation and publishing of an updated set of committee expense reimbursement guidelines.
12. Recommended that Masonic Holdings proceed with upgrades to the Grand Lodge Office – specifically the installation of new carpeting and the replacement of old fluorescent lighting.
13. Advised the Grand Master on policy regarding Grand Lodge's position with respect to Masonic Temple Corporations. Subsequently revised that policy based on a submission from the Lodge Finance Advisory Committee.
14. Provided a White Paper on the impact of an increase in the Grand Lodge assessment to Audit and Finance for their review. Reviewed a white paper on Virtual mentoring.
15. Established a policy for Grand Lodge Committee Chairmen to contact Lodges through the Chairman of Condition of Masonry regarding any of the content of a D.D.G.M.'s Official visit reports.
16. Recommended implementation of both the constitutional and non-constitutional changes to the Management Committee election process as approved by the Board of General Purposes in July 2010. Subsequently advised that due to wording in the current Constitution, non-constitutional changes would have to be deferred pending adoption of the constitutional changes in July 2011.
17. Approved the Information Systems Strategy document prepared by the Communications Committee and directed its implementation.
18. Recommended approval of the criteria established for the Youth of the Year Award.
19. Approved proceeding with 4 of the 8 action items submitted by Lodge Resources in the "Capturing the Interest of New Masons" proposal.
20. Recommended support for the ruling by the D.G.M. to discontinue publication of the so-called G15 Manuals.
21. Endorsed the Grand Master's decision to create an Ad Hoc Committee to review the structure of Grand Lodge Committees.
22. Endorsed a proposal to submit a recommendation to Grand Lodge in July 2011, for Grand Lodge to host the International Conference on the History of Freemasonry (ICHF) in St. Catharines in 2015.
23. Voted not to endorse the recommended changes to the Lodge Resources Manual until further review and study is done.
24. Recommended that the Communications Committee (O.M.M. Team) consider the production of an on-line version of the O.M.M. in the future, due to increasing costs.

25. Approved distribution of a Leadership Skills Planning survey to all Members of the Board of General Purposes.
26. Reviewed and approved roles and responsibilities documents for all Grand Lodge Committees.
27. Recommended the continued use of Ad Hoc committees, staffed from a cross section of brethren with the necessary skill sets, as a means of getting desired results quickly.
28. Reviewed and approved the committee budget requests for submission to Audit and Finance for 2011–2012.

A number of activities, initiated last year, remain in progress and will hopefully be incorporated into our project list 2011–2012. Notable among these are the O.M.M. address file and the creation of a central repository for all committee documentation and Grand Lodge publications.

The Management Committee also extends thanks to the College of Freemasonry and Reflections Newsletter teams for their perseverance in achieving fiscal accountability. Their efforts went a long way towards Grand Lodge attaining a ‘clean’ audit report this year.

A Meeting of the Honourary, Elected and Appointed Members of the Board of General Purpose was held on February 2nd. The meeting included guest speakers who addressed two relevant topics: “Diversity in Masonry” and “An Organization in Decline.”

Assessment Increase

The Management Committee spent a great deal of time reviewing the recommendations of the Grand Treasurer and the Audit and Finance Committee. Based on the financial results of the last few years and the projections for the next five years, the Management Committee supports and endorses the constitutional amendment to increase the per capita assessment.

Brock University Project

The Management Committee reviewed the proposal from the Brock University Partnership Committee to further cement the relationship with Brock University as a long term project of this Grand Lodge for the purpose of promoting Freemasonry in this jurisdiction by attaining academic credibility and providing a venue for the study and dissemination of information about Freemasonry. The Management Committee supports and endorses the constitutional amendment to introduce an assessment to fund this project.

Summary

In summary, the above recommendations and policy approvals reinforce senior management’s commitment to the Strategic Plan and its focus on ensuring the timeless vitality of the Craft. Our focus continues to be leadership, membership, and fellowship. Doing the right things in our service to the membership. That focus and the necessity to make the Strategic Plan ‘real’ by using the plan to guide our initiatives moving forward is reflected in the Yearly Tactical Plan 2011–2012.

The Management Committee continues to make a concerted effort to lead by example in positively responding to the challenge of maximizing our leadership potential by accepting accountability for our actions.

We are indebted to the Grand Master for his support of those recommendations made to him and through him to the Board of General Purposes and Grand Lodge for their approval.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the dedicated members of the Committee: M.W. Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels, Grand Master, R.W. Bros. Donald A. Campbell, John C. Green, Terry A. McLean, H. Edward Standish, Paul. E. Todd, James C. Sutherland, Chairman of Audit and Finance, and Thomas W. Hogeboom, Grand Treasurer. Thanks are also extended to M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, Grand Secretary for his assistance and support.

D. GARRY DOWLING, Chairman

Answer: No, each Financial issue will be voted upon at the conclusion of the Constitution and Jurisprudence Committee Report.

Printing and Publications

A number of publications have been updated and reprinted; they include the history of our Grand Lodge, 1981 to 2010. A new publication entitled, "Whence Come We, Volume II" is available at our book sales table in the foyer.

Computerization

The upgrade of computer hardware and software is an ongoing process. An IT provider has been engaged and computer technology has been introduced to upgrade and enhance office operations. It is prudent to ensure the acquisition of these products and their related maintenance cost provide a value-added service that directly benefit our lodges and its membership.

Warrants

Since the 2010 report: St. Paul Lodge No. 601 amalgamated with Liberty Lodge No. 419 to become Liberty Lodge No. 419; Aurum Lodge No. 704 amalgamated with Porcupine Lodge No. 506, to become Porcupine Lodge No. 506; Lodge of the Pillars No.703, amalgamated with Mount Sinai Lodge No. 522, to become Mount Sinai-Pillars Lodge No. 522; and Lebanon Forest Lodge No. 133 amalgamated with Huron Lodge No. 224 to become Lebanon Forest Lodge No. 133. Galt Lodge No. 257 surrendered its charter.

Conferences

In February 2011, I attended 'The Conference of Grand Secretaries in North America,' held at Denver, Colorado. The conference theme, "Sharing our Masonic Resources" included several presentations such as: "21st Century Communications," "Grand Representative Programs," "Proceedings, Records of the Past for the Future," "Inter-jurisdictional Protocol," and "Card File Preservation," together with a Round Table discussion.

While at the conference, I represented the Canada Region on the North American, "Commission on Information for Recognition," where presentations for recognition and information were received from: Baja, California, Bulgaria, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Monaco, Romania and Spain. We need to remain diligent when examining documentation to determine legitimacy of origin prior to accepting visitors.

In March 2011, I accompanied our Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master to the, "All Canada Conference" held at Winnipeg. The theme was, "Making Interesting Lodge Meetings and Festive Boards." A panel discussion ensued moderated by the Grand Master, Saskatchewan. Breakout Sessions were held by four individual groups: Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters, Grand Secretaries and Observers, where a variety of topics were discussed. Reports were received from each jurisdiction by their respective Grand Master, together with, reports on: the Western Canada Conference, Conference of Grand Masters in North America, the Conference of Grand Secretaries in N.A. and the Commission on Information for Recognition.

In May 2011, I attended the World Conference of Masonic Grand Lodges in Cartagena, Colombia. The theme was, "Freemasonry and Human Development." Some 14 papers were presented from Masonic jurisdictions throughout the world on the four sub-theme topics: "The influence of Freemasonry in human development," "The promotion of study and work, pillars of the Free Masonic message," "Science and technology as tools for human development," and "Masonic principals and values, guides for human development." An active and open discussion period ensued following each of the sub-theme sessions.

Secretary Seminars

During the past Masonic year, Lodge Secretary Seminars were conducted in November at Walkerton, in April at Orillia, and in June at Thunder Bay. Lodge Secretaries attended a half-day symposium dealing with recent constitutional changes and a review of the responsibilities of Lodge Secretary relative to our Book of Constitution. The sessions provide an excellent forum for friendly interaction of ideas and information to address concerns, and to overview the operations of our Grand Lodge office and its staff. As many new members are undertaking the duties of lodge Secretary, seminars in the coming year, if requested, can be arranged through the District Deputy Grand Master.

Semi Annual Returns

As of this writing, two Semi-Annual Returns, due January 8, 2011, have not been received at the Grand Lodge office. Subsequently, the July 8th return forms have not been mailed, negating the three principal officers an opportunity to vote at this Communication. Please consider this responsibility an important one, particularly when considered in relation to Section 152(p) of the Constitution of Grand Lodge, adopted July 2009.

Closing Remarks

Grand Lodge staff is adjusting to the numerous changes taking place to enhance office operations. They continue as dedicated team players who take great pride in the service they provide. Each contributes to the esprit de corps enjoyed in our daily office activities.

We thank the great majority of lodge Secretaries for the stellar service provided to their respective lodge. We commend those of you who conscientiously submit the required data and information in a timely manner.

Retirement of lodge secretaries necessitates adequate training of his successor. Ensure the necessary documentation and information to perform the duties of office are readily available to facilitate an orderly transfer.

Finally, to all those having dealings at the office, our thanks for your cooperation as we endeavor to provide the essential services necessary.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

TERENCE SHAND, Grand Secretary

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, seconded by the Grand Secretary, the Report was adopted by Grand Lodge.

REPORT OF THE DISCIPLINE COMMITTEE

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. D. E. Jacklin, Chairman, and on motion of R.W. Bro. Daniels, seconded by R.W. Bro. D. E. Jacklin, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your committee had to deal with a number of issues this year. One certificate of Severance was issued to a brother who had been convicted of a number of criminal offences including drug and sexual charges.

The Grand Master suspended one brother who had been convicted of serious frauds and after adjudication, the committee recommends this brother be expelled.

The Grand Master has suspended another brother who it is alleged reviled the religion of a number of our brothers in the context of masonic activities. The committee recommends a Masonic trial be held.

Three brothers of one lodge were suspended by the Grand Master pursuant to his constitutional authority for among other things creating disharmony within their lodge. The brothers appealed. On procedural grounds your committee recommends these suspensions be stayed pending a full review by a reviewing committee who will report to the Grand Master as to what action should be taken.

A number of other matters remain under investigation.

The Grand Master has had to determine a number of other matters which were held to be private piques or quarrels.

Your committee commends both the Grand Master and Grand Secretary for dealing with discipline matters in a fair and expeditious manner.

As Committee Chairman, I extend my thanks for the wise counsel of the members.

DAVID E. JACKLIN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GRAND MASTER'S ADDRESS

On motion of the Deputy Grand Master, this Report was presented by M.W. Bro. D. H. Mumby, seconded by M.W. Bro. W. R. Pellow, and adopted.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

My Brethren:

On behalf of the Committee which is composed of all the Past Grand Masters, it is my honour and pleasure to present this report on the Grand Master's address.

We join with our Grand Master in extending the hand of welcome to all our guests and visitors to this our one hundred and fifty-sixth Annual Communication and like him, trust that all will return home having gained some benefit from the proceedings here this week. The Grand Master's efforts in stressing the importance of the philosophical and intellectual aspects of the mysteries and privileges of Ancient Freemasonry are commended and heartily endorsed by all members of this Committee. Likewise we endorse the tributes paid to our departed Brethren recognizing fully that their departures leave an emptiness that can never be replaced.

The Committee concurs with the conferral of Past Rank upon two such deserving Brethren, M.W. Bro. Richard E. Fletcher and R.W. Bro. W. Bruce Miller. Likewise we heartily endorse the conferral of honours upon, and congratulate, our newest William Mercer Wilson Medal holders and those who have been awarded the Grand Master's Award for Distinguished Service. In addition we concur with the appointments of the Honourary Members of the Board, the members of the Awards Committee and those who have been designated Grand Representatives.

We note with pleasure the dedication of new lodge premises in Warkworth, Maxville and Paisley and hope that the efforts put forth in effecting such renovations will be rewarded with increased attendance by lodge members. The convening of Especial Communications of this Grand Lodge in areas removed from the central core have proven to be highly successful and I can personally attest to the success of the most communication in Ottawa. The interest that was generated on that weekend is still evident, particularly among our younger members.

We note with pleasure the Grand Master's presence at Long Service Awards and like all other Masons, take great pride in noting the achievements of such an eminent Canadian as Bro. John Ross Matheson, decorated Veteran, Statesman, Distinguished Jurist and the epitome of a Freemason.

While the Committee recognizes that often such actions are necessary, we note with concern the continuing erosion of our basic foundation, the individual lodges, through amalgamations and surrender of Charters. The Committee urges all members to put that extra effort forward to make out lodges work and stave off further reductions.

The Grand Master has attended two very important Conferences on our behalf and has made a valuable contribution at both. His erudition and interest have gained the respect of many and placed this Grand Lodge in the forefront in many issues. We also note that he has been able to attend 3 annual Communications of other Grand Lodges, but, due to personal issues, was represented elsewhere by the Deputy Grand Master and the Grand Secretary.

The Committee notes with pleasure, and applauds the Grand Master's bold venture to bring Masonry to Academia and to build the respect it deserves. The success of the Charles A. Sankey Lecture in Masonic Studies with its increased number of attendees annually, speaks itself while the anticipation that comes with the 2015 International Conference on Masonic History, generates renewed interest. There can be little doubt that the partnership with Brock University is paying dividends beyond our earliest expectations.

We join with our Grand Master in thanking the Historian, V.W. Bro. Michael Jenkyns, for updating the history of this Grand Lodge.

While the Canadian Military presence in Afghanistan is winding down we join with the Grand Master in celebrating the continuing achievements of Canada Lodge U.D. in Kandahar. Their latest project of providing educational materials and refurbishing local school rooms is one of great merit. Like the Grand Master we commend those individuals who have worked so hard to bring this lodge into fruition and implore the Most High to watch over our service personnel wherever they may be.

The Committee notes the Grand Master's comments concerning Discipline. Like him we deplore the lacking civility that is becoming increasingly manifest among our Brethren. One of the hallmarks of Freemasonry is that we should always be gentlemen in the true sense of the word, tolerant towards the debilities of others, understanding and patient. In the true world of gentlemen there is no room for "egos" and yet, we are witness to so many instances where attempts are being made to suborn the good of the collectivity through the selfishness of the individual. The Committee suggests that we all take note of the Grand Master's comments and govern ourselves accordingly. We are certain that the matters referred to the Discipline Committee will be dealt with prudently and expeditiously.

As all Past Grand Masters are also members of Ritual Committee we heartily endorse the Grand Master's comment concerning the absolute necessity of maintaining the purity of the Ritual. Section 7 of the Book of Constitution must be rigidly adhered to.

The Grand Master notes with appreciation the roles played by the Past Grand Masters, the Deputy Grand Master, the District Deputy Grand Masters, the Members of the Board of General Purposes, the Grand Senior Warden, Grand Junior Warden, the Grand Registrar, the Grand Chaplain, the Grand Director of Ceremonies, the Assistant Grand Director of Ceremonies, The Grand Organist, the Grand Piper, the Custodian of the Work, the Grand Secretary and the ever efficient office staff at Grand Lodge. These plaudits are appreciated by all.

The Grand Master also pays a fitting tribute to those Members of the Board of General Purposes who are retiring this year, namely: R.W. Bro. Douglas Conway, Lloyd Hammell, Samuel Kalinowsky, Henry Krajewski and Paul Todd. We join with him in thanking them for their many years of dedicated service to this Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master also pays a fitting tribute to his wife Brenda for her support, encouragement, understanding and patience. We too, thank her for assisting our Grand Master over the past two, arduous years.

In concluding his report our Grand Master challenges us all to look to the opportunities of the future and in his own self-effacing manner thanks all members

Samuel Kalinowsky, Henry Krajewski and Paul Todd. We join with him in thanking them for their many years of dedicated service to this Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master also pays a fitting tribute to his wife Brenda for her support, encouragement, understanding and patience. We too, thank her for assisting our Grand Master over the past two, arduous years.

In concluding his report our Grand Master challenges us all to look to the opportunities of the future and in his own self-effacing manner thanks all members for providing him with the opportunity to serve.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the Committee.

D. H. MUMBY, Chairman

ANNOUNCEMENTS REGARDING REPORTS

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

R.W. Bro. J. D. Kingston Report and Reviews (See page 207)

REPORT OF THE LIBRARY, MUSEUM AND ARCHIVES COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the committee, it is my pleasure to report on the activities of the Library Museum and Archives Committee for the past Masonic year.

LIBRARY

This year your committee consisted of: R.W. Bros. Lanny Salmon (Team Leader), James Ford (Grand Librarian), Ronald Bivens, V.W. Bro. Tom Peddle, W. Bros. Donald Falconer, Alliston Gowling and Louis Jansurik. They were supported by the following volunteers: V.W. Bros. Bill Brimer, Ken Rutherford, Charles Willmore and Bro. David Hayward.

Last year, our hours of operation were Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 10:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M. and on the second Saturday from 10:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon for the months of September, October and November 2010 and February, March, April and May 2011. For those brethren who could not visit the Library, Museum and Archives show rooms during the posted hours, special arrangements were made to meet their needs. We will be expanding our hours of operation for next year.

We have renewed our membership into the M.L.M.A. (Masonic Library & Museum Association) of North America. On October 21, 22, 23, 2010, your chairman attended the annual meeting of the M.L.M.A. in Alexandria, Virginia. During the three-day sessions, we received a large amount of interesting information from the Grand Lodge representatives on the workings of their respective Library, Museum and Archives operations. The main topics of discussion at the meetings was the digitalization of books in their libraries and a suggested Museum and Archive inventory format, patterned from the U.S.A. Museum of Our National Heritage.

We have also renewed our leasing agreement with Library World On-Line service. The new system continues to perform quite well.

We purchased a mobile bar coder which speeds up the entry of books with more accuracy into the Lending and Reference Libraries. When a book out on loan becomes overdue, an automatic printout is produced. The new mobile bar coder allows us to take an accurate on shelf inventory position in both libraries at any time. We have also started to scan the content page of each book in both libraries. This will allow the brethren to make a faster, more accurate decision that the book they are searching for is the correct one.

A large number of Knights Templar Proceedings and Annual Returns are now available to review as part of the Reference Library. We also purchased a number of new books for the Lending Library.

A very important event took place in February 2011, with the complete digitalization of the Grand Lodge Proceedings (1855 – 2010) carried by Brock University. These proceedings can be viewed or downloaded by all Masons and/or the general public at the following URL: <http://www.archive.org/details/grandlodge>

Last September, we opened the Java Club on the second Saturday from 10:00 A.M. to 12:00 Noon for the months of September – October – November 2010, and February – March – April – May – June 2011. We have had three guest speakers:

- Saturday, September 11, 2010 – Bro. William Mann – Knight's Templar in The New World.
- Saturday, February 12, 2011 – W. Bro. David Beland – How Lodge Symbols Related to the Individual Mason.
- Saturday, May 14, 2011 – Professor Eileen Schuller – "Dead Sea Scrolls"

We have run into a number of small problems with setting up our new website. We are gradually working through these problems and hope to launch our website shortly.

MUSEUM AND ARCHIVES

The committee this year consisted of: V.W. Bros. Daniel Glenney, Grand Archives (Team Leader), and Michael Jenkyns, Grand Historian. They were supported by the following volunteers: R.W. Bros. John Quinn, Graydon Jones, Marvin Smith, Andrew Downes, V.W. Bros. Greg Lotz, John Sutherland, John Schaeffer, William Utton, W. Bros. Roy Gomes, Prince Salvaraj, Terrance Van Horne and Bro. Greg McKinnon.

We continue to search for, and visit the deceased Past Grand Masters grave sites. Of the 64 available sites, 23 of them have been located and visited. We have contacted three monument marker manufacturers and are getting quotes on a marker with the following dimensions – L 20" X W 12" X D 4" and wording:

Most Worshipful Master
"Name"

Grand Master of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M.
Of Canada in the Province of Ontario

"Date"

The committee is looking into establishing an inventory of Masonic Treasures located with lodges, lodge buildings and public/private buildings around the jurisdiction.

Some other projects we will be working on is the commemoration of our Masonic War

Veterans onto the new website and plans for anniversaries such as the Bicentennial of the War of 1812.

We are also planning to start developing a Museum and Archives website.

On Saturday April 30, 2011, in Southampton, we attended the Bruce District Masons and the Bruce County Museum and Culture Centre official opening of the Masonic Museum exhibit, "The Freemason's – A History Hidden in Plain Sight." The official ribbon cutting ceremony was performed by M.W. Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels. A large number of Masonic pictures, Regalia, Medals, Pins and other Masonic Artefacts were on display. Some of these items were on loan from the Grand Lodge Museum and Archives collection.

Your committee would like to thank the Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master for their continued support of the goals and objectives of Library, Museum and Archives Committee.

In closing, I would like to extend my appreciation and sincere thanks to the members of the Library, Museum and Archives Committee for their time, effort, contributions and co-operation, to all the volunteers for their time and co-operation, to the Grand Secretary and the Grand Lodge office staff for their help and co-operation, and to V.W. Bro. Robert Kliaman and W. Bro. Maurice Hebert for their special effort and co-operation.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

CHARLES H. REID, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

On behalf of the members of the Seminars and Workshops committee, I am pleased to submit our report.

Overview

For the 2010 – 2011 Masonic year, the Seminars and Workshops Committee had two main areas to focus on. First, the preparation of a brainstorm list of possible seminars and workshops to be submitted to the Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master for their selections of topics presented on Tuesday afternoon from 1:30 until 4:20 p.m. at the 2011 Annual Communication of Grand Lodge. Secondly, to coordinate a, "Meet the Nominees" session for those seeking Grand Lodge Office, to be held on Tuesday evening of the 2011 Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

2011 Seminars and Workshops

1. "Engaging the New Mason": Focus on: Are we (the old guys) turning them on or turning them off? Encouraging the philosophy of, "Being a Mason for Life." Retaining new members to insure succession planning and continued growth. The presenter was to have been Bro. Chris Hodapp, author of, "Freemasonry for Dummies," however, unfortunately due to health reasons, he will be unable to attend. As of the writing of this report a replacement is still being sought.
2. Degree Planning: Focusing on one officer at a time: Degree planning and preparation is an integral part of delivering high quality ritual. To further our aim of raising the bar in the performance of our rites and ceremonies, this seminar will focus needs of the pre-degree activity. Questions addressed would include: Which members do what work? Do we have the same brother doing the same work every degree? How to deal with a brother who feels he owns a piece of ritual? Getting your Wardens involved in setting up the work. Spreading the ritual work around so officers learn as they progress. Holding and scheduling productive practices. Correcting the small things. This planning material will augment that offered in the Lodges of Instruction, which deal more with the mechanics of the work itself. Presenters are to be three young dynamic Masons – W. Bros. Adam Nesralla and Chris Evens from St. Andrew's Lodge No. 560, Ottawa District 1, and W. Bro. Aaron O'Donnell, Worshipful Master of Ashlar Lodge No. 610, London West District.

3. "Installation Teams – P & E Essentials" – Once again the Custodian of the Work and his Lodge of Instruction team will deliver the dos and don'ts of a solid Installation Team focusing on, Protocol and Etiquette of the Installation Team and in the Board of Installed Masters. Review changes in 2010 Installation Manual. Explanation of the changes and the importance of following the expanded rubrics in the latest edition of the book.
4. "Religion in Masonry" – As Masons, we are increasingly getting more and more questions about religion in the Craft. Presented in a panel format, our panelists will tackle some of these questions, debate misconceptions, talk about balancing lodge and church – are some men substituting Masonry for religion.
5. "Computer Resources" – Once again there will be a general information session on Computer Resources to run continually throughout the afternoon.

Meet the Nominees

Those who have allowed their name to stand for an elected office in our Grand Lodge will have the opportunity to meet with the voting delegates in Salon 'A' (Convention floor) on Tuesday evening, July 19th from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

This being the 3rd year for this type of event, we as your committee hope to build on the feedback received the last 2 years to make improvements:

- Salon 'A' should address the concern that the nominees were to close together last year. The room size coupled with the number of nominees (16 total) should allow some space between each one.
- Letters of invitation will be sent out to each nominee in the June 1st time frame.
- Name badges will be available to those participating.
- The committee will again have on hand copies of the "Nomination List – 2011."
- The committee will again collect feedback from those attending and those participating.

On behalf of the members of the committee: R.W. Bros. Les Armstrong (Vice Chairman), Neil Dolson, Gary MacGregor, Ken Pierce and Allin Brown.

Respectfully submitted.

BARRY BURCHILL, Chairman

REPORT ON THE MASONIC FOUNDATION OF ONTARIO

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. A. Douglas Nichols, President

To the Most Worshipful, the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

This Report does not appear in the Preliminary Proceedings.

On behalf of the Board of Directors I am pleased to present this report on The Masonic Foundation of Ontario to the one hundred and fifty-sixth Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

Year in Review

On Tuesday morning, it was my privilege to preside over the forty-eighth annual general meeting of The Masonic Foundation of Ontario and present the 2011 Annual Report to the assembled members and guests. The annual report highlights the regular, ongoing activities of the Foundation, as described by the Directors and committee chairmen, and I highly recommend it to your perusal. The report was widely circulated at the Foundation's information booth, and extra copies are available from the Foundation's office. All lodges in Ontario will be furnished with a copy and the report will be posted on the Foundation's website shortly (masonicfoundation.on.ca). As you read through the report, you will appreciate the wide spectrum of social needs addressed by the Foundation. Our main focus has always been the needs of children and young people, but we have not ignored our "more experienced" generation.

Financially, the Foundation grew by nearly $700,000, mainly by capital gains in our investment portfolio and bequests. Details of the financial position and operating results may be found in the annual report.

We were very pleased that thirty-seven District and Lodge charity projects were registered with the Foundation and received, or will receive, a financial bonus from the Foundation upon presentation of the proceeds of their work. District charity projects are important in making communities better places to live and work, and the Foundation encourages, and is very supportive of, this activity. We thank the District Deputy Grand Masters and their fund-raisers for their hard work. The primary objective of these charitable activities to meet and work together in the peace, harmony, and fraternal affection which characterize our great fraternity...for the cause of good.

Appreciation

The Foundation is grateful for the tremendous support of the Grand Master, the Deputy Grand Master, in his capacity as a Director of the Foundation and chairman of special charitable projects, and, indeed all Grand Lodge officers.

This year marks the conclusion of the maximum six-year terms of Directors Gareth R. Taylor and Paul E. Todd. In addition, Directors Donald A. Campbell and Henry Krajewski requested that they not stand for re-election. On behalf of the members of the Foundation, the Board expressed their appreciation to these retiring Directors at its Annual General Meeting on Tuesday.

The Foundation could not function without the support of our dedicated staff. We are fortunate to have Mel Duke, Secretary, and Marlene Victor, Administrative assistant. Their loyalty and devotion to the Foundation is very much appreciated, and the Directors salute them for their hard work.

On a personal note, I have enjoyed the support and confidence of the Board of Directors and am thankful for their devotion to the Foundation.

Looking Ahead

At Tuesday's annual general meeting of the Foundation, four new Directors were elected by the membership to replace the retiring Directors. Their wealth of knowledge and experience will enhance the Board, and we are looking forward to working with them.

Once again this last year we enjoyed an increase in the number of Districts registering their District charity project with the Foundation. We will work hard again this year to support the Districts and the DDGMs in any we can to facilitate the management of the projects.

We are continuing the examination of our longstanding funding of programs to ensure we are meeting our mandate and fulfilling the needs of society in the most effective and efficient manner. This is an important initiative and will take some time to complete and implement.

We will continue to strive to make the Foundation the charity of choice of the Masons of Ontario...of the cause of good.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the Board of Directors, Officers, and Committee Chairmen of The Masonic Foundation of Ontario.

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE BUILDINGS

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

As we continue to assemble for our lodge meetings in lodge buildings within our jurisdiction, we must be cognizant of the fact that our lodge buildings display a perceptual expression and vision of Freemasonry in our communities. It is therefore imperative that they be kept in good repair to maintain and reinforce the name of Freemasonry within these communities. Not only must we keep a good outward appearance, we must also maintain the interior of the buildings in a manner that will insure the safety and security of our brethren.

Your Lodge Buildings (Advisory) Committee has had the opportunity to work with and assist the brethren of the following lodges in completing major renovations or new construction of buildings during this past Masonic year.

- Aldworth Lodge No. 235 (Bruce District)

Renovations of the basement of a new Municipal / Medical building have resulted in the completion of a lodge room that will serve both Forest Lodge No. 393 and Moravian Lodge No. 431, plus the Order of the Eastern Star. The building has been completed and has received approval from the local fire chief, the electrical authority and the municipality. The dedication for the building has been scheduled for June 15, 2011.

- Glengarry Highlands Lodge No. 418 (Eastern District)

This lodge was essentially completed in June of 2010. On October 15, 2010, the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels, dedicated the lodge room and building. There were many Grand Lodge Officers present as well as a very large number of members in the lodge room. This lodge is presently in the process of having an air conditioning system installed in the lodge room.

- Percy Lodge No. 161 (Peterborough District)

This lodge was completed in February of 2010 and was dedicated on October 6, 2010, by the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels. The lodge under normal circumstances is able to accommodate 60 brethren, however there were over 100 brethren in attendance including 19 Past and Present Grand Lodge Officers. To this date, the lodge has not provided the necessary documentation from the Fire Department concerning the new building.

- Rideau Lodge No. 460 (Frontenac District)

Although this lodge has never requested Design Guidelines and Construction Requirement forms from this committee, there have been extensive renovations undertaken to the lodge building. At the present time, construction has been halted due to funding concerns. To our knowledge no building, fire or electrical approvals have been received for this building.

- Golden Star Lodge No. 484 (Western District)

This lodge had requested a copy of the Design Guidelines and Construction Requirements for New Lodge Buildings to assist them in constructing an addition to the lodge building. Due to the limited amount of funding available, the proposed work to the lodge building has not been completed. However, renovations to the washroom facilities have been completed to provide total accessibility.

- Brant Lodge No. 45 (Brant District)

Brant Lodge had requested Design Guidelines and Construction Requirements for their proposed new facility. Although the property has been purchased and architectural drawings have been prepared, construction has been limited due to a delay in acquiring the necessary building permits. Several qualified firms have been contacted to submit bids to undertake the construction. It is understood that the building should be ready by late May 2011.

- Bancroft Lodge No. 482 (Prince Edward District)

Bancroft Lodge No. 482 has not undertaken any major reconstruction of their lodge building in recent years. However, renovations and maintenance projects have recently been undertaken to improve the appearance and functionality of the lodge building. These improvements will enhance the building for rental purposes as well as greatly improving the interior and external appearance of the building. The brethren are to be commended for taking the initiative to make their lodge building a shining example of what can be undertaken and completed in a rural community.

Brethren, many of our lodges are getting older at the same time that Masonry is starting to make a comeback in the communities. This transformation cannot occur if our existing buildings are not kept up to date with proper maintenance, while also adhering to local building, municipal, fire and electrical codes. We owe it to ourselves and our prospective new members to make our buildings as attractive and as safe as possible.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

J. DAVID BELL, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL RELATIONS

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your committee on Fraternal Relations met at the boardroom in the Grand Lodge Memorial building on Monday, March 28, 2011. The committee reviewed and discussed requests for recognition from: the Grand Lodge of Slovakia and the National Grand Lodge of Azerbaijan. The Grand Lodge of Moldova request of 2009 was revisited.

In considering these requests for recognition your committee looks at three important criteria:

1. Legitimacy of Origin
2. Territorial Sovereignty
3. Adherence to the Ancient Landmarks.

Using these three standards, together with information received from the requesting Grand Lodges and reports from the Commission on Information for Recognition of the Conference of Grand Masters of Masons in North America, the committee wishes to provide the following information and recommendation.

Grand Lodge of Moldova

- The Grand Lodge of Moldova was constituted in October of 1999, by the Regular Grand Lodge of Italy, but has subsequently severed relations and has now established relations with the Grand Orient of Italy. They have 210 members in seventeen lodges.
- The Committee on Information for Recognition 2010 report indicates that they now meet the standards for recognition.

Grand Lodge of Slovakia

- The Grand Lodge of Slovakia was constituted on March 21, 2009, by the Grand Lodge of the Czech Republic, the United Grand Lodge of Germany, and the Grand Lodge of Austria.
- They have three active lodges with a membership of some 60 members and meet the standards for recognition.

National Grand Lodge of Azerbaijan

- The Grand Lodge of Azerbaijan was constituted on December 8, 2008, by the Grand Lodge of Washington, D.C., and the Grand Lodge of Russia. They have three lodges.

Your committee recommends the Grand Lodge of Moldova be recognized, and that the Grand Lodges of Azerbaijan and Slovakia be held in abeyance.

Noteworthy: Romania

The National Grand Lodge of Romania has provided information that a breakaway group of the irregular United Grand Lodge of Romania has been established, calling itself the National Grand Lodge of Romania 1880. It should be noted the "National Grand Lodge of Romania" is the only recognized Grand Lodge that meets the standard for recognition.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

GEORGE E. HINDS, Chairman

REPORT OF THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON LODGE FINANCES

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

We are extremely happy to report that the committee continues to gain momentum with both lodges and their attendant Masonic Corporations. The composition of the committee, their commitment and the support of the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, the Grand Secretary, as well as, the Grand Lodge office staff are the essential ingredients to the significant number of requests for financial information, advice and recommendations.

Life and Honorary Membership issues continue to surface, but only infrequently. We take this as a very positive indication that lodges now recognize the many financial downslides and are managing their funds accordingly. Nonetheless, the committee will continue to monitor and provide information, advice and recommendations as may be required going forward.

We continue to work on Lodge Financial Protocols and anticipate presenting a simplified Budget Template for the lodge and we are now reviewing the possibility of such a template for the individual lodge, by request.

In the Not for Profit financial world (NPO) the Balance Sheet, which all businessmen know and cherish is called the, "Statement of Financial Position." From the questions received, few Treasurers are aware of this and many other items. We will continue this year to bring forward information that will assist in this area.

Last year we presented the following and we bring forward again this year to emphasize the importance.

Meeting the Challenge, June 1976, Treasurer and Secretary Page 12—Quote: "The lodge, like any business, must be responsible in its accounting. At all times the brethren are entitled to know how their dues are being used and what expenditures are being made and WHY. They must feel confident their funds are being properly handled, protected and invested and that all financial arrangements are being carried out with THEIR APPROVAL." Do the brethren of your lodge know this?

Budget, Page 12—"Right after his Installation the Worshipful Master will request the Finance Committee to bring in a budget. It will be presented to the Committee of General Purposes for approval and recommendation to the lodge. EVERY MEMBER should have a copy."

"The budget should set out financial goals which will inspire the members to maintain their membership and induce the lodge to be a productive unit in the Masonic family. The members will have a fuller understanding of the financial situation if the Finance Committee gives a quarterly report showing performance against budget and explaining all extraordinary expenses and non-budget items." End quote.

This year the committee intends to offer the lodge a Budget Template which should simplify the process of establishing an annual budget and ultimately a budget based Dues Structure.

Initiation Fees and Annual Dues, Page 12/13—"If a brother realizes that the fee charged at his Initiation is being held in trust rather than being used for day to day operations, he is more likely to retain his attachment to the lodge. Some lodges have been able to survive on low dues mainly because most of their members stay home. Low annual dues lead the Mason to place a low value on his membership in the fraternity."

"In the simplest terms, the amount of the anticipated regular expenses, plus a reasonable allowance for contingency and inflation, less rental income and interest DIVIDED BY the number of members (all members anywhere) EQUALS the Annual Dues." End quote.

The formula for financial health in lodge and temple has been available for many years. Meeting the Challenge was written in 1976 by knowledgeable Masons and is but one of many books available through Grand Lodge. Acting on this advice has been somewhat slow.

We consider the Lodge Auditor to be very important. However, it is our observation that too many lodges for too many years have diminished the role to a very large extent and simply rubber stamp his effort. It is our contention that the Lodge Auditor should be qualified in financial matters or a business executive so that the reports are accurate and transparent to all members.

The committee will bring forward recommendations on: Qualifications, audit procedures and content, and provide assistance as may be requested.

NEWSLETTER

This April, based on a series of inquiries, the committee released a newsletter on the Non-Profit Organization (NPO) Information Return T1044.

It answered the Questions—

- What is a Non Profit Organization NPO? Does a lodge have to file an NPO T1044 Information Return?

- If a lodge receives taxable income of $10,000 plus and/or has assets of over $200,000 they must comply or face clearly defined penalties.
- We estimate that only a few lodges would qualify in this regard. However, we trust the newsletter proved useful.
- It is now our intent to publish a quarterly financial newsletter covering the questions most often asked. R.W. Bro. Robert Collins will head up the newsletter and work with individual members of the committee in preparing same.

SUMMARY

The committee meets monthly and often more frequently to answer questions from both the lodge and Masonic Corporation. The letters of appreciation are very well received by all members of the committee.

We would also like to thank V.W. Bro. Robert Kliaman for the extra time and effort extended. While all our members put a considerable time into monthly meetings, agendas and finalizing answers, Robert has also taken the time often alone, traveling extended distances to meet with the lodge or Masonic Corporation on our behalf. We thank him for his dedication.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee: W. Bro. Al. Fryer, Vice-Chairman/Secretary, R.W. Bros. David Armstrong, Robert Collins, V.W. Bros. Bill Birdsall, Robert Kliaman, and W. Bro. John Rycroft.

TERRENCE HORNER, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC AWARENESS

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

INTERNATIONAL PLOWING MATCH

The Masonic tent and display at the International Plowing Match in St. Thomas District last September was a unique display and exposé of the Family of Freemasonry. The time and effort put forth by the local committee of St. Thomas is greatly appreciated by our Grand Lodge. The visitors to the display were impressed not only by the display, but by the members of the Concordant Bodies who acted as hosts and explained the meaning and philosophy of our Fraternity. The presence of the Canadian Blood Services was also a significant part of the activities in our tent.

The Meet and Greet at Pleasant Valley Golf Club was very successful as over a hundred enjoyed fellowship and food and the opportunity to spend some time with our Grand Master.

Plans for a Masonic presence at the 2011 Plowing Match are in the good hands of a very energized and dynamic committee from Eastern Districts. I am quite confident that this ambitious group of Masons is going to do us proud in September. They are very well organized and quite prepared to meet any challenge.

MUSEUM DISPLAY

St. Lawrence Lodge No. 131, Southampton and Bruce District negotiated a Family of Freemasonry Display at the Bruce County Museum for the months of May and June. The title of the display is, "FREEMASONRY – A HISTORY HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT." This display was opened by the Grand Master on April 30th with over 250 people in attendance. This is one of the most impressive exposures of Freemasonry I have experienced that is open to public viewing. I can assure you that the many hundreds of visitors to Bruce County Museum will leave with a very positive view of Freemasonry.

Although Grand Lodge played only a small part, it is important to recognize the roll of V.W. Bro. Dan Glenney our Archivist, and the effort Bruce District Committee put forth in demonstrating the Family of Freemasonry in a very positive manner.

Also, note this is a portable display that could be moved for a public presence in other communities. Grand Lodge congratulates the efforts of all involved in this great project.

PRESS NOTES

We are continuing to develop sample press releases with some generic content that would be available to lodge for installations, official visits, Masonic Ch.I.P. clinics, Blood Donor clinics and charitable donations by district or the Masonic Foundation. This would assist individual lodges to easily have material available to a press exposure.

OPEN HOUSES

Thus far this year, we have notice of 34 Open Houses and Friend to Friend events in 18 Districts. Open House and displays at fairs, community celebrations and community doors open events are valuable opportunities to showcase our fraternity. These venues serve two purposes.

1. To impress an individual to garner significant interest to ask for more information and perhaps an application.
2. To demonstrate as a Public Relations venue that Freemasonry is not a Fraternity of secrecy and mystique, but an organization promoting learning and self respect.

Both aspects of Open Houses and Friend to Friend meetings are very valuable to our future endeavours.

In closing, I want to thank R.W. Bro. Henry Krajewski who had to resign as chairman for personal reasons regarding his health. His friendly manner and easy address in dealing with people in his duties are greatly appreciated. He and his committee performed diligently and effectively. Grand Lodge will long remember their efforts.

Respectfully submitted.

JOHN C. GREEN, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC EDUCATION

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Your Committee on Masonic Education this year used the theme of, "Pulling Back the Veil" on the outstanding educational resources that are available to the constituent members of the jurisdiction. In simple terms we focused our efforts on promoting the many opportunities for additional light that have been an integral part of the committee resources for many years, that being the courses of the College of Freemasonry, the Reflections Newsletter, along with the publications and books that are so readily available for sale at the Grand Lodge office. The availability of these resources has been greatly enhanced by the on-going awareness that our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels brings to issue when he so eloquently speaks about his theme of the past two years; "Get Knowledge, Get Wisdom, but with all thy getting, Get Understanding." Grand Master you have made the committee's work that much easier this past year.

College of Freemasonry

For the College of Freemasonry the year started off at full throttle primarily because of the approval of an amendment to Section 50 of the Book of Constitution which made the successful completion of the D.D.G.M. course a prerequisite of being nominated and elected to the offices of District Deputy Grand Master and Grand Registrar. In anticipation of increased enrolment in the D.D.G.M. course and an expected increase in the Masonic Arts & Science course, the college immediately began to enlist the help of additional course mentors/evaluators to assist in marking the course submissions from the new students. By early September 2010 an additional ten mentors had volunteered their services and expertise. Following this, the college streamlined the course submission and mentor evaluation process by almost exclusively using electronic means for information transfer. Based on student feedback, this change significantly enhanced the educational experience of the students by reducing the evaluation turnaround time to mere days. We wish to congratulate and thank the mentors for their outstanding contribution in raising the bar on the services that the college has been able to provide to each student this year.

In an effort to further enhance the educational experience, the college has implemented an E – Mentoring program that links the student directly to a college advisor. At the moment this is only being offered to students enrolled in the Masonic Arts & Science course, when they request assistance.

Next, a statistical tracking system for both the D.D.G.M. and Masonic Arts & Science courses was developed. This system reports on the progress of each student, while at the same time providing a historical record of student accomplishments and we wish to acknowledge the great contribution that W. Bro. Gordon Hendrie and Bro. Rick Cadotte have made in this endeavour.

Finally, a streamlined financial accounting system has been integrated into the administrative process and the college wishes to express its appreciation to the Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. D. Garry Dowling for his contributions in developing the new system.

Even with these accomplishments, nothing has brought more satisfaction to the college than experiencing a 65% increase in enrolment, over the previous year, for both the Masonic Arts & Science and D.D.G.M. courses. In fact, the search for further light even extended its arms from Canada Lodge UD located at Kandahar Airfield in Afghanistan, where many Masons in the Canadian Forces and other countries can enjoy a respite in lodge from the daily challenges they experience in a combat theatre.

The college is extremely pleased to announce the following graduates from the Masonic Arts & Science course, in 2010 – 2011. They are to be commended for the research that they have done in completing this educational course and each of them richly deserve the honour that is now bestowed upon them as a, “Fellow of the College of Freemasonry.” They are now encouraged to use the designation of “FCF” following their name in their Masonic Rank.

You are reminded that the Alumni Association of the College of Freemasonry is a vehicle for FCF graduates to continue their pursuit for knowledge by participating in active discussions with fellow FCF. Membership continues to grow, participation is free and an association newsletter is distributed to members. To become involved, all you have to do is express an interest in joining.

In closing, we acknowledge some organizational changes that occurred at the College of Freemasonry and wish to thank Bros. David Gomez, Kenneth Jay and John O'Connor for their dedication and service to the college over the past years, and we wish them well in their future endeavours. We also take this opportunity to acknowledge the visionary leadership and dedication that V.W. Bro. Dale Graham has provided to the College of Freemasonry. Because of his efforts, the educational light glows much more brightly for the constituent members. We wish V.W. Bro. Dale Graham well as he assumes a more advisory role.

Reflections Newsletter

The Masonic Education Newsletter, now known as the Reflections Newsletter, has been in circulation since 1981. This publication aims to make available articles and presentations written for Ontario Masons, by Ontario Masons and is printed quarterly; Fall, Winter, Spring and Summer at a fee of $18.00 per year. Those that subscribe get no greater value for their money from any other publication available.

Past issues up to 2008 can be found in the Newsletter archive section of the Grand Lodge web site and the team is pleased to announce that a new index of issues and articles has been completed up to 2010. It is hoped that these will be available for general use in the not too distant future and we wish to acknowledge the dedicated work of Bro. Andrew Douris, a new "FCF" of the College of Freemasonry, for assisting in the completion of this project.

This has been a year of "passing of the torch" to a new team and we wish to express our thanks to R.W. Bro. Robert McBride, Past Editor; along with R.W. Bro. Robert Jones, Past Subscription Manager for their dedicated work on our behalf. The assistance and advice these brethren provided to the incoming team made for a smooth transition and was greatly appreciated by all involved. A publication like the Reflections Newsletter does not just happen without the dedicated efforts of many beyond the leaders of the team. First, there are the contributors of the excellent articles that we regularly receive. We thank them for the research effort and creativity that they put into each submission, for without them there would be no newsletter. Next is the Editorial Board who plays a vital role by being the custodians of our time honoured principles. To them falls the responsibility of ensuring that the content submitted for the Reflections Newsletter falls within the guidelines set out for the publication of Masonic material by our Grand Lodge. This board includes:

Bro. Rich P. Gardner, FCF, Editor & Team Leader
R.W. Bro. Garnet E. Schenk, FCF, Subscription Manager

R.W. Bro. Robert C. McBride
R.W. Bro. Michael A. Litvak
W. Bro. Art Di Cecco
W. Bro. David Cook, FCF
Bro. Dennis K. Hildebrand

R.W. Bro. David Cameron, FCF
R.W. Bro. Michael Woolley
W. Bro. Craig Michie
W. Bro. Jim Michie

R.W. Bro. James A. J. Hughes
V.W. Bro. Iain B. Mackenzie
W. Bro. Dan Sabourin
Bro. Dennis W. Delorme

The Reflections Editor and Subscription Manager wish to express their sincere appreciation for the dedicated and vital work that these brethren regularly perform on our behalf.

The Reflections Newsletter is an extraordinary resource that is very much underutilized by the constituent lodges and members. Currently there are 549 subscribers and that represents approximately 1% of the Masons in our Grand Jurisdiction. Annual subscription renewals occur every quarter, with a fail to renew rate of 20 - 25 members each quarter. This however is offset by 25 to 30 new subscriptions each quarter, thereby resulting in a slight growth in overall subscriptions.

At the moment only nine or 1.6% of the lodges in the jurisdiction subscribe, with one lodge standing out by paying for a subscription for all its new Initiates. Clearly, the Reflections Newsletter has been one of the best kept secrets of the Order. In an effort to increase awareness of this outstanding resource publication, improve subscription retention and grow the subscription base, the Reflections team will be working to develop an effective communication strategy that will more aggressively market the publication to the constituent members, lodges and districts.

Publications and Books Sales

This too was a year of transition to a new team and we wish to express our sincere appreciation to V.W. Bro. Iain Mackenzie, Past Team Leader, not only for his advice and cooperation during the transition process, but also for his dedication over the years for ensuring that the publications and books, that were available at Grand Lodge for sale were relevant and of the highest order in content.

The team was very fortunate this year to have the expertise of a Mason who is well known for his interest and ability in finding new and relevant Masonic publications that could be made available, for sale, to the constituent members. We thank V.W. Bro. William Minors for the invaluable assistance that he has provided to the new team leader, V.W. Bro. Douglas Gray. Their collaboration resulted in a book sale list being created that included the book name, author and brief overview of the contents of each author's works. This list was distributed electronically to the districts, where it generated considerable interest and resulted in increased sales. Even though awareness of these fine resources improved, they are still one of the best kept secrets of Freemasonry. In an effort to increase awareness the team will continue in its efforts to more effectively market these resources to the constituent members, lodges and districts.

The Committee on Masonic Education wishes to express its appreciation, to the staff of the Grand Lodge office, for their efforts in assisting the constituent members, whether it be with the courses of the College of Freemasonry, the Reflections Newsletter, publication and book requests or simply redirecting inquiries on Masonic Education in general. Further, we would like to express our appreciation to the District Deputy Grand Masters and the District Chairmen for Masonic Education who assisted the committee greatly throughout the year in Pulling Back the Veil on the many resources that are available through the committee. Without their assistance we could not have achieved what we have. And finally, the committee wishes to thank R.W. Bro. D. Garry Dowling, Deputy Grand Master and R.W. Bro. Terry McLean, Craft Stewardship Centre of Excellence Leader for their valuable advice on many issues throughout the year.

In closing, as Chairman, I wish to express my personal appreciation and gratitude to the members of the committee for their time and effort this past year. When each of you takes a look back over the past twelve months, you should be extremely proud of the contributions that you have made. The Light of Freemasonry is a little brighter as a result of your contributions. Thank you!

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

IAIN D. WATES, Chairman

International Plowing Match – Canadian Blood Services was again at the Masonic Tent this past September in St. Thomas, receiving many positive comments and the global exposure of the gift of life. Carolyn Boucher Community Development Coordinator, Donor Services of the CBS in Eastern Ontario, has accepted an invitation from R.W. Bro. Douglas Cameron D.D.G.M. of Eastern District to participate at Prescott-Russell in 2011.

Organ and Tissue Donations – One Organ and Tissue donor can save up to 8 lives and enhance as many as 75 more. Information on being a donor: www.giftoflife.on.ca created by the Ontario Government to increase public awareness. This committee and the CBS support organ donations, but are not directly involved.

Communications – Although being spread out across the province is a challenge to meet face to face with the committee, two information meetings were held within the jurisdiction at Innerkip and Belleville respectively. Email and telephone continues to be the preferred mode of communication. As each committee member serves as a Regional Chairman, each is assigned a group of districts. They then become the link between this committee and the 44 District Blood Donor Chairmen. Likewise, communication from the districts and the lodges returns to this committee by the Regional Chairmen. The line of communication between the District Blood Donor Chairmen and the Regional Chairmen is an important role in communications.

Provincial Blood Donor Week: – to raise awareness of the need during this time period, and to increase the visibility of the work our Craft provides in the area of blood donations. This was held the last week of December 2010, with actual donations of 62 which included 3 NEW donors and 24 reinstated donors. Focus more on first time donors and lead referrals to Canadian Blood Services. Thanks go to R.W. Bro Rob Fleming for taking the lead role in this initiative and to all volunteers and especially to Dominion Lodge, Hamilton District B, Tottenham Lodge No. 467 and Hawkesbury Lodge Eastern District, London West, Sudbury Manitoulin and Toronto East which had far reaching success across the province. This committee wishes to thank R.W. Bro. John Huggins, Chair, Blood Donor Committee, of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge, Province of Ontario and Jurisdiction for actively supporting the Provincial Blood Donor Week.

Volunteers at Blood Donor Clinics – A heart felt thank you goes out to the many dedicated volunteers that take time from their busy lives to support the many Blood Donor Clinics across the province. Red vests with the Square and Compasses embroidered on the left chest have been researched with a competitive pricing of approximately $20.00. Our recommendation is that each district purchases 3–5 vests for their Masonic volunteers.

Plaque Awards – Your Blood Donor Committee has been involved in the Partners for Life Program for the last four years. With the increased involvement from districts across the jurisdiction, it was time to switch the awards to this program from the sponsored clinic format. It is my pleasure to present the following.

First Award – District with the most Blood Donations: London West District

Second Award – District with the most Improved Blood Donations: Ontario District

Third Award – District with Most First Time Blood Donors: Sudbury-Manitoulin District

I also want to recognize Hamilton B District for remaining at number one with 9300 donations collected at sponsored clinics.

Conclusion – With the constant changes in computer technology and the way recording of blood donations are tracked via the Partners for Life Program, a recommendation to the 44 districts is to focus more on promoting the gift of blood donating within their respective lodges. With a recommendation to retain the District Blood Donor Chairman for a term of not less than 3 years, and to also appoint a vice chairman in accordance with succession planning. The outlook is positive that the remaining districts will enroll in the Partners for Life Program and ongoing communications with Canadian Blood Services will continue to strengthen our role in Blood Donations.

This year the Grand Lodge Blood Donor Committee Awards are in recognition of the Partners for Life Program. The decision was made based on the electronic age of technology, using the P4L program, each time a member makes a donation, that donation is automatically recorded in the Canadian Blood Services Website. Not to take away the success we have seen over the years by that time honoured tradition of having the Lodge Chairmen collect and report the number of blood donations. Although not recorded in my preliminary report, there was over 49,000 Masonic and/or sponsored clinic blood donations made across our jurisdiction, this past year.

We are fortunate to have Charlene Goodwin who is the Regional Partnership Specialist with the Canadian Blood Services and has been invaluable in her assistance helping achieve our goals.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

LLOYD W. HAMMELL, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CONDITION OF MASONRY

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present this report on the Condition of Masonry for the 2010–2011 Masonic Year. It has been a very busy and rewarding experience for this committee as we continue to build on a number of new initiatives that were set in motion last year to further enhance the service that this committee provides for your Grand Lodge.

As we complete the second year of the reporting process under the constitutional amendment to Section 104 passed in July of 2009 which deals with the filing of D.D.G.M. reports to the Grand Lodge Chairman on the Condition of Masonry within 14 days of the official visit to each lodge in the district, we are becoming more comfortable with the significant advances that this committee has made in recent years by incorporating current technology into the reporting process. As a committee we recognize that in order to better serve the constituent Lodges of the Jurisdiction, we must continue to evolve in the way we gather, review, report, and act upon information that comes to us by way of the Official Visit Reports of the D.D.G.M.s. To this end, this committee is continuing to adapt and update the way we do things to more efficiently manage the vast amount of information that outlines the life and times of the lodges in this great jurisdiction.

After completing the examination and reporting of two sets of Official Visit reports last year, we began the 2010–2011 Masonic year last September with only the current year's reports to deal with. This "real-time" experience of managing current reports as they come in continues to encourage us that we are indeed making progress in developing the reporting process to the point where it can more closely meet the needs of the Lodges of the Jurisdiction through the services that Grand Lodge is able to provide.

In July of last year the results of our efforts were tabulated on a newly designed spreadsheet document that presented the material in Lodge, District, and Jurisdiction Format, providing statistical information on many facets of Craft lodge experience and operations.

Prior to receiving our first reports this year, this Spreadsheet Reporting Document was further enhanced to facilitate the recording of all of the information, including anecdotal comments of the D.D.G.M.s, that is contained in the reporting forms completed by the Lodge Master and Secretary, the District Secretary, and the D.D.G.M.

It is with a great sense of gratitude that this committee extends our sincere appreciation and congratulations to all of the D.D.G.M.s and District Secretaries who worked so diligently to complete these reports with accuracy and completeness and to manage their electronic submission in such a timely fashion. The monthly reporting of your efforts demonstrated that a large percentage of you were very successful with the process as you continued to submit your reports throughout the year. After two years, the implementation of Amendment 104(b) continues to be successful and will further allow Grand Lodge to provide more timely and meaningful service to the Lodges of the Jurisdiction.

Committee Meetings

Along with managing the reporting process, the Condition of Masonry Committee has been involved in other activities throughout the year. Committee meetings were held in September, January and May with many members in attendance. Our full agenda meetings could be best described as animated and high energy with a great deal being accomplished on each occasion.

D.D.G.M. Orientation Sessions

In the fall of 2010, many members of this committee participated in the district sessions held by the D.D.G.M. Orientation Committee and made use of our Condition of Masonry Power Point Presentation to outline the function of our committee as well as aspects of the reporting process.

The COM committee welcomes the opportunity to share in the presentation of the D.D.G.M. Orientation Sessions and extends our sincere appreciation to R.W. Bro. Siemiernik and his committee for including us in these presentations.

D.D.G.M. Mid Term Meeting

In January of 2010, this committee chairman took part in the D.D.G.M. Mid Term session held in Hamilton. This provided a valuable opportunity to meet personally with the D.D.G.M.s and to discuss current issues with them, as well as receive feedback on their experiences with the new reporting process. Group reports from each breakout feedback session were sent to this committee and copies were forwarded to the Deputy Grand Master for distribution.

D.D.G.M. Exit Session

In July of 2010, following the Board meeting on Monday afternoon, your Condition of Masonry chairman met with all attending D.D.G.M.s for a one hour session relating to, "Life after serving Office." The meeting included a break out session with groups of ten discussing previously provided exit survey questions. A brief report was then presented by a speaker from each group. This was followed by a short presentation on, "What do I do now?" The meeting concluded with a question and answer period. As the value and success of this meeting was evident to all, it is the intention of this committee to conduct a similar session at this Grand Lodge in July.

PROJECTS

D.D.G.M. Tracking

The "COM D.D.G.M. Report Tracking System" that was adopted last year has been in use throughout this year with very few modifications and has proven to be a valuable tool in the managing and reporting of the flow of D.D.G.M. Official Visit reports. From this document a monthly report was submitted to the C.O.E. leader as well as the Deputy Grand Master outlining the progress of the reporting process for each district in the jurisdiction. This report has also been distributed to the Management Committee.

Report Tracking

A similar, slightly modified version of this spreadsheet, was created last year to internally track and manage the flow of Official Visit reports from the D.D.G.M.s to the Committee Chairman, and on to the committee members who review and report the information contained in those reports. This tracking system worked well again this year with very few modifications. Initial Official Visit dates for this document were obtained from the District Trestle Boards provided by the D.D.G.M.s early in the year. Its continued success relies heavily on these preliminary dates, supplemented from time to time with updates from the D.D.G.M.s throughout the year as alterations to the original schedule are required.

COM Grand Lodge Report Summary

This new document designed to report the findings of the committee in a spreadsheet format providing a wide variety of report statistics in a clear, concise and efficient manner was first introduced by the committee last year. This single document, designed to collect, organize and present data from a lodge, district, and jurisdiction perspective with summary totals and percentages includes areas for anecdotal comments as well. As this project was originally considered a work in progress, it has been further updated and enhanced to include all of the information required from the D.D.G.M. Official Visit Reports. This latest version of our reporting document has been in use for this current reporting year.

New for this Year

After two years of successfully managing D.D.G.M. reports of Official Visits under the direction of Amendment 104(b) of the Constitution with all reports being processed electronically and stored in digital format, the process of submitting Hard Copy binders containing this report material has been discontinued this year. The final district reports and the reports for the proceedings are also submitted electronically.

Disc Storage

This year all of the COM records are recorded on Computer Discs and Distributed to the Grand Secretary, along with the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, and C.O.E. Leader. Discs for each individual districts will be distributed to the outgoing D.D.G.M. as well as his successor. This scenario will provide the incoming D.D.G.M. with current records of the lodges in his district at the beginning of his Masonic year allowing him to review the information for each lodge and be proactive in providing Grand Lodge Assistance if requested when it can be of most value.

Computer Availability

As the management of data from the D.D.G.M. Official Visit reports continues to evolve, the Condition of Masonry Committee is anxious to see the Reporting Spreadsheet Document merged onto the Grand Lodge computer system so that current reporting data will be readily available to Grand Lodge Management in a password protected up to date format. The framework for this next stage of reporting is being developed and should be in place for the next Masonic year.

Summary

With all of the changes that have occurred in the reporting process since the adoption of Amendment 104(b) of the Constitution in 2009, the COM Committee has experienced a significant learning curve along with an increased work load associated with the computerization of Official Visit reports. Sincere appreciation is extended to all of the valued members of the committee for the diligence, sincerity, and dedication with which they have approached the tasks presented to them again this year. The committee appreciates the support of R.W. Bro. Terry McLean, C.O.E. Leader and our Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro D. Garry Dowling for their continued guidance, support, and encouragement throughout this second year of the process.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

JOHN HAY, Chairman

REPORT OF THE LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Early in the year many districts, lodges and Masons requested information about our Long Range Plan and the recipients were encouraged to share the same. With the "Cornerstone Club" presentation by our Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master on the topic in February, even more requests were received. In particular, the work done by R.W. Bro. W. Bowick of Frontenac District has been most impressive in adapting our Long Range Plan for District use. He has offered to share his work with other districts on request. bowick@frontenac.net

This year saw a further review of the long range plans of other Grand Lodges: many simple and many complex. Further information on the success of other Grand Lodge plans was brought back to the committee from the various Grand Masters' Conferences for consideration by the Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master.

Success of long range plans depend on having a sense of ownership. To that end the EVERY MEMBER, EVERY LODGE survey was launched in March and was on line for six weeks. The number of comments in the survey responses has been overwhelming; they demonstrate a love for the Craft and offer many good suggestions.

Preliminary results will be presented and the numerical survey results by district will be made available. The analysis of the comments and suggestions will be used to refine the Long Range Plan. The committee wishes to thank everyone who participated.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee: Bro. Stephen Brash (Vice-Chair), R.W. Bros. John Logan, Bill Sweet, David Sheen, Steven Warren and Bros. Milan Cobanov and Dan Hutt.

WES LIBBY, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The following indicates the expenditures and receipts during the year ending April 30, 2011, with regard to the Memorial Fund:

Expenditures:	Grants (18)	$ 53,750
	Salaries (Office Staff)	12,000
	Fees (Firm of Scotia Cassels)	8,222
	TOTAL	$ 73,972
Receipts	Income on Investments	$ 51,140
	Donations/Bequeaths	415
	TOTAL	$ 51,555

The required Annual Meeting was held on April 7, 2011, at the Grand Lodge office. At that time, the committee reviewed seven (7) applications, of which two did not qualify and two were denied. Of the remaining three, two were new applications and one was a re-submission following a previous application.

The Application Form will be re-formatted in order to alleviate inconsistencies of information and to be sure the information provided is clearly stated. Following that, the committee intends to make the Application Form available on the website for convenient accessibility.

Even though the pamphlet entitled, "Guide to Masonic Benevolence," better known as 'The Blue Book' is for those specifically charged with the responsibility of carrying out the work of benevolence; the information therein contained would well serve as useful Masonic Education at any lodge meeting. The result may be better informed brethren of the Benevolence Process.

On behalf of the members of the committee, I wish to express an appreciation to the District and Lodge Chairmen of Benevolence for your compassion towards your brother Masons and/or dependents. Be mindful, however, that your task does not end until you are replaced in that office. Continue to be vigilant of the needs of others every day, every week, and every month as long as you hold the tile of Benevolence Chairman.

Further, I extend a heartfelt thank you to M.W. Bro. Terence Shand, and Mrs. Stacey Birks, Supervisors of Benevolence at the Grand Lodge office. Your caring and diligence to all concerned is much appreciated.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee: R.W. Bros. W. M. Atkinson, Jr., T. W. Hogeboom, Robert C. James, James A. R. Keith, Robert E. Kerr, J. D. Kingston, Paul J. Mullen, and K. L. Whiting.

GREGORY H. HAZLITT, Chairman

REPORT OF THE LODGE RESOURCES COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

For this year, we shifted the focus away from presenting and promoting our committee's resources to examining and evaluating them. We did the fall presentations, which had been booked for us previously, and we gave presentations to any lodge or district which requested them. Thus we made overview presentations about all the teams in Georgian North, Georgian South, Ontario, Victoria, Peterborough, Prince Edward, Frontenac and Grey Districts. We gave more detailed individual presentations in Toronto East, Muskoka-Parry Sound, Ottawa 1 and 2, St. Thomas, Sudbury-Manitoulin and Waterloo Districts.

SELF-EXAMINATION

We first did a retrospective study using data from previous Proceedings to look for a correlation between the Lodge Resources presentations and a change in membership. We could elicit no statistically significant trends.

We then added data garnered from the Condition of Masonry report and found that there appears to be a weak correlation between a lodge reporting use of our programs and both increased membership and increased retention. However, we could show no correlation between having one of our presentations in their district and the use of the programs or a benefit to membership. We found that participating in the Cornerstone Project, even if not completed, increased the use of our programs.

So we assigned a task force to do a prospective study of the effect of our presentations. We found that the presentations are having some success in motivating lodges to run a program they have not been running, with 22 new programs over 8 Districts and 57 lodges. More than a third of the lodges represented at a presentation (21/57, 37 %) are either running or believably claiming to plan a new program mainly or significantly because of a presentation. Many are Cornerstone programs, each of which involves one other committee program. Awareness of programs is often limited to one or two members and an individual is often unable to translate his interest into a rooted program embedded in the committee structure of his lodge.

COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

We had another task force look at our committee structure. We recommended that Mentors be elevated to its own Team with a dedicated Team Leader. We suggest that committee members be selected from across the province conjointly by the Team Leaders so that we have a member in virtually every district. Although assigned to a specific Team, they will represent all the programs of the committee to their districts. They will make formal and informal contact with the D.D.G.M.s, up-and-coming prospective D.D.G.M. candidates, district chairmen and individual Worshipful Masters, letting them know we are the prime resource of program assistance, extolling the programs when visiting lodges, and if they see a need, discretely suggest that a program might be useful. Local members who know the local players are better placed to know which lodges need assistance, which people to contact to make things happen, and how to go about getting things done in their district. They could run district-wide presentations, lodge presentations, or where the need is seen, work with the Worshipful Master and the lodge to implement one or more programs. When there is a D.D.G.M. Orientation Workshop in their area, they should give a short presentation there. The Chair of that committee supported this. As a result of this process, we amended our committee and team mandates.

LODGE RESOURCES MANUAL

We decided that rather than the Lodge Resources Committee trying to keep an updated book of information on all the Grand Lodge committees, we would limit the Lodge Resources Manual to detailing our committee's programs. The logical place to keep this information is on the Grand Lodge website and we encourage all committees to keep their portion of the website up-to-date. A third task force started the laborious job of updating the Lodge Resources Manual. This work will continue into next year; indeed, it will be on-going.

COST EFFICIENCIES

This year we distributed the Lodge Resources Manual on CD or referred brethren to the Grand Lodge website whence it can be downloaded. By doing so we saved several thousand dollars in printing costs with no negative feedback from the brethren. We recommend that next year a trial be made of using webinars to deliver some presentations in order to reduce travel costs in terms of fuel, meals, accommodation and presenters' time away from family. We also feel that the Annual Communication is an ideal time to make presentations to the most interested brethren from across the province.

BROTHER TO BROTHER TEAM

The Brother to Brother Program is a toolkit to enhance the skills of all Masons to RETAIN, REVITALIZE and RENEW their membership. No matter what issue your lodge may be facing, the Brother to Brother Program has some tested and effective solutions for you. They are all collected in the Lodge Resources Manual which is available for download from the Grand Lodge website.

FRIEND TO FRIEND TEAM

The Friend to Friend Team put together a very effective presentation giving step-by-step advice on how to run a Friend to Friend Event. This program is designed to help your lodge find and properly solicit those good men in your community who would benefit from the Craft.

The Friend to Friend Team recommends development of a PowerPoint presentation geared to non-Masons that lodges can use at a Friend to Friend event.

Work proceeded on a revised Friend to Friend video under the leadership of Bros.

Graeme Boyce and Milan Cobanov.

OFFICER PROGRESSION TEAM

The Officer Progression Team, in response to convergence on the topic, has put together a presentation on the Duties and Responsibilities of Officers, as well as, an Officer Learning Curve. This brings to five the number of their aids, the others being – The Deacons' Floor work, the Master's Chair, and Managing and Leadership.

CORNERSTONE PROJECT

The Cornerstone Project was rolled out in several more regions this year. This innovative program brings together the basics of the other programs and encourages lodges to plan, implement and manage well-rounded yearly programs. It is up and running in 23 Districts and will be coming your way soon.

ON-BOARDING DOCUMENT

On request of the Deputy Grand Master, we put together a document aimed at the newly raised Mason, detailing further opportunities for involvement in the Craft.

I would like to thank all the members of the committee for their willingness to examine the way we do things and being open to looking at more efficient ways to accomplish our goals.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Leonard Feldt, Secretary, Richmond Hill; Bill Brimer, Burlington; Alan Donovan, Toronto; Paul Farrell, Ajax; Bill Utton, Ajax; Charles Woods, Brother to Brother Team Leader, Mississauga; Rob Fleming, Copper Cliff; Lorne MacDonald, Brockville; Bob Romberg, Baysville; Allen Hackett, Wellington; John Anderson, Temagami; Sonny Clark, Brockville; Roy Eaton, Little Current; Jim Truscott, Woodstock; Harry Welsh, Innisfil; Ron Findlater, Cornerstone Team Leader, Woodstock; Peter Liska, Oakville; John Gorrill, Cameron; John Sutherland, Woodstock; John McKaig, London; Thomas Manning, Shelbourne; Gary MacGregor, Elizabethtown; John Johnston, Rodney; John Pattison, Friend to Friend Team Leader, Kitchener; Robert Lindsay, Lindsay; John Kroezen, Waterloo; Andrew Turk, Toronto; Michael Kingsley, Jerseyville; Wah Chung, Sudbury; Ted Power, Peterborough; Robert Gillman, Thunder Bay; Bill Holden, Toronto; Bruce Miller, Elmira; Ivor Bayley, Ottawa; Kevin Smith, Officer Progression Team Leader, Woodstock; Bob Barker, Mississauga; Bill Elliott, Lindsey; Harold Johnson, Huntsville; Bruce McLennan, Beamsville; Jim Valley, Kingsville

REPORT OF THE D.D.G.M. ORIENTATION COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present the report of the D.D.G.M. Orientation Committee on behalf of its members.

This past year has no doubt been interesting with so many eager aspirants and their secretaries enrolled in our sessions. The number enrolled has increased from the previous year, but book sales experienced a slight decrease. We attribute these results to many having enrolled in the mandatory Correspondence Course and have books in possession. Much interest has been exhibited in both the Orientation Sessions and the Correspondence Course.

This committee has made some minor changes to provide extra time for assistance regarding the Correspondence Course. The committee has concluded that the Orientation Sessions and the Correspondence Course complement each other.

This committee has again worked very close with the Committee on the Condition of Masonry under the direction of R.W. Bro. John Hay. Members of his committee have been present at every Orientation session providing instruction to the aspiring secretaries. We thank R.W. Bro. Hay and his team.

Our sessions were held in seven locations throughout our jurisdiction, and we were pleased with the attendance. As many aspirants were busy working on their Correspondence Course some missed our sessions. Therefore, a session is planned for May 14, 2011, at the Guelph Masonic Lodge.

Special thanks to all committee members for their expert work and devotion and to R.W. Bro. Paul Johnson for providing the necessary equipment, as well as printing all of the hard copies. This committee extends appreciation to all the lodges that hosted these sessions.

To conclude, we have found that all aspirants did benefit from these sessions and have taken a common sense approach to this high and important office. Together with this training and the education received from the course I feel that the future D.D.G.M.s will enhance Masonry in our jurisdiction.

Respectfully submitted.

THOMAS A. SIEMIERNIK, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Is it easier communicating today as opposed to 50 years ago? It all depends on your concept of communication. Trying to deliver a message and having it successfully received by the target audience remains a challenge. For as much as we have endeavoured to improve, we have not attained the success we would have liked to have made. My appreciation is extended to the twenty eight Masons who were appointed to assist this committee with their vast talents. During the course of the year it has been necessary to reassess our priorities and better align skills, abilities and tasks resulting in delays as we shuffled our volunteers to meet the objectives.

As the world adjusts to faster paced means of communication, we must ever bear in mind our obligations and exercise strict caution especially around privacy violations.

The Communications Committee has been comprised of several teams that deal with specific areas of expertise which have been detailed in the balance of this report.

Respectfully submitted.

NORMAN G. MCCARTHY, Chairman

Communication Strategy – In order to formulate an overall communications strategy for our Grand Lodge, we needed to comprehend each of the components of our operations, and then develop documentation to support each. Our examination has led to the creation of an Information Technology Strategy, Website Management Strategy, Internal Communications Strategy and a Branding Standard. Before year end, we anticipate the formalization of a policy for all Grand Lodge Communications.

ONTARIO MASON MAGAZINE

The Fall 2010 edition of the O.M.M. faced several challenges due to the unexpected illness of R.W. Bro. Robert McBride, and the short timeline remaining to produce the magazine. It was only due to the unprecedented support of the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and the Grand Secretary that a dedicated team of volunteers was able to meet and overcome the challenges presented.

Special thanks for their contributions must go out to our talented and dedicated graphic artist and layout person: Bro. Doug Crawford, Assistant Editor, Bro. Richard Ackroyd, the reporting team of R.W. Bros. John Reynolds, Col. Bill Eastwood, W. Bro. Matt Flikweert and Bill Douglas and the advertising team of R.W. Bro. Isaac Lazar and Mike Maziuk.

An effort to create an up-to-date mailing list has gone forward in the spring of 2011 with the assistance of the Grand Secretary and the D.D.G.M.s. We hope that every lodge will present the data to our committee to create such a list for the fall 2011 issue of the O.M.M. The future vision for the O.M.M. is to continue to print the magazine at least once a year complimented with an online version in the spring of 2012. The online version will require a new group of individuals to assist in creating the electronic version. It is hoped that the online version can present the opportunity to update its contents quarterly.

The Ontario Mason Magazine continues to be the public face of Freemasonry in Ontario. It communicates to the public, and to our brethren, what Masons do privately and publically to serve our communities, while carrying on a proud tradition of education and character building. The fall 2010 issue did this in that great tradition.

It also continues to be a primary tool for recruitment by attracting the interest of non-members who have their interest elevated by seeing that Masonry isn't a "secret society," but one that, while it may have secrets, invites its members to participate in their communities in building a better nation and better men.

I strongly recommend that we continue to produce the Ontario Mason Magazine using an improved dynamic mailing list involving all of our lodges.

I thank you for the opportunity of serving as Editor of the Ontario Mason Magazine for the year 2010 – 2011.

Respectfully submitted.

BRUCE MILLER, Editor

INTERNAL COMMUNICATIONS

The main areas of activity were:

1. Assemble Grand Lodge Email Distribution Lists

With the assistance of the Deputy Grand Master and District Deputy Grand Masters, we were able to obtain the email addresses of all the Grand Lodge Officers and Past Grand Masters, with the exception of nine brethren who do not have email.

This year, the distribution lists were expanded and grouped into logical sub lists. They cover Past Grand Masters, D.D.G.M.s, the Board of General Purposes, other Committee Chairmen and Team Leaders, other elected and appointed Grand Lodge Officers and District Secretaries. We have noted that in many cases more information was passed on to the brethren of the jurisdiction, while in some areas of the province information is not being conveyed.

2. District Trestle boards

A request was sent to all D.D.G.M.s in August 2010 to obtain copies for distribution with the final one arriving mid-October. These were shared with the Members of the Board of General Purposes and D.D.G.M.s.

3. Email Announcements

The distribution emails were standardized as follows:

- attachments usually in PDF form and / or MS Word documents
- to protect the privacy of recipients, contact information was concealed (use of "bcc")

- message header with the list(s) to whom the message was sent so that the recipient knew the target audience and who as a courtesy received copies (e.g. Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master and Grand Secretary)
- the name of the person who requested to message to be sent
- included forwarding instructions, if applicable
- highlighted event particulars
- clearly indicated contact information for follow up and or RSVP

As of the beginning of May 2011, there have been 112 messages sent. A detailed log, indicating the date, who requested the message, the subject and the recipient have been compiled. This activity is ongoing.

4. Internal Communications Awards

The Team, with the assistance of the Deputy Grand Master and Chairman, Communications Committee reviewed the awards and criteria. Additional input was provided by the Communications Committee.

The following are the categories with a winner and merit award for each:

- Lodge Summons
- Lodge Newsletter

Nominations for the awards can only be made by the D.D.G.M.s, their Secretaries, the Grand Master or the Deputy Grand Master. Requests for recommendations along with the criteria for each grouping were invited in mid-February. The volume of submissions was less than overwhelming. The final selection of the winners is pending as of the date of writing this report. The winners will be announced at the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge.

On behalf of the members of the Internal Communication Team: R.W. Bros. Jack Ledger and Jim Sercombe, I wish to thank the Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master for the opportunity to serve Grand Lodge in this capacity, and for the confidence he has placed in us.

Fraternally submitted.

WEBSITE MANAGEMENT

At the start of this Masonic year, the Website Management team was given the task of implementing a new design for the Website. Early in 2011, it was realized that this would need to be out sourced to a professional web design company. We received three quotes and it was unanimously agreed to give Shore Consulting the contract. This was done in March 2011. The design will be such that we can easily add or delete content with the structure of the website. As of the writing of this report, the design has been completed, and we are in the process of loading the content. One of the many improvements will be a separate section for members only. The new website will be in full operation prior to the Annual Communication this July. During the year, we have experienced significant problems in keeping the old website current, as we attempted to move forward and apologize for any inconvenience.

OFFICE TECHNOLOGY

Seminars

We have conducted several seminars throughout Ontario this Masonic year. The attendance and interest has been rewarding, and will bolster our plans for continuation.

- July 20, 2010 – Grand Lodge (3 seminars)

- November 13, 2010 – Walkerton (Bruce District)
- April 30, 2011 – Orillia (Georgian North & Georgian South Districts)
- June 4, 2011 – Thunder Bay (Algoma District)
- June 11, 2011 – Toronto (Toronto Don Valley, Toronto East, Toronto Humber Valley, Toronto West, and York Districts)

Computer Resources Disks Produced and Distributed

Over 400 CDs and DVDs were produced and distributed throughout the jurisdiction to the brethren via the seminars and to the District Deputy Grand Masters. The disks contained a significant amount of information including all current Grand Lodge forms as well as significant other resource material for the benefit of not only the lodge Secretaries and Treasurers, but the three principle officers of the lodge as well.

New Equipment

As a result of the Technology Audit done in 2010 and as part of the implementation plan a new workstation, monitors and software were purchased.

Grand Lodge Forms

Several Grand Lodge forms, including the Semi Annual Return, D.D.G.M. Forms, Degree and Installation set up forms were updated and posted to the Grand Lodge Forms site (www.grandlodge.on.ca/Forms). These forms have been added to the Computer Resources Distribution CD and postings are made to the Forms Site as updates are applied so that these are available in a timely manner.

Most of the forms and the Semi Annual Return may be completed on a computer using Adobe Acrobat Reader, available as a free download from www.adobe.com or from your Computer Resources Representative.

Site and Hearing Challenged Brethren

The lodges who have members who are sight impaired may apply for a special CD designed to be used by a voice synthesizer in their computer. There are also several publications available in large print format.

Both of these items are available to any member who suffers sight impairment. Application to Grand Lodge for this CD or large type books must be made by the lodge on behalf of the member, on Lodge Letterhead and signed by the Master. The following publications are available:

1. Book of the Work – 2009
2. Book of Installation 2010
3. Book of Constitution 2010
4. Guide and Mechanics – 1985
5. Meeting the Challenge – 1998
6. Several other Grand Lodge Publications

These files are password protected and formatted in either Microsoft Word and/or Adobe Acrobat formats as required by the standards set down by the manufacturers of the voice synthesizer equipment.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the team.

GRAND LODGE TECHNOLOGY

The Grand Lodge Technology Team was initially assigned the tasks of compiling a Grand Lodge Membership Database for use in mailing out Ontario Mason Magazines (O.M.M.), updating the Ontario Masonic Directory, developing a Shared Document Repository to store such things as an Internal Communication List(s) and evaluating the suitability of Microsoft SharePoint web application platform.

The team, very early on felt that one database could handle all of these tasks and a few more. It appeared that all of these independent databases would have to be maintained by lodge secretaries either directly or indirectly resulting in an enormous amount of work for them. Bro. W. Page's early success in the development of the database for the O.M.M. led to him being seconded to the Grand Lodge office to update the Grand Lodge Membership Database. In developing that catalogue, he has incorporated many of the components of the Ontario Masonic Directory resulting in no further efforts required by this team. We are grateful to the Ontario Mason Magazine team who has volunteered to develop a mailing list for the Masons of Ontario which we trust can be merged or linked to a central member database in the future. SharePoint was reviewed and it was determined that it would work with the added benefit that it was a Microsoft product. The remaining task is to make use of a server and SharePoint 2008 purchased in early 2010 and to develop a repository for the various committees of Grand Lodge to store reports. The initial indications are positive that we should succeed in developing a working collaborative system assuming access to the Server and 10 or 12 keen participants in the Pilot.

This report is submitted on behalf of: R.W. Bro. William (Bill) Thompson, V.W. Bro. Frederick (Rick) Rutherford, W. Bro. Ian Leppert, Bros. Pieter Geerkens and Warren Page.

REPORT OF THE YOUTH INITIATIVES COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Youth Initiative Committee designed and produced a Youth of the Year Award Plaque in black walnut, in the shape of a temple with columns on each side and a large brass square and compasses at the top, in the centre of the roof line. Twenty four plaques were added between the two columns for the names of the recipients and a large brass plaque at the bottom to explain the significance of the award.

Special thanks to Bro. Harry Junior Cooper (William Mercer Wilson recipient) for his craftsmanship in forging the brass square and compasses and the brass plaques on the Youth Award plaque. At the official visit of Burns' Lodge No. 153 in Wyoming, the Youth Initiatives Committee presented Bro. Harry Junior Cooper with a certificate of appreciation for his donation of his time and material to the Youth of the Year Award.

This year's award recipient was Leslie Diane LaRue of the International Order of the Rainbow for Girls form Primrose Assembly #8. At the Rainbow for Girls Grand Assembly held in Burlington, in August, Leslie was presented with the Youth of the Year Award plaque and a cheque for $500 from Grand Lodge by the Youth Initiatives Committee. Primrose Assembly #8 was presented with a cheque for $300 at the same time.

At the Grand Assembly, M.W. Bro. Owen F. Walton, Grand Master of Nova Scotia, gave the apron charge to a new initiated Rainbow Girl. At their initiation a small square Masonic Apron is tied around the wrist of the candidate and a Master Mason wearing a Masonic Apron gives this lecture. This is a real connection to our Masonic Order and every Mason should try to attend the Rainbow for Girls Assembly to get the true meaning of our connection with the Rainbow for Girls.

At the Board of Directors of DeMolay Canada annual meeting on June 17, 2010, in Dallas, Texas, M.W. Bro. Allan J. Petrisor, R.W. Bro. Barry Burchill and R.W. Bro. William A. Atkinson were unanimously elected to be awarded the DeMolay Legion of Honor. The Legion of Honor is the highest honor conferred by DeMolay International. It is conferred for outstanding leadership in some field of endeavor or for success in fraternal life, including adult service to DeMolay.

R.W. Bro. William A. Atkinson received his Legion of Honor at the DeMolay installation of the Master Councilor and officers of Mississauga Chapter of DeMolay in August and had the privilege of having his son R.W. Bro. William M. Atkinson as the Master of Ceremonies conducting him through the ceremony.

At the DeMolay Provincial Conference in Barrie, in November, R.W. Bro. William A. Atkinson was privileged to conduct M.W. Bro. Allan J. Petrison through the ceremony of receiving his Legion of Honor. Two weeks later, R.W. Bro. Barry Burchill received his Legion of Honor in Ottawa.

On September 11, 2011, a new DeMolay chapter, Ganaraska Chapter was instituted at the Port Hope Masonic Temple, 54 Toronto Road in Port Hope, with the installation of officers following. "Ganaraska" is the name given by the native settlers of the Port Hope area, the Iroquois Confederacy or "League of Peace and Power of the five nations." It means "spawning grounds." From its humble beginnings, the DeMolay hope that their new chapter will be the spawning ground of the future leaders of their community.

This year twenty eight DeMolay will be turning twenty one and have to leave the DeMolay because of age of majority. Do you have any of these DeMolay joining your lodge? If not, are you attending their DeMolay meetings and helping and encouraging them? Our lodges need these young energetic DeMolay; they are our future. You will not believe the quality of their work and the great feeling you get out of being with these young men. Get your lodge involved in attending a DeMolay meeting, installation or initiation. Sponsor a DeMolay night, invite them to speak or perform their ritual before or after your meeting. Include youth support plans in your lodge agenda.

There is only one Job's Daughter Bethel in Ontario. The fact that they have to have a family connection to Masonry has limited their growth.

Let's groom the next generation to find the definitive cure for cancer, develop more prolific crops, and mediate between nations. Let's promote youth! Yes, help Boy and Girl Scouts, 4H, (all of these groups were founded by Masons), but more especially, help DeMolay, Job's Daughters and Order of the Rainbow for Girls. Unlike the other youth groups, they do not get United Way monies or assistance from local churches and service clubs. You and you alone as a Mason, can provide the leadership, financing and places to meet for the DeMolay Chapter, Job's Daughter Bethel and Order of the Rainbow for Girl's Assembly.

Our committee would like to express their appreciation for the assistance and advice from our Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Secretary and our Centre of Excellence Leader.

I would like to thank the members of this committee for their unselfish time in the support of the youth of this province – V.W. Bro. Scott Dunlop (vice chairman), R.W. Bros. Allin Brown, Andrew Dobbie, Ernie Morrison, Marvin Switzer, James Williamson, V.W. Bros. John Black, Gerry Ouellette, W. Bro. Richard Loomes, and Bro. Sheldon Kofsky, Secretary.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Youth Initiatives Committee.

REPORT OF THE LEADERSHIP TRAINING DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Grand Master and his Deputy are to be commended for their continued recognition of the need to assist in the development of the future leaders within our Grand Lodge.

Last year, this Grand Lodge decided to change the Management Committee Elections format based on a review and recommendations by this committee. As such, the Leadership Training Development Committee was charged with proposing the amendments to the Constitution necessary to accomplish this change. These amendments were developed and submitted to the Committee on Constitution and Jurisprudence for review. The review has deemed these amendments to the Constitution to be regular and they were submitted to the Board of General Purposes. Should these amendments be approved by Grand Lodge, this committee will identify the non-constitutional changes required to use the new format and submit the same to the Board of General Purposes.

Our mission this year continues to be: To contribute to the advancement of Grand Lodge by enhancing and/or recognizing leadership skills necessary to create a more positive change in our fraternity and provide the opportunity to develop needed skills.

The Resource Guide for the New Members of the Board of General Purposes has been updated and is available to each honorary, elected and appointed member. As the Standing and Special Committees of Grand Lodge continue to change each year, this guide reflects the additions and subtractions, along with the committee reassignments in the Committees' Organizational Chart. One addition to the Resource Guide that should be shared with all Masons is the request by Grand Lodge that when an individual is sent an invitation to a Masonic function from a lodge or district that a reply indicating acceptance or regrets be returned in a timely manner.

Grand Lodge has recognized that many of our members are starting to use PowerPoint Presentations as a form of communication. While this is a good step forward, the Leadership Training Development Committee was asked by Grand Lodge to take the standard title page and separate template for subsequent slides previously developed and fine tune them so their use will allow a uniformed approach for the development of future PowerPoint Presentations. A package has been developed, including the improved templates with instructions, and is presently available for use from the committee. Our committee also recognizes that there are many advance features within the PowerPoint software and will work with those members who are proficient in PowerPoint design to continually redesign and update our package.

A strategic goal for this committee is to develop a Skills Inventory to identify what skills and talents various members possess that could be useful when matching individuals with the needs of Grand Lodge. Within this goal, a Skills Inventory form has been developed and approved. It is presently being sent to the Members of the Board of General Purposes to fill out as a trial. Should the information obtained by this survey and stored in a data base be assessed to be of value to Grand Lodge, more brethren will be asked to participate. Also as suggested last year, future considerations will be given to the availability of the form on the Grand Lodge website for any Master Mason who is interested in offering his services.

The original online questionnaire or survey that was developed to measure the experience of the Grand Lodge committee members will be used a second time near the end of the Masonic 2010–2011 year. We would first like to thank all committee members for volunteering their time and efforts to assist our Grand Lodge. Your filling out of the survey will give Grand Lodge some insight into the workings of each committee and assist the Grand Master and his Deputy in the committee assignments for the next year. Survey completion results and it's benefits will be assessed to decide if future surveys will be conducted.

Your Leadership Training Development Committee remains focused on Leadership Identification, Skills Inventory and Assessment, Leadership Training, Updating of the Resource Guide, Developing new features for the PowerPoint Guidelines, and assisting in any way with the Goals and Objectives of Grand Lodge.

It has been my pleasure to be associated with R.W. Bros. Scott Drummond and Ken Wood, and W. Bro. Larry Barrett while working on the Leadership Training Development Committee. I thank them for their dedication, hard work, and especially their patience, understanding and support, while dealing with a first time committee chairman. Also, thank you to our C.O.E. leader, R.W. Bro. Terry McLean and the Deputy Grand Master, R.W. Bro. Garry Dowling for their assistance and guidance during the year.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted.

TERENCE D. PACHAL, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MASONIC PROGRAM

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the members of our team this year. As well, I congratulate the many hundreds of Masons from 125 different communities in 39 Masonic Districts on running successful clinics. Every district in our jurisdiction has a District Coordinator who is promoting the program to the lodges and concordant bodies.

During the Masonic year 2010–2011, we have held 149 clinics, compared to 169 in the same period one year ago. This brings us to 42 districts that have held clinics since our inception. We have surpassed 39,000 children. The remaining two districts have clinics scheduled to run later this spring.

We have 70 EZ Child ID systems at this time located in 9 locations across our jurisdiction.

Presentations by committee members and district coordinators:

Lodges .....	344
District Associations .....	18
Concordant Bodies .....	10
Professional Bodies .....	5
Corporations .....	15
Interest Groups .....	61
District/Lodge Coordinators .....	5
Media .....	175

We continue to receive accolades in the media. Dozens of newspaper articles, radio station interviews, and television news and feature stories have been aired/written in the past 12 months from Windsor to Cornwall and Ottawa, from Dunnville and Brantford to Sudbury, and from North Bay to Emo. Our program is providing a huge dividend for our Grand Lodge and Masonry in general. We are offering this program because, unfortunately, it is needed. The problem of missing children and exploited children remains a serious one, and we hear of reports daily of children in danger in our communities. Masonic visibility has greatly increased in Ontario.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the MasoniCh.I.P Committee.

RAY DOBBS, Program Director

REPORT OF THE PROTOCOL AND ETIQUETTE COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The charm of good manners! Like love, or beauty, or music, it conquers where it stands, without force or argument, by its own inherent shining, and its own justification and reward. If we study etiquette, which is its code and principle, it is because we have been already won to its claims and desire to shape ourselves to its appeal, whether it be in the uses of politeness, gracious behaviour, pleasing conduct, deportment, courtliness or any other of those amenities of word and act by which among his fellows a man is distinguished a gentleman.

"Masonry, like every separate circle in human society, has an etiquette of its own. Its foundations were laid by those Operative Masons to whom, being cathedral builders, architecture was more an art than a trade, and who learned refinement from their daily work.

"Its superstructure arose, generation by generation, through the decay of cathedral building, the two centuries of transition, through the formative period of the Speculative Craft, and has been completed, to the stage we now have it after centuries of experience in tens of thousands of Craft Lodges, each of which, since it binds a man in many contacts to his fellows, has been itself a school of deportment, teaching the art of gentle manners more by practice than by precept." Henry G. Meacham, Grand Lecturer, 1953–1977, Grand Lodge of New York, F. & A. M.

As so eloquently expressed by Bro. Meacham, the basic fundamentals of Protocol and Etiquette have long been practised and held in high esteem by Freemasons the world over.

The situation is no different in our Grand Jurisdiction. It is the mandate of the Protocol and Etiquette Committee to promote our standards and to assist the brethren in becoming competent in them.

Now that the committee's fourth year of activity is coming to a close, it is a pleasure to report that there is a very strong awareness of the importance of Protocol and Etiquette in virtually every district. The questions received from brethren – at our presentations, by telephone and by email – about all aspects of Protocol and Etiquette, reflect their genuine desire to learn our standards and to practice them correctly.

Formal requests for the committee to conduct a P&E presentation remained high this year. Twenty separate P&E presentations were given by committee members over the past twelve months, throughout the province. Both the interest levels and the attendance at these workshops and seminars was excellent.

Our primary educational vehicle, the concise and informative bulletin called, "P&E Essentials," continues to be distributed by email throughout our Grand Jurisdiction – and, surprisingly, into several other countries as well – on a regular basis. We are grateful for the assistance of our District Deputy Grand Masters and so many Lodge Secretaries in the distribution effort.

The committee continues to address the importance of specific aspects of Protocol and Etiquette in our presentations, namely:

- Balloting
- The Masonic Memorial Services
- The Ceremony of Installation and Investiture
- The Reception of Grand Lodge Officers
- Banquet Hall Protocol.

In addition to updating existing educational material on these topics, this year the P&E

Committee also developed a comprehensive new guide for anyone who may conduct, or simply participate in, the Masonic Memorial Services.

Hard copies of these documents are made available to brethren who attend our presentations. They are also posted on some District websites and many copies have been distributed electronically.

Work continues on another presentation topic (and handout) which incorporates suggestions and guidelines designed to assist the Director of Ceremonies of a Lodge to carry out his responsibilities more effectively.

Several brethren have expressed an interest in having our Grand Lodge publish a book devoted solely to Protocol and Etiquette, following the example of other jurisdictions. This possibility is currently under consideration.

The task facing the committee remains an immense one. It will likely never be complete. However, our approach of using the electronic medium of websites and e-mail messaging, together with the more personal “hands-on” venue of District Workshops, appears to be fairly effective.

The pleasure of addressing this formidable task was considerably enhanced by the opportunity of working with a dedicated and accomplished committee. The following brethren have deservedly earned my deep appreciation – and hopefully yours as well – for all their efforts and contributions: R.W. Bros. George McCowan (Secretary), William Elliott, Dennis Hawman, Terry Hornibrook, John Mittelholtz, Richard Morreau, James Pearson, Garnet Schenk (Editor of P&E Essentials), Brian Seabourn, David Stevens, V. W. Bro. Bryan Middleton, W. Bro. Terrence Van Horne, and Bro. Jacques Lacourse Jr.

The P&E Committee reports directly to the Custodian of the Work. All of our material is reviewed by him before it is disseminated. A not insignificant number of the questions we receive from the brethren are referred to him. We also endeavour to keep him fully-informed about all our activities.

Working so closely with M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby has been such a personal joy and a wonderful learning experience for your Chairman. Our Grand Lodge is fortunate to have a Past Grand Master of his calibre fulfilling the responsibilities of the Custodian of the Work. Thank you, M.W. Sir, for all your ongoing patience, guidance and willingness to share your vast Masonic knowledge.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

GORDON CRUTCHER, Chairman

REPORT OF THE BROCK UNIVERSITY PARTNERSHIP COMMITTEE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

The Brock University Partnership Committee was newly formed this year. The mandate of the committee is as follows:

To establish and maintain a relationship between the Grand Lodge of Canada and Brock University that will:

- Perpetuate the Sankey Collection of Masonic literature and artefacts.
- Promote accessibility to Masonic literature for the use of students of Freemasonry and other interested parties.
- Jointly establish a series of annual lectures by world renowned and local Masonic scholars with an option for periodic multi-day conferences.
- Create and support a Brock University/Grand Lodge endowment fund to financially assist students in the study of Masonry with funding supplied by Grand Lodge.
- Encourage the Masons of Ontario to donate funds through the Masonic Foundation of Ontario to support the Brock University/Grand Lodge endowment fund. The partnership will also encourage active participation by Grand Lodge and Brock University in the staging and promotion of special Masonic related events mutually beneficial to both parties, such as, but not limited to: the 2015 International Conference on the History of Freemasonry.

In addition to the above, the partnership will pursue the long term goal of establishing an endowed Chair for Masonic Studies at Brock University.

To meet this mandate, the committee worked on the following aspects during the past year:

The second lecture in Charles A. Sankey Lecture Series took place on Sunday, March 20, 2011. Dr. Jessica Harland-Jacobs, Associate Professor, Department of History, University of Florida, Gainesville was the guest lecturer. The lecture was very well attended with over 380 in attendance, although 450 tickets were reserved through the Brock University box-office. Copies of Dr. Harland-Jacob's book, Builders of the Empire, were available for sale and, following the lecture, Dr. Harland-Jacobs was available for a book signing session. All copies of the book were sold and the book signing session was very well received. The committee is indebted to Dr. Michael Driedger, Associate Professor, Department of History and Norman Bradshaw, Senior Major Gifts Officer in the Faculty of Humanities, Brock University for their time and effort in making the 2011 lecture such a success.

Sankey Lecture Website: We have completed the development and launch of the new website for the Sankey Lectures – www.sankeylectures.ca. There is a twofold purpose to the site: first to provide information about current lectures as well as an archive of previous lectures. The video of the first lecture given by Dr. Önnersfors has been posted on the site as well as the presentation by David Sharron, Head of Special Collections and Archives in the James A. Gibson Library, Brock University. The video of the second lecture is being edited and will be posted on the website by the end of June, 2011.

Future Sankey Lectures: We are currently in discussions with Brock regarding potential speakers for future years. 2012 is a special year for Brock University and the Niagara area as it is the 200th Anniversary of the War of 1812. We are looking to tie this into the topic for next year. The success of the second lecture allows to us review the timing, promotion and other aspects of the lecture series to improve future lectures.

International Conference on the History of Freemasonry (I.C.H.F.): In October, 2010, the Grand Master along with committee members, R.W. Bro. Gareth Taylor, V.W. Bro. Dale Graham and R.W. Bro. Charles Reid met with Ewan Rutherford and Andrew Mushet from I.C.H.F. and Tom Arkell, Director of Community and Ancillary Services, and Norman Bradshaw, Senior Major Gifts Officer in the Faculty of Humanities, Brock University to discuss the possibility of hosting the 2015 I.C.H.F. conference at Brock. The 2011 conference is in Alexandria, Virginia, May 27–30. The Grand Master has indicated that our Grand Lodge is committed to hosting in 2015. Further discussions and negotiations are ongoing with the I.C.H.F. organizers as well as Brock University for 2015.

During committee meetings, the longer term goals of the partnership with Brock were discussed as well as possible mechanisms for funding of the initiative at Brock.

Respectfully and fraternally submitted on behalf of the committee: M.W. Bro. William Pellow, R.W. Bros. Alan Arbuckle, Patrick McGrenere and Charles Reid and V.W. Bros. Dale Graham and Iain Wates.

GARETH R. TAYLOR, Chairman

GRAND MASTERS

Forty-four reports of the District Deputy Grand Masters were presented to the Deputy Grand Master and, on motion of Grand Secretary, seconded by M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby they were referred to the Board of General Purposes.

REPORT OF THE GRAND CHAPLAIN

This Report was presented by R.W. Bro. Ronald C. Smeaton, Grand Chaplain

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Appointment to the role of Grand Chaplain in this jurisdiction at the behest of our Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels has been a sincerely rewarding experience for me. My home lodge, Royal City Daylight No. 742 in Guelph, has been a constant support to me in many ways over the past months and I am sure such will continue to be the case for the remainder of my tenure in this capacity. As a person whose health has been somewhat less than first rate, and whose vision has meant an agreement between my wife, Delores, and myself that my driver's license expires daily at sundown (although it is reactivated daily at sunrise), together with the fact that – although retired – I still wear a number of hats that mean my time spent in service to the various organizations those hats represent often involves some conflicts with respect to time and situations.

It has been, however, a rewarding several months in this capacity, and I have deeply appreciated the guidance and support of both our Grand Master and Grand Secretary throughout! Sharing in the dedication of new lodge facilities and in some cases lodge accoutrements has and continues to be highly inspirational and satisfying to me as I trust is the case for all who so involved.

Retirement does not mean a complete relaxation of involvement and service. I was, though, granted a 12 month leave of absence from the Rotary Club of Guelph to pursue this avenue of experience in the Craft. For a variety of reasons I have had to decline attendance and participation in a number of district events. Those that it has been my privilege to share are without exception among memories that will remain with me for as long as I live. At the time of this writing, Delores and I are in great anticipation of being involved in an event in Southampton. The only difficulty is that we cannot stay in the area for that District's Divine Service on the Sunday, because another of my "hats" is that of Chaplain of the Guelph Naval Veterans Association, and that date is the annual commemoration of The Battle of the Atlantic!

In the course of the last few months, it has been necessary to attend an unhappy number of Masonic Memorial Services, and in more than a few instances, they were for brothers to whom I owe an inestimable debt of gratitude. And so I would like to conclude this report by citing what has been for myself and many others a clarifying poetic declaration of that to which we all may well ascribe.

God has not promised skies always blue or flower-strewn pathways all our lives through. God has not promised sun without rain, or joy without sorrow, or peace without pain. But, God has promised strength for the day, rest for the labour, light for the way, Grace for the trials, help from above, unfailing sympathy and undying love. In life, in death, in life beyond death God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to the Great Architect of the Universe. Amen. So mote it be.

Submitted with great affection for our Craft, and deep respect for the Craftsmen who serve to make it great.

REV. DR. RONALD C. SMEATON, Grand Chaplain

REPORT OF THE GRAND HISTORIAN

This Report was presented by V.W. Bro. S. Michael Jenkyns, Grand Historian, and on motion of the Deputy Grand Master, it was received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I would like to express my gratitude to the Grand Master for again honoring me with the office and title of Grand Historian. This report is submitted in accordance with the Book of Constitution which requires the Grand Historian "to record matters that are connected with the history of Freemasonry in Ontario."

Our Craft has often benefitted from family involvement, particularly siblings who were members of the Craft. We know, for example, that the Duke of Kent (the father of Queen Victoria) and his brother the Duke of Sussex, were active Masons. The Duke of Kent worked with his brother on the unification of the divided Grand Lodge of England, including encouraging him to accept the office of Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England and to bring together the many English lodges around the world into a coherent grouping.

But I wish, today, to focus for a few moments on two brothers in "the Canadas" who assisted each other in their Masonic activities in what would later become the provinces of Ontario and Quebec. Their activities occurred at a similar time and lent a coherent leadership to lodges which had suffered over the years and whose regularity and legitimacy was not guaranteed with the new Grand Lodge in London.

I am, of course, referring to Simon and William McGillivray: Scotsmen, businessmen, fur traders, family men and Freemasons. Neither was physically involved in Canada for a long period of time, but both left an important imprint on the fabric of Freemasonry here. Outside influences would challenge Freemasonry in British North America, but a close relationship between early "Masonic governments" in the later provinces of Quebec and Ontario was struck and strengthened by these brothers and would contribute to the support of lodges in the two future provinces in the formation of our Grand Lodge on October 10, 1855, in Hamilton.

By 1822, the new Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England was faced with demands from unregistered Upper Canada Masons to confirm their nominee as Provincial Grand Master and two disparate groups in Lower Canada seeking to confirm their nominees for their province. As a result, several decisions were taken: a Provincial Grand Master of Upper Canada was appointed in the persona of Simon MacGillivray, a London-based businessman involved in the North West Company fur business in Canada and a Moderns' Mason who was well known to the last Moderns' Grand Master, the Duke of Sussex (the first Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England). Lower Canada was to continue two separate Masonic districts: Quebec and Three Rivers (the "seat" of the Moderns Provincial Grand Lodge of Quebec from 1759) and Montreal and William Henry (established in 1767 by the then Deputy Provincial Grand Master, Edward Antill). Claude Denechau would preside over the former and William McGillivray (Simon's older brother), over the latter.

McGillivray Family Background

William, the first of three brothers born to Donald McGillivray and Anne McTavish of Inverness-shire, Scotland, was born ca 1764. This was a poor Scots family whose sons would benefit from the assistance of Anne's brother, Simon McTavish. "Uncle Simon" was successful in the fur trade in the Canadas and brought William to Montreal as an employee of the North West Company (or Nor'westers as they became better known). William was a skilled businessman and extended the number of western trading posts in competition against other fur trading enterprises – American as well as British (their major competitor being the Hudson's Bay Company). William became chief director of the North West Company on the death of Simon McTavish in 1804. For several years, N.W.C. and H.B.C. would contend in the courts over control of the fur trade with neither gaining a decisive victory. During this period William also served as a member of the Legislative Council of Lower Canada. During the War of 1812, he commanded a company of Voyageurs and assisted General Isaac Brock at the capture of Detroit. After 1816, William agreed to merge N.W.C. and H.B.C., achieving this in 1821. He became a director of the newly organized company. William died on October 16, 1825, in London, during a visit to England.

Duncan, a second brother, was born ca 1770, and joined Simon McTavish about 1793. He traded out of posts on the North Saskatchewan river for most of his career and may have travelled across the Rockies to the coastal areas. He returned to Montreal in 1802, and travelled every summer to Fort Francis until his death, in Montreal, on April 9, 1808. It does not appear that Duncan joined a Masonic lodge.

Simon, the youngest of the three, was born in Stratherrick, Inverness-shire, ca 1783. A fall in early life left him with a slight limp and when he joined the Nor'Westers, he did not take to the rivers and forests like his brothers, but worked in the London offices. This was the financial wing of the company and supplied Canadian operations with trade goods, obtained credit for operations, looked after shipments and sold furs on the London market. Following Simon McTavish's death in 1804, Simon McGillivray also became a partner of the firm. Seeing the benefits of amalgamation of the competitors, he worked closely with William to achieve this. In March 1821, with details completed in London, Simon travelled to Montreal to join William and in June the brothers, travelled to Fort William (Thunder Bay) to complete matters with their Canadian partners and employees. Difficulties in winding up all the various interlocked corporate entities were dealt with by Simon from York (Toronto) and London.

By 1825 the McTavish group of companies was defunct, the family fortune gone, and the family members left destitute<sup>1</sup>. It is not clear how William's health was (he remained in Montreal until his trip to England in 1825, where he died), but Simon (now in London) had his business skills and abilities and in 1829, he was chosen by the United Mexican Mining Company to reorganize the firm's silver mines. By 1835, he was one of the owners of the Morning Chronicle and London Advertiser. In 1837, he married the eldest daughter of John Easthope and they had one daughter, Mary. Simon's happiness was shortlived with his death on June 9, 1840, in London.

MASONIC CAREERS

R.W. Bro. William McGillivray, Provincial Grand Master, District of Montreal and William Henry

On a trip to London in 1822, William was initiated in the Lodge of Antiquity, No. 2 ER. He is noted as Junior Deacon of the lodge in 1823, and his name appears on the lodge roll in 1825. According to A. J. B. Milborne (writing in the 1950's), there is no record of his affiliation with a lodge in Upper or Lower Canada<sup>ii</sup>. His appointment on April 2, 1823, as Provincial Grand Master of the District of Montreal and William Henry was made by the Duke of Sussex. We do not know how he came to the notice of the Grand Master, but he was a Montreal businessman, had strong contacts on both sides of the Atlantic, and his brother Simon, had been appointed as Provincial Grand Master of Upper Canada on May 10, 1822. It is possible that Simon recommended William to the Grand Master directly, as both would soon be back in Canada and they had been working closely in the North West Company for many years. (At that time there was no requirement for a Provincial Grand Master to be a Past Master of a local lodge although, strangely, the Constitution required a Deputy Provincial Grand Master to be a Past Master.) William and Simon, in their offices as Provincial Grand Masters, are recorded as being in attendance at the Quarterly Communication of the United Grand Lodge in London on June 4, 1823.

William's first actions on his return to Montreal were similar to those taken in York by Simon: each lodge was to petition the new Provincial Grand Master for a Warrant, and lodges were to send their representatives to the planned Communication of October 6, 1823. At this meeting, William was installed by R.W. Bro. Claude Denechau, Provincial Grand Master, District of Quebec and Three Rivers. While work on reviewing the status of the petitioning lodges went on through 1824, the records indicate that William was indisposed for most of the year, but he was present at the Communication of December 23, 1824, where he appointed and installed Bro. Rev. John Bethune (Rector of Montreal) as Deputy Provincial Grand Master. By the end of 1824, nine lodges had been registered with London and at the Communication of March 14, 1825; they were presented with their English Warrants. At this meeting it was resolved to request the Provincial Grand Lodges of Quebec and Three Rivers and Upper Canada to participate in a petition to the Grand Master whereby, on the death, resignation, suspension or removal of a Provincial Grand Master, the Deputy Provincial Grand Master would be authorized to fill the office pro tempore with power to do all legal business until a new appointment was made by the Grand Master. This petition was agreed to and was sent to London with the approbation of all three Provincial Grand Lodges. This is one of the few times we can demonstrate a collaborative effort between these three masonic bodies.<sup>iii</sup>

In Montreal, a Masonic Hall Hotel had been constructed by John Molson and contained one entire floor for the use of the Craft. At a Grand Lodge of Emergency on May 13, 1825, Simon attended the Masonic dedication ceremonies performed by William. On June 13, 1825, another Grand Lodge of Emergency was called to lay the foundation stone of the new Presbyterian Church on St. James Street, Montreal: in the absence of the Provincial Grand Master, the ceremony was performed by Simon. He reported his actions to his brother on June 14th at the Regular Communication of the Provincial Grand Lodge.

William died on October 16, 1825, in London. The day-to-day work of the District Grand Lodge was carried on by its regular officers until May 1826, when R.W. Bro. John Molson was installed as Provincial Grand Master. He resigned in December 1832, and was succeeded by Turton Penn, Deputy P.G.M. acting under an interim authority. Subsequent events are unclear, as the Provincial Grand Lodge records are silent until the spring of 1846, when the Hon. Peter McGill was installed as Provincial Grand Master. He resigned in ill health in 1849, and was succeeded by the Hon. William Badgley. On October 10, 1855, the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada was formed in Hamilton and all the lodges of the District of Montreal and William Henry joined it with the exception of St. Paul's at Dorchester and St. Lawrence at Montreal and some brethren of several lodges who split away. The Grand Lodge of Quebec was established in October 1869, but was not in full control of the province until 1875. In spite of these challenges, the English District continue with Badgley being replaced on his death in 1888 by W. H. Hutton until 1893. From 1893–1955, English lodges were without local supervision and since then a Grand Inspector has supervised English lodges in Halifax and Montreal.

R.W. Bro. Simon McGillivray, Provincial Grand Master, Provincial Grand Lodge of Upper Canada

Simon McGillivray began his Masonic life in London, being initiated into Shakespeare Lodge, 131 ER(M)<sup>iv</sup>, on April 23, 1807, and serving as W.M. on three separate occasions. He was also a member of other lodges in London (including the Grand Master's Lodge, No. 1 (Antients)). In 1813, he was the last Junior Grand Warden of the Moderns' Grand Lodge. He was a member of St. James Royal Arch Chapter No. 60 ER(M) (now No. 2 ER) and a member of both the Knights Templar and the Red Cross of Palestine. After his time in Canada, he renewed his Masonic involvement in England and served as Deputy Master of the Lodge of Antiquity No. 2, London in 1820 and 1821, and as Worshipful Master of Somerset House and Inverness Lodge No. 4, London. At Grand Lodge he served on various committees, including being President of the Grand Lodge Board of General Purposes for a time, and acting in various stations at Quarterly Communications, including that of Acting Grand Master on one occasion.

Given his skills and abilities as well as his contacts with Canada, the Duke of Sussex appointed him as Provincial Grand Master of Upper Canada on May 10, 1822, instructing him to immediately investigate the situation of the Craft in the province. Upper Canada Freemasonry presented a challenge due to the total lack of communication during the entire period of the Antient's Provincial Grand Lodge of 1792–1822 (R.W. Bro. William Jarvis) and its fracture into the Niagara, Kingston and York subdivisions<sup>v</sup>. Simon was also appointed as Provincial Grand Superintendent of Upper Canada in April 1822, and was received as such at the Quarterly Communication of the Supreme Grand Chapter of England on May 8, 1822. (Simon's activities in improving Royal Arch activities are not touched upon in this paper.)

Upon his arrival in Canada, Simon was faced with a number of challenges. The main one was that the lack of communication and contact between William Jarvis and the Antients Grand Lodge meant that London did not accept as valid the warrants of lodges or the certificates of standing of their members. As noted in, Whence Come We? (pg. 45), the new Provincial Grand Master "brought order out of chaos, and restored brotherly love across the province." In September he issued a call to all lodges instructing them to prepare new petitions signed by seven members and to submit them to him, accompanied by a list of the lodge members, a copy of the lodge By-Laws and the fees required for registration at Grand Lodge. The Provincial Grand Lodge met at York on September 23, 1822, with representatives from sixteen lodges. Amongst his appointments, Simon named Col. James Fitzgibbon as Deputy P.G.M., Ziba Marcus Phillips, Dr. Robert Kerr and George Adams as Past Deputy P.G.M.s, and John Dean of Bath and Bernard Turquand of York as Provincial Grand Secretaries. These were critical appointments as the people represented both the schismatic Grand Lodge at Niagara, as well as the Jarvis Provincial Grand Lodge and the two Kingston Conventions and moved towards a reconciliation of the Province. This was the only assembly that Simon was able to attend during his eighteen year tenure as Provincial Grand Master – he returned to England shortly afterwards. The Provincial Grand Lodge met annually up to and including 1829, but there is nothing to indicate its existence after that year and it would lie dormant until February 1842, when efforts to breathe life into it were undertaken by Ziba Marcus Phillips.

In spite of his absence, Simon took a deep and abiding interest in his Provincial Grand Lodge and undertook in 1837, to have the situation assessed. On May 29, 1837, he appointed a well-known Montreal businessman, Bro. John Auldjo, as Deputy Provincial Grand Master of Upper Canada, commissioning him to investigate and report on the status of the Craft therein and to make such appointments of officers as necessary. Until 1981, it was unclear whether such an assessment had been made and whether any report had been prepared. In that year my predecessor, R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, reported that he had found the Auldjo report in the archives of Grand Lodge in London and he reproduced it in full as part of his annual report. Bro. Auldjo visited Toronto and met with a number of influential Masons, and reported: (1) the Provincial Grand Lodge had not met for at least 8 years; (2) only three lodges were known to be working (St. George's, Toronto; an unnamed lodge at Kingston and an unknown lodge somewhere elsewhere in the province<sup>vi</sup>); (3) the jewels of the Provincial Grand Lodge were held in safekeeping by St. George's Lodge; and (4) any plan to create two Masonic districts within the province would not work. Bro. Auldjo had also sent a circular around to the lodges which were named on the Provincial Grand Lodge register, but had received no response by the time he left the province.

By the time of Simon's death on June 9, 1840, in London, movements were already afoot in the about to be renamed Canada West which would see Sir Alan Napier Macnab form a new Provincial Grand Lodge. By 1855, many of the lodges of the English Provincial Grand Lodge had joined with their colleagues of Irish Constitution lodges to form our Grand Lodge in Hamilton. Macnab would form a parallel Ancient Grand Lodge of Canada in the fall of 1857, and it would amalgamate with ours on July 14, 1858, in Toronto.

Aftermath

Life in these times was difficult. Efforts to maintain a stable government were challenged from time to time (War of 1812, Rebellions of 1837 and 1838), but the population continued to grow, areas opened up and new towns and villages were being planned and built. And Freemasonry was growing. The McGillivray brothers brought an element of stability and growth to their two respective Provincial Grand Lodges, re-establishing the important linkage with Grand Lodge in London and securing recognition. While there would still be challenges to Masonic evolution here, it was a step in the process which would see the formation of our Grand Lodge.

In conclusion, I would like to thank our very own R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod, P.G.J.W., in his well known role as Past Grand Historian. I have drawn from his 1983 inaugural address to Quatuor Coronati Lodge No. 2076, London, when he was installed as Worshipful Master. It is probably the single-most major work on the life and times of Simon McGillivray as a Nor'wester and Freemason. Our fraternity has been well served by R. W. Bro. McLeod's diligence and skill.

All of which is respectfully and fraternally submitted.

MICHAEL JENKYNs, Grand Historian

Notes:

- i. R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod's excellent paper, Simon McGillivray (ca 1785-1840), Quatuor Coronati Transactions, Vol. 96 (1983), provides clear and concise details.
- ii. The situation, however, is not clear. Pemberton Smith, in his, Early Canadian Freemasonry (pg. 92) says William "was a member of long standing in St. Paul's Lodge, Montreal" as well as Turton Penn who would soon become Provincial Grand Secretary. The situation allows for the possibility that William was a later visitor to St. Paul's rather than a member.
- iii. It was not until 1884, that an amendment to the English Constitutions permitted this action to occur automatically. It was a strength of the system that (in the Canadas at least) a sealed letter would be issued to the Provincial Grand Secretary at the time of appointment of a new Provincial Grand Master, to be opened only when the occasion demanded, and containing a letter of interim authority signed by the Grand Master, authorizing the Deputy to act as P.G.M.
- iv. A Moderns Lodge, meeting at the Freemason's Tavern, Great Queen Street, formed in 1757, and warranted as No. 221 on February 14, 1757. It is still working as No. 99 ER.
- v. The three subdivisions were (1) schismatic Grand Lodge at Niagara, formed about 1802 with the removal of the Provincial Grand Lodge from Newark (Niagara-on-the-Lake) to York when the provincial capital was removed to place it further away from the saber-rattling Americans; (2) Kingston had become a major gathering place for Masonic meetings and had been chosen for two conventions following the death of William Jarvis in 1817, which attempted to choose a replacement who could be nominated to the new Grand Master; and (3) York was the supposed centre after Jarvis had removed the Provincial Grand Lodge there, but he was not a strong administrator and few assemblies of Masons were called under his authority, fees and dues were not transmitted to London and legitimate Grand Lodge warrants were not obtained.
- vi. R.W. Bro. Wallace McLeod in his 1981 report to this Grand Lodge notes that Bro. Auldjo was in error. The Toronto lodge was not, in fact, St. George's which had dissolved itself in 1829, but rather St. George's in their early Masonic careers. The second lodge, at Kingston, was likely St. John's. The third unnamed and unlocated lodge is believed to be Unity at Whitby.

Discussion:

Bro. Peter Renzland, Simcoe Lodge No. 644 approached the dias.

A heated discussion ensued regarding provisions of Sections 23 & 70 Book of Constitution.

Grand Master instructed Bro. Renzland to refrain from further comment and be seated. Upon leaving the dias Bro. Renzland exclaimed Section 28 "Regarding his Submissions".

REPORT OF THE AWARDS COMMITTEE (William Mercer Wilson Medal)

This Report was presented by M.W. Bro. R. E. Groshaw, Chairman, seconded by the Deputy Grand Master, and received.

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

Once again, your committee has faced a challenge - namely to give a sequence of priorities in choosing those most deserving of this prestigious William Mercer Wilson Award. All of these submission had real merit. I am confident that members of this awards committee, independently and without consultation, laboured long and conscientiously to prioritize all 12 nominees, that we received from the Grand Secretary shortly after the first of April. Incidentally, the guidelines for these petitions should be obtained from the office of the Grand Secretary before a lodge makes a submission. I feel sure that each of us were tempted to give preference to those submissions which were substantiated by a forceful Worshipful Master's message. Equally impressive lengthy lists of lodge member signatures attached to some petitions indicated their sincere wish to honour a fellow lodge member. Or course, all nominees have rendered exemplary service in their lodge and community endeavours, rest assured that our numerical ranking was based upon the diligent tract record of the nominee.

It is now my pleasure to read those Nominees receiving the highest aggregate scoring from the placement scribed by each committee member.

We hope that those not named will have their names resubmitted in the future indicating continuing service to all humankind.

In alphabetical order, those selected to receive the William Mercer Wilson Medal of Meritorious Service are:

- |                          |                            |
|--------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Bruce FLEMING         | North Bay Lodge No. 617    |
| 2. Alan Wayne LEVERE     | St. Andrew's Lodge No. 560 |
| 3. Harold Wesley MASTERS | King Hiram Lodge No. 37    |
| 4. Kenneth Elmer SCOTT   | Tudor Lodge No. 141        |
| 5. John Lindsay TOSHACK  | Mississippi Lodge No. 147  |

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

R. E. GROSHAW, Chairman.

GRAND MASTER'S CLOSING COMMENT

My Brethren,

Throughout my life I have been blessed with an innate curiosity. I never outgrew the childish propensity to keep asking, WHY? Questions have been the key that opened many doors. Sometimes, they have opened Pandora's Box. Yes, curiosity may have killed the cat, but satisfaction brought it back.

And so it is appropriate and characteristic that my last word to this Grand Lodge takes the form of a question – a question I put to myself and to each one of you.

As Speculative Masons, the first step in the initiatory process of self-improvement is self-examination.

I am grateful to one of the Grand Lodge Officers for bringing these lines by the American poet, Brother Edgar Guest, to my attention. Using the imagery of our operative brethren, the question I leave you with is ...

WHAT KIND OF MAN ARE YOU?

I watched them tearing a building down,
A gang of men in a busy town.
With a "look out below!" and a lusty yell
They swung a ball and a side wall fell.
I asked the foreman: "Are these as skilled
As the men you would hire if you had to build?"
He gave me a laugh and said: "No, indeed,
Just common labour is all we need.
We can wreck in a single day or two
What it took the builders a year to do."
So I said to myself as I went on my way
"Which of these roles have I tried to play?
Am I a wrecker who walks my town
Doing the easy work of tearing down?
Or am I a Builder who walks with care,
Measuring life by Rule and Square?"

Bro. Edgar Guest

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FRATERNAL CORRESPONDENCE

To the Most Worshipful the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Canada in the Province of Ontario.

Most Worshipful Sir and Brethren:

I am pleased to present the Fraternal Correspondence Report on behalf of the Committee.

The Committee Mandate in addition to that specified in the Book of Constitution, Section 136 (f) was broadened by the Deputy Grand Master, and the committee was taxed this year with the additional responsibility.

“To review websites of other Grand Lodges worldwide, and report to the Board of General Purposes.”

The review would include but not be limited to the following types of activities.

1. Research new and interesting programs or activities of other Grand Lodges with possible application to our Grand Lodge.
2. Evaluate our Grand Lodge programs against similar programs in other jurisdictions looking for improvements or functionality that could be incorporated into our program.
3. Research methods used by other jurisdictions to evaluate success of their programs or tools.
4. Research the use of technology as an enabler of services provided by Grand Lodges.

The committee as a whole participated in the evaluation of our Sister Grand Lodges Web Pages around the world and the results were reported on a site by site basis to the Deputy Grand Master.

What follows next is an overview of the 26 Reviews of the Proceedings completed to date, outlining the response of those Grand Lodges to the issues, concerns, and challenges which they presently face.

DECLINING MEMBERSHIP: It is the opinion of many Grand Lodges that trying to recapture the membership numbers of previous decades is impractical and impossible. Instead, they are concentrating on reducing the number of Demits and Suspensions by implementing programs and strategic plans aimed at substantial decreases (80% to 90 %) over the next five years.

QUALITY VERSUS QUANTITY: Many feel that the fixation with increasing the number of members over the last few years has not benefitted the Fraternity. The quality of Freemasonry has been diluted. Some are prepared to streamline their operation, raise the standards for admission and have fewer members if it ensures that only men of quality are introduced into the Craft.

INTERNET: The Internet and Grand Lodge web sites have dramatically increased the number of applications from young men. How to retain them and keep them involved is the vital concern of all Grand Lodges, as of course, they are viewed as the future of Freemasonry. It's a double-edged sword. Although Grand Lodges welcome new, younger, knowledgeable members, they are concerned that these applications do not arrive in the traditional manner – a recommendation from a Mason – and strongly suggest that the examination process be tightened up to exclude potentially unsuitable people: i.e. criminal background checks.

MASONIC RENAISSANCE: This was the theme of the Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. It details the boldest, most comprehensive overhaul of every aspect of a jurisdiction I have read. It advocates dramatic change from top to bottom, including the operations and structure of the Grand Lodge itself. It is designed to leave Grand Lodge efficient and effective for the next generation.

All Reviews, in varying degrees, express optimism, the need for change, and place great emphasis on the following programs for their future success: LEADERSHIP, MEMBERSHIP, RETENTION, MENTORING, MASONIC EDUCATION, PUBLIC RELATIONS, COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT, and FINANCIAL STABILITY.

It is interesting to note the following jurisdictions which realized membership increases in 2008–2009.

- Alabama
- Delaware
- Newfoundland and Labrador
- North Dakota
- Utah

I am grateful to R.W. Bro. Colin Heap for digesting the information of each of the submitted Proceedings, which is a daunting responsibility at times, and one that he handles with great proficiency.

My gratitude also goes to R.W. Bro. Kim McKeagh who acted as Secretary this year and to R.W. Bro. Bill Thompson and Robert Manz for their contributions to the committee.

We are also indebted to M.W. Bro. Shand, Grand Secretary and the staff at the Grand Lodge office particularly Mrs. Rose Blandin who receives the Reviews and sets them up for printing in our Grand Lodge Preliminary Proceedings.

All of which is respectfully submitted on behalf of the committee.

DAVID R. DAINARD, Chairman

ALBERTA

Calgary, Alberta, June, 2010*

7,937 Membership

“By all accounts, Freemasonry is alive and well in the Province of Alberta as Freemasonry appears to be experiencing something of resurgence in interest and membership. For a number of years Initiation numbers have exceeded those that we lose to death. Lodges have generally been challenged to retain members with the result that Demits and Suspensions are directly responsible for our continuing declining numbers. There are some who believe that the answer to the problem is to just get a whole bunch of new members in. I have a problem with that.”

On this note, M.W. Bro. Gerald D. R. Waldern, Grand Master, introduced his theme for his year: Retention, Revitalization and Renewal, and its link to the Strategic Plan of Grand Lodge. “We are not going to see the days of the 1940’s, 50’s and early 60’s where there were high numbers of members in our Craft. This growth was caused as a direct result of the catastrophic experiences from the Depression and World War II. These events caused men to seek out organizations that provided a brotherhood experience for them. Hopefully, we will never see events of that magnitude again. Therefore, instead of being focused on numbers, we should be focused on the quality of the prospective member coming to our door. That starts with the investigation process to ensure that the applicant is a man worthy of our consideration to be a member of our Craft. I believe some of our Lodges are in too much of a hurry to get that applicant into our ranks. I regret to say there are probably some Lodges who are suffering, and look at the candidate as a warm pulse and the opportunity to have him sit as an Officer instead of taking the time to ensure that he is a proper candidate for our ranks. We truly need to take the time to get to know these prospective applicants well and for them to get to know us. Let me therefore suggest that we slow the process down. Mentoring does not begin on the night of Initiation. Rather, true mentoring begins when you meet with that man and explain to him what Freemasonry is and what is going to be expected of him, therefore making sure that he and Freemasonry are a proper fit. Responsibility for membership is clearly a Lodge responsibility. If we look after our members, our membership numbers will be looked after.

One of the goals of our Strategic Plan is an 80% to 90% reduction in Demits and Suspensions, from 328 per year to 25–50 a year. Without data to explain why this situation is occurring we can only speculate on the reasons. Therefore, I have asked the Board of General Purposes for approval to have Lodge Secretaries complete a form explaining the reason for each Demit and Suspension and what actions were taken. The questionnaire asks: Who is making the request for the Demit, the brother or a family member; the reasons for the request; if the brother has been contacted; if the Lodge has considered carrying the brother. As Grand Master, I can personally tell you what I don't want to see happening, a Demit request from a brother who is now in a nursing home or is no longer able to get out to Lodge. I believe the Lodges have a responsibility and obligation to step up to the plate and to take care of that brother and those who may be in financial difficulties. Personal contact is part of membership management. This is one area we can control. A new generation of men is joining the Craft. What may have interested a man forty years ago may not interest the man walking in our door today. If in doubt, ask them. We must provide value and the food of enlightenment to our new members or suffer the consequences. I also recognize that within our jurisdiction we do have some Lodges that due to reduced numbers are finding it more and more difficult to operate. I have asked the D.D.G.M.s to identify Lodges within their Districts that are having difficulties and work with them to find solutions. While no one likes to see a Lodge close, the reality is that sometimes the time to fix the problems has run out. I do not like to see surrenders as I think that often the members do not join new Lodges. Amalgamations that are done correctly provide not only a solution but, as strange as it may seem, provides for Masonic renewal by those Lodges coming together to form a stronger Lodge and a continued Masonic presence, rather than darkness.

In closing, I stress the importance of Masonic Renewal. The whole process starts from the newest Master Mason right up to the Grand Master. We are all members of this beloved Craft and the question I would ask of us all is: what kind of Craftsmen are we within our Lodges? Are we committed to the goals and values of our organization and to the renewing and restructuring of our individual Lodges? We must all share in the stewardship of the Craft, do no harm to it, and leave it in a better state. We will thrive together or dive together. The greatest danger for most of us is not that our aim is too high and we miss it, but it's too low and we reach it."

ARIZONA

M.W. Grand Master Donn E. Bernhardt reviewed some of the accomplishments of the past year and addressed some of the enduring problems which still have to be addressed at the end of the Grand Lodge Session. "The situation of the Lodges is virtually unchanged from last year. An actual canvas of Lodges with respect to the proficiency of the Installed Officers shows that for each one that got a little bit better, there was one that fell a little behind. We had the worst year raising Master Masons since 1992 and as a result we lost over 300 members. I realize, and I hear the argument, that we have to have quality members. But brethren, there is absolutely no reason why we cannot have a quantity of quality members. The average active Mason brings in a Petition for Membership once every five years. This is a, "Going out of Business Strategy."

Consider this – if each one of the 10% of our 9315 members had mentored only one Mason, we would have raised five times as many Master Masons as we actually did. If we don't quit hiding behind the "quality" excuse then everyone had better get used to raising their Lodge dues and the Grand Lodge per capita every year. We had no idea where this State is in terms of the Lodges' capabilities. I asked the D.D.G.M.s to look at the proficiency of the Officers that were Installed in their Lodges and gave them a 5 level rating: one being a Lodge that has what I define as normal progression through the Chairs. 35% fill that bill. 45% do not have normal progression but can still fill all the Chairs. The remaining 20% are Lodges that are right on the ragged edge, barely existing. We must be very careful what we do in changing the rules because we may take out a part of the 20% and the ones at the low end of the 80%. This brings us to the legislation concerning the proficiency of Masters and Wardens. Currently, Masters must be able to Open, Close and confer all Three Degrees, plus deliver one Degree Lecture. He receives a Proficiency Certificate, valid for 5 years. There are two trains of thought on this subject, both eloquently expressed. Many support these requirements. Getting to the East should be a challenge. Excellent Ritual requires effort and an unwavering belief in the basics. Each Degree of Masonry should be a profound and revolutionizing experience for the candidate. Do not let the system be watered down! Learn it. Do it. Do not digress. The Long Range Planning Committee includes Ritual proficiency as one of the top goals of Arizona Freemasonry, along with Masonic Education, Mentoring, Financial Planning and the upgrading of modern Communications Technology. Others believe that the current standard requiring a Master to learn a lecture is discriminatory. It is a biological fact that advancing age can cause memory loss. Others may suffer injuries that preclude them from learning a long block of text. But they may be outstanding leaders or workers, capable of learning shorter pieces of Ritual. Yet the Lodges are denied the right to elect such a brother to lead a Lodge because he cannot memorize a large section of the Ritual. So we have a situation – quality of Leadership versus quality of Ritual. Lodge Officer Proficiency Cards is a very recent innovation and comes from a desire on the part of some Grand Lodge Officers to exercise more control over Lodges in an area that used to be left entirely to the members of the Lodge. It is my recommendation that it is time to end this control, based on the bogus idea that men who learned Ritual soon forget it, and allow each Lodge to determine who its Officers should be.

Finally, my brothers, I come to the issue I believe towers above the problems we may have with ritual, membership, money and everything else, the lack of Lodge leadership and that includes Grand Lodge. Some of you are going to disagree with me vehemently. That's all right. One of us is allowed to be wrong. My life experience and my work experience in engineering have taught me that the idea that someone is born to be a leader is foolish. It is a learned skill, and I am convinced that we used to get all the leadership we needed by virtue of the people we brought into the Fraternity. They were community and business leaders and their life outside Masonry taught them those management skills. They brought those talents into the Lodge. I can take a man who is a leader and teach him the Ritual and he will solve the problems of the Lodge and see that the Work is performed well. By the same token, I cannot say the same about a good Ritualist. We have an example in our jurisdiction, a Lodge with close to 300 Members; close to a million dollars in the bank and not enough Leadership to prevent the factions that tore it apart; that caused it to turn in its Charter and merge with another Lodge. Some of the best Ritualists in the State came from that Lodge. Why did it fail? We have never closed a Lodge for lack of Ritualists. We have closed them because of lack of leadership. I am not going to propose that Grand Lodge solve that for you. You have to solve it in your Lodges. The first thing you have to do is recognize that this is the problem. It has been growing for a long time and it will take a great of work to overcome it. There is nothing wrong with the men that we are getting, but they are not bringing the leadership skills with them that they did in the past. If we are going to get the leaders we need, we will have to train them ourselves.”

The Board of Finance is charged with the care of funds, such as the Hall Fund, The Youth and Scholarship Fund, Perpetual Membership and The Board of Charities Fund. Only the interest from these accounts may be spent. Grand Lodge itself is managed through what is called the General Account. For several years, the Board has reported that they have had to dip into capital to pay the bills. With declining membership and decreasing returns on investment, income gets less and less every year while operating costs increase. As previously stated by the Board, if this trend continues, the Grand Lodge has between 15 and 19 years survival time.

A program called, Endow the Future is being implemented. It is designed to make Grand Lodge financially sovereign. It is hoped that sometime in the future of Arkansas Masonry that the endowment will reach such a level of growth that the principal, which can never be used, will be large enough that the interest alone will be sufficient to fund Grand Lodge operations. The program has a long way to go to reach that goal. If all brethren supported the program immediately, it is hoped that enough money would be raised in a twenty-year period to realize its benefit. Present response indicates that it will take much longer. The Grand Master urged all Master Masons in the state to contribute to the program by purchasing one Arkansas Diamond every year for the next ten years. If this were to happen, the financial goal would be attainable. Arkansas Diamonds have been a feature of the Grand Lodge of Arkansas fund-raising activities for several years and are found in the Crater of Diamonds State Park, a geological phenomenon and the only area in the world where the general public can search for diamonds in the rough.

The Board of Charities Hospital Services Committee continues to operate from a fund set up for the purpose of giving assistance to brethren and their next of kin while hospitalized in any of the three Veteran Hospitals located in the state of Arkansas. The committee desires that all Subordinate Lodge Secretaries or any other brethren notify the Grand Secretary when they have a brother in a VA Hospital, or any hospital near their home for any reason. They also called for volunteers to assist in the Hospital Visitation Program. The committee considers this a program worthy of support and recommended its continuance.

The Youth and Scholarship Board approved grants in the amount of $11,800 to 17 sons and daughters of Masons in good standing. The assistance is made possible by contributions from Lodges and brothers and is considered a wonderful investment in the future.

The DeMolay Report did not bring glad tidings. In short, it is at a precipice. The problem is not financial, but a lack of time and commitment by adult leaders, who are now quickly outpacing the new initiates. Adult leaders are growing tired after many years of dedicated service. If something is not done, the result will be the demise of DeMolay in Arkansas in the next few years. Brethren are urged to step up to the challenge and make a difference in the life of a young man.

The Committee on the Work continued to look at the Ritual Program and suggested implementing changes in an effort to obtain the results the jurisdiction urgently needs. The purpose is to assist the subordinate Lodge across the State in acquiring proficiency in the Ritual of opening and closing, as well as the Degree Work. The Grand Lecturer will set up and teach at least one school in each area and appoint every brother who is certified as an Instructor as a Grand Lecturer's Assistant. This is an appointment of service only and does not include the rank of a Grand Lodge Officer. They would not receive an apron nor be allowed to vote at Grand Lodge. The appointment would come only with a card. They would conduct a course consisting of six sessions at any subordinate Lodge requesting a School of Instruction, which is considered the most productive way to instill a sense of pride and accomplishment in the Officers and members. The committee feels that this system would give Grand Lodge a broader group of brethren to implement the teaching of the Ritual and they commended the instructors on their service to the Fraternity.

Most Worshipful Grand Master William L. Green, commenting on the State of the Craft in Connecticut, drew attention to a major issue facing the Fraternity and outlined the response of Grand Lodge to counteract the problem. "Brethren, I don't have to tell you that we need to continue to bring in new members and work to retain them. We have all heard of the phrase, "I have seen the enemy and it is us." It is up to us to attract new members. Each of us should be working to replace ourselves and add at least one brother for growth. The Grand Lodge website is assisting in attracting new members. Many Lodges have had at least one new member this year. Many of them requested information and Petitions because of what they read on our website or from information gathered about our Fraternity on the Internet. Most are young and looking for a place where they can get involved in community and charitable works and make a difference in the world. Are we up to the challenge? Are we ready to get these men involved in our Lodge and community activities? Can we keep them interested in our Fraternity so that we do not lose them? It's up to us, brethren. Can we make changes to address these concerns and reduce the loss of membership?"

We have not yet turned the corner by bringing in more new members than we are losing, but the gap is narrowing. We continue to witness a decline of overall membership but the rate of decline has decreased somewhat. Those stricken from the rolls for NPD are down significantly, from 354 to 261. Re-instatements are down, affiliations are up, essentially a wash. Losses by Demit are down again, slightly. The net result is a reduction of approximately 2.5%, a significant improvement from 2006. The average age of new members has been lowered by approximately four years over the most recent five years. These improved figures reflect the ongoing value of several Grand Lodge programs: the CTCHIP program, the Connecticut Freemasons newspaper and the new Grand Lodge website. We have seen a tremendous influx of new and younger members because of these programs. They want to DO SOMETHING and it is our responsibility to provide activities in which they can be involved.

I have also gained insight into initiatives being presented in other jurisdictions and one in particular I am planning to implement in Connecticut. It is called the "G15 Roundtable." It is an ad hoc group composed of 15 members, each with less than two years in the Fraternity. They will discuss and provide input regarding what they expected from us—things they wanted and did not get—and things they got but didn't expect. This should assist us by providing new insight into the expectations of our younger members."

The Committee on Strategic Planning, responding to the current situation, condensed their aims and objectives into three major goals:

1. Increase the Number of Members in the Fraternity.
2. Increase Member Awareness of the Good Work done by Masons and the Masonic Fraternity.
3. Increase Public Awareness of the Good Work done by Masons and the Masonic Fraternity.

These goals would be translated into action by developing a means of informing the Craft and the public of Masonic influences in democracy in the free world, in education, in the care of the elderly and children and of our Masonic philanthropies. Organizational goals include defining desired Lodge and member attributes, developing a Leadership Program for Officers that must be completed prior to the advancement to elective office, promoting Masonic Education and a Mentoring program for new members with source materials and training sessions for Lodge Mentors. Lodges should be encouraged to establish benchmarks to evaluate annual progress in achieving these benchmarks. Public awareness could be enhanced by making it a practice to invite civic leaders and work associates to public activities and programs. Prepare a guide and group instruction program on the proper approach to creating effective public relations and awareness. Make an effort to meet and cultivate people that can help get public awareness for Freemasonry. Distribute our newspaper, "Connecticut Freemasons" to public libraries. Award Masonic Citations to youth groups (not limited to Masonic groups) for social or individual accomplishments. Provide guidance to Lodges on how to recognize opportunities for community involvement and provide a program with presentations and materials on Public Relations.

Finally, reward success by developing a recognition program for Lodges whose efforts in the public arena bring credit and a positive response by the public to the Craft. All of the above is designed to build on past accomplishments, meet new challenges and enable Freemasonry in Connecticut to advance and prosper in the future.

ENGLAND

Quarterly Communications

Freemasons' Hall, London, September, 2010

8,004 Lodges in 33 Districts: Europe, Asia, Africa, Americas, Oceania

The United Grand Lodge of England praised the enormous influence His Royal Highness, The Duke of Kent, Grand Master, has shown over the last 40 years, perhaps best demonstrated by his central role in opening-up Freemasonry as far as the general public is concerned; changing perceptions of secrecy and self-interest by emphasizing our concern with honesty, integrity and charitable action, not just toward Masonic Charities, but towards non-Masonic Charities as well. The Pro Grand Master's Address, building on this theme, stated that one of the core objectives of the new Strategic Communications Committee is to help members to describe openly to anyone who is interested, the inner workings of Freemasonry to a largely uncomprehending world.

"Not all members are clear about what they can and cannot talk about. It is therefore very important to give clarity to the important question, "What CAN I talk about?" The short answer is that there is very little that we cannot share with families, friends and colleagues. But in sharing them we must have clarity and not use Masonic jargon. Freemasonry has developed its own language and shorthand phrases. They trip easily off the tongue and convey in a few words, a wealth of meaning to our members but tend to mystify non-Masons and can, in their minds, strengthen some of the myths that have grown up around the Craft. We need to talk about Freemasonry in simple terms. One of the great myths we need to overcome is that of the so-called Masonic handshake. It is said to be given to get business or do underhand deals. These grips and words were never intended to be used in everyday life but only in a formal way in a Lodge. It is therefore wrong to describe them as recognition signals. Calling them such simply perpetuates the myth. An element of our Communications Strategy is to dilute the many myths that still abound – believed by many to be fact.

We are rightly proud of our Charities and I am strongly in favor of stating publicly all the tremendous work that emanates from them. But it is not our raison d'être. Let us not forget that there are many and varied other good reasons for our existence. One area we still regard as being private is the detail of our ceremonies. They are not "secret." The books covering these ceremonies are available for purchase by anyone, nor do they contain anything untoward. We regard them as private to preserve that "shared experience" which we all underwent when we joined Freemasonry, and which is an essential part of our system. Were we publicly to discuss our ceremonies or allow demonstrations of them we would spoil the effect on those who join us in the future and deprive them of that "shared experience." Discussing our rituals with non-Masons is like pulling up a prized plant to see how the roots are growing – you will find the answer but in doing so you damage the plant.

The Library and Museum of Freemasonry is an invaluable resource is creating positive public awareness. There is no admission fee. People join regular guided tours, attracted by a range of temporary exhibitions. The subjects have included Freemasonry and the French Revolution; Women in Freemasonry; an exhibition celebrating the 350th Anniversary of the Royal Society, listing the names of 350 Freemasons who were Fellows of the Society, including Sir George Everest of mountain fame. This added significantly to our knowledge of famous Freemasons. There are presently over 40,000 items of Masonic historical significance being catalogued which we hope to complete for our Tercentenary in 2017. But not everyone can come to central London, so we have found a way to bring the knowledge and sometimes items of the collections, to them. The information is available on our electronic catalogue on our website.

The new website has received wide acclaim and has significantly raised our profile. For example, when searching for "Freemasonry" on Google UK, U.G.L.E. is consistently in the top five rankings. We have seen the number of people visiting the site dramatically increase, as have enquiries from potential candidates. It will also make sure that people looking for information about Freemasonry are presented with the real facts. This is essential if we are to communicate the important role Freemasonry plays in society today whilst ensuring its long term future. As it develops, brethren, you will hear more about the new communications strategy because the whole Craft will have a part to play in it. It will, we hope, help to define the future health and happiness of the Craft."

GRAND SECRETARY'S REPORT

While Iowa doesn't have mountains or beaches, it does have varieties of colors and topography. Lodges are a lot like Iowa. Each is unique with its own color or personality. These colors help to make Iowa Masonry the envy of many of our sister jurisdictions. There has been a resurgence of Lodges throughout the State that have struggled in the past and who are now enjoying success. Those that have had limited activity for some time have men knocking at their door wishing to participate in what Masonry has to offer. Their re-development during the past few years has been gratifying. They were not prepared to see their Lodges closed and held on until changes came. Most have used assistance from outside, but most importantly, each had found leadership from within. 108 Lodges had a net increase in membership. They illustrate the fact that Lodges need to develop a vision for what they want to be and where they want to be in the future. From that vision, plans can be developed to make it a reality.

THE LODGE SERVICE COMMITTEE

The members of the Lodge Service Committee assist Iowa Lodges and support the Grand Master as he promotes his theme, "Masonry is a Way of Life." They distribute Masonic Education packages to Lodges and conduct Neighborhood Area Meetings across the State with leaders and all interested brothers invited to attend. The major conclusion was that Lodges who have a well-functioning Education Committee have better than average attendance, closer relationships and contact among their Members and have fewer losses through suspensions for NPD. The most popular format was, "Saturday Night at the Goose and Gridiron” where subjects ranging from, “The True Meaning of The Fellowcraft Degree” and “Socrates Café and Masonic Education” proved the most popular.

GRAND MASTER’S REPORT

Grand Master of Masons, M.W. Bro. Jack L. Butler, introduced several new initiatives to Iowa Masonry. He held the first Annual Leadership Symposium, attracting members and speakers from across the State, providing them with a high quality program containing ideas and skills which the participants can use to benefit their Lodges, communities and families.

Another first was the Statewide Re-Obligation Night where the brothers voluntarily renewed their commitment to the principles of Freemasonry, in most cases wearing the original white leather apron that was presented to them on their Initiation.

He approved the establishment of a Lodge Membership Committee, consisting of three members appointed by the Worshipful Master on the day of his Installation. Their duties are to assist the Worshipful Master and Wardens in developing strategies and programs for membership growth and retention and to help the Secretary in contacting brothers with unpaid dues and reporting their situation and need. There were 319 Demits and 577 Suspensions for Dues in arrears in 2008 resulting in a net loss of 822 Members.

In his closing remarks, the Grand Master said that the solutions to the issues and situations facing Grand Lodge lie in the hands of future Masonic leaders. It will be in their capable hands to analyze and set a course of action into motion. Some could be adopted with little effort while others need more time, more effort, or a better leader. “We have the template of success before us,” he concluded. “The Lodge that is centered on quality education, powerful Ritual delivered with meaning, quality fraternal and social bonding and community respect may be the most powerfully compelling organization in America for men to join who fall within the 19 to 40 age range. But there are a couple of other things we need to know about many of these young fellows. They are confident, practical, educated, involved in decision-making processes, articulate and passionate about their world and their place in it. This group simply will not accept the old standard: “Because it’s always been done that way.” They will question and argue. Then will make us face up to practicing in Lodge what we teach in our Rituals.”

IRELAND

Quarterly Communication

Freemasons’ Hall, Dublin, Ireland, 2009

M.W. Bro. George Dunlop, Grand Master, addressed the issue of the public perception of Freemasonry and the responsibility of Grand Lodge and all members to promote the Order in the public place. He and his Cabinet took every opportunity to appear in the media and made presentations to interested groups such as Rotary Clubs, Round Tables and Church Bodies. He accepted an opportunity to be interviewed on BBC Radio and was delighted that both he and his comments on Freemasonry were well received.

“Changing society’s perception of our Order will always be difficult as the tide of public opinion will constantly ebb and flow.” It may be appropriate to quote a statement made some years ago by His Royal highness, The Duke of Connaught, Grand Master of the Free and Accepted Masons of England. “We are loyal, true and faithful to the laws of our country. We have concealed from the eyes of men secrets which may not be revealed, but these secrets are lawful and honorable and not repugnant to the laws of God or man. Unless our Craft were good and our calling honorable, we would not have lasted for so many centuries, nor would we have had so many eminent men in our Order.” We come in for adverse comments and publicity at times from different quarters including the church, as it sometimes feels threatened by the freedom which the Order provides. Throughout the length and breadth of this land, you will find members of the Craft prominent in their support of their church and clergy. As we reflect on the past year, we acknowledge that it is quite unacceptable that we suffer not only from the enemy without, but from the enemy within – a circumstance that would not exist if every Freemason remained true to his obligation, practiced brotherly love and embraced the Laws and Constitutions of our Order. Successful Lodges are those members who enjoy each meeting and each other and are given an opportunity to contribute to problem solving and the conferring of Degrees. We must accentuate the positives and reject the negatives of Freemasonry. We must attract quality candidates or face a decline in numbers and standards. We all consider ourselves members of a prestigious society and our actions should always embrace this image, especially the need to give support and leadership to Craft Masonry, the root and substance of our being, without which no associated level can grow or survive.”

The Reports of the Provincial Grand Masters revealed one important positive, the general stability of membership numbers in all Lodges and Provinces, and in a few areas, an increase. While this level of inflow is welcomed as it creates proficiency and familiarity with Degree work, it also points out the challenge of making time for Masonic Education, the understanding of our ethos and the need to answer correctly the questions posed by our new brethren. However, the Report of the Province of Munster revealed a study on membership statistics conducted in a Province of the Grand Lodge of England which found that whereas 25 or 30 years ago the average length of membership was 30 years, today that is down to 9. Munster is seeing a similar trend which would require candidates to be introduced very regularly.

The Grand Lodge of Instruction travelled to Belfast and Londonderry throughout the year for the Exemplification of the Entered Apprentice, Fellowcraft and Master Mason Degrees. All three events demonstrated to the large attendance that the Ritual and Ceremonial is still practiced to a very high standard, showing that this is still a very important part of Freemasonry. They consider it essential that all Lodges encourage their incoming Officers, particularly those taking Office for the first time, to attend Ritual classes to give them the confidence to carry out their duties effectively and continue the long tradition of quality Ritual.

The Reports from The Grand Lodge Charities showed, despite the recession, a healthy return on investments administered by the Masonic Trust Company. These monies were distributed to the Masonic Boys and Masonic Girls Benefit Funds on a means-tested basis, to provide educational assistance from the primary to university level. The Masonic Welfare Fund assisted brethren who have lost their jobs; whose businesses collapsed; and families who lost their houses and needed accommodation. The Freemasons of Ireland Medical Research Fund supports a project undertaken by University College, Cork, in an investigation as to how gene therapy might be used to slow the progression of chronic renal failure. The Northern Ireland Children's Hospice and the Samaritans benefitted from the 600,000 Euros donated by the Northern and Southern Provinces at the successful conclusion of the Annual Grand Master's Festival. These projects were fulfilled in spite of the many problems and difficulties Ireland is beset with at the present time.

The Provincial Deputy Grand Master of Wicklow summed up the tenor of the times. “We are not exempt from such tribulations. Like everywhere, people are losing their jobs, independence and even their homes. Feelings of futility, despair and depression prevail. It is at such times that one's involvement in Freemasonry can play a most important role. For brethren in such difficulties, a Lodge can be a retreat, a haven, a sanctuary from our troubled world. They can relax, unwind and have the support of their fellow brethren. We should watch out and be aware of those most in need. Be ever ready to give a listening ear and to extend a helping hand. Above all else, we should be prepared to carry out the ideals of true Freemasonry. Fortunately, there are reasons to believe that the worst is over, that lessons have been learned, and that we can face the future with some optimism.”

KENTUCKY209th Annual CommunicationLouisville, Kentucky, October, 2008407 Lodges48,048 Membership*

M.W. Bro. F. Keith Dreier, Grand Master, summarized the State of the Craft in Kentucky by pointing out the progress made in improving the relationship between the Grand Lodge and the subordinate Lodges, an existing attitude he described as, "Us and Them." This had created a lack of trust between the Craft and its leaders. Changes needed to be made and the Grand Master had made this the primary focus of the last four years. In his opinion, this attitude has changed dramatically, and that there now is an existence between the Grand Lodge Officers and the Fraternity the acceptance that we are all in this together. No other situation is possible if the Craft is to last another 200 years. "We must trust in each another and believe in the honour and integrity of the Craft. It is up to all of us to maintain this type of action and harmony in order that the Craft will continue to move forward."

The Grand Master expressed his belief that several items need or should be changed and presented recommendations for possible amendments to the Constitution:

1. There should be a limit on the amount of consecutive years of service of an Elected Grand Lodge Officer to a maximum of 10 consecutive years. Any currently serving Grand Lodge Officer would be grandfathered to this clause. This should be added to the Appendix of the Constitution under a new section titled Term Limits.
2. A recommendation to amend the Constitution to give the Grand Master the power to make a Mason on sight to any Entered Apprentice or Fellowcraft who will not survive before receiving the Master Masons Degree. Even though both of the above may receive a Masonic funeral, it is my belief, which I have personally witnessed, that it is the will of a man to be a true Master Mason before leaving this world.
3. Within three years, I will make it mandatory that all Lodges use the electronic reporting of membership updates through the website. Within the same three years, the Grand Lodge must offer each Lodge a means of purchasing a computer system. This initiative could be supported within our current budget each year
4. An Ad Hoc committee was appointed to combine the Ritual, consisting of the Kentucky Ritual and the Kentucky Monitor, to give the Craft a single Ritual Book which would combine what is being used today with the original Ritual book from the state of Virginia.

The Keynote Address entitled, "How Do We Attract Younger Members?" was delivered by Johnny D. Onskt, Grand Master of Oklahoma. He began by quoting the famous line by President Ronald Reagan at the Brandenburg Gate in West Berlin, "Mr. Gorbachov, tear down that wall."

The result was freedom and progress. "Is Masonry ready for progress?" he then asked. "Can Masonry tear down a wall that stands between it and a younger generation? Can Masonry have anything to offer the Young Man? How we put men through the Masonic experience may determine if we are progressing in a wrong direction. Many times we are climbing on the ladder of success only to find our ladder is on the wrong wall.

I am not a proponent of targeting young adolescents. When I joined Masonry at 21 there were many things I simply did not understand. Standing here today, I think our Masonic lessons are above a younger adolescent level of understanding. I believe we should evaluate our degrees and the process by which we make a Mason. The experience should be more than just the degrees or the words expressed. If we are to attract young men then we must WOW them not VOW them. HAVE MASONS KNOW THEIR PRODUCT. I don't hear anyone in the public talking about why it is such a privilege to be a Mason. We have brought in members, but have lacked the education and knowledge to teach and mentor them. By missing this step, we have allowed men to join and given them nothing. We were taught not to say anything, so our fathers and grandfathers remained silent and did not bring in any new members. Knowing your product is more than just teaching language, it is following the footsteps of all the things Masonry teaches us in our daily lives. Have Masons tell the story about Masonry to everyone, and make it a privilege to become a Mason. Stand up, express your personal convictions and tell young people what Masonry has done for you. Then, I believe, they will want to belong. They will find a common bond, an interest and a desire to become better men. That wall will come down. Young men will know that Freemasonry is alive and well and not a secret once held by our fathers and grandfathers.”

M.W. Bro. J. F. Webb, Grand Master, presented a positive and optimistic Report on the State of the Craft in Louisiana. “Louisiana Freemasonry is alive and well, with many newer men seeking admission. Whether this interest is piqued by a new book, movie or a current social factor is irrelevant. We must seize the opportunity to promote our Fraternity and provide our new members with the experience they are looking for.”

Many of our Lodges are taking Masonry out of the Lodges and promoting our principles and precepts to the public. Lodges are conducting community outreach and fund-raising programs. Endeavors such as these give the Lodge a sense of purpose. We must let our light shine. Attracting attention is one thing, explaining who we are and what we are to the public is another. We must be able to define Masonry and what it means if we are to successfully promote the Craft. If we can't define it to others, others will define it for us. Our ability to explain Masonry comes through Masonic Education, which I have promoted throughout my term as Grand Master. Masonic Education injected into the regular activities of a Meeting will revitalize a Lodge; let it take root and grow. We must educate ourselves and all new Masons if we are to survive as a Fraternity.

The Warden's Retreat and District Workshops have proven very successful. However, the majority of our Masonic Education is self taught and there is much literature/information available for this purpose.

Another factor to our survival is quality of members, not quantity. We are known by the company we keep. Masonry is not for everyone. We are an elite group, not based on social or economic status, but by moral and ethical character. By educating our members and by, “Guarding the West Gate,” we will ensure that our members are true and trusty. The importance of the Investigating Committee must be emphasized and background checks must be completed. Bro. Henry Ford stated: “Coming together is a beginning; keeping together is progress; working together is success.”

Three years ago the Grand Lodge Officers came together and developed a Strategic Business Plan. We kept together as we progressed and are working together to make it a success. Our Grand Lodge Business Plan adds stability. We have introduced several new programs: the Masonic Library/ Museum Foundation; the Louisiana Masonic License Plate Program and the Criminal Background Check Program.

Financially, the Grand Lodge is doing well, thanks to the past per-capita increase. Grand Lodge property development has been stifled by the current economic downturn but we are confident the Library/Museum and the Louisiana License Plate will prove to be revenue generators.”

The principal philanthropy of Grand Lodge is the Masonic Learning Center of Louisiana. Their mission is to provide the very best educational and training services to address the learning needs of school-aged children in Louisiana who struggle with Dyslexia. Last year 117 students were assisted by donations of almost $62,000. It is the vision of this organization to develop a network of learning centers providing services that are easily accessible to children in all 64 Louisiana Parishes.

The Permanent Committee on the Work and its 19 District Lecturers are responsible for teaching the Work, including proper floor work, to ensure a uniform standard of proficiency across the jurisdiction. They use the coded EA, FC and MM Teaching Aids as the esoteric work is instructed, rehearsed and learned throughout the State. These aids contain the catechisms the candidates are required to commit to memory and recite in Lodge. This program has proved highly successful to new as well as experienced members, promoting beautiful esoteric work statewide. Exams must be completed every two years until 13 successful examinations are completed. Masons acquiring this level of competence are rewarded with a Grand Lodge Gold Proficiency Certificate. These teaching aids are not permitted to be used in a tyled Lodge of Masons.

The Goals and Objectives Committee, mandated to oversee the recommendations made in the 2007 Strategic Plan, commented on the progress of the three main programs:

1. The education of the brethren.
2. Informing the public about the work of the Craft through public relations activities.
3. Financial accountability of Grand Lodge administered programs.

A well informed Mason is prepared to address inquiries from the general public, hence the importance of Masonic Education.

Public Relations are an on-going process. The new Dan Brown novel, The Lost Symbol, has opened new opportunities for interaction with the public. Financial responsibility is addressed by the Committee on Financial Oversight, tasked with making business-oriented decisions. The message continues. Lodges are attracting young men who have been interested through media events, by realizing that family members once belonged, and now want something that will be a life-changing experience. We are in the Brotherhood business – we need to make it work as a successful business.

MAINE

Bangor, Maine, May, 2010*

19,904 Membership

How can a jurisdiction which has raised 464 new Master Masons in 2009, an increase of 26% in new members over the previous year, also suffer a 2.8% decline and a net loss of 430 brethren? It is because these positive figures were overshadowed by Suspensions, Demits and Deaths. The goal of the Grand Lodge of Maine for the next year is to raise 700 new members. Therefore, a major effort will be made to reduce the number of Suspensions for NPD and to address all the other factors which stand in the way of achieving a net increase.

Despite this concern, the Committee on the Condition of the Fraternity presented a generally positive view of Freemasonry in the several Districts in Maine. The average age of Masons in Maine continues to drop. One hope is that with a positive upswing in the economy there will be a turnaround in Membership. Many Lodges are reporting a renewed interest in Freemasonry resulting in an increase in applications, with many Lodges working multiple candidates. Several Grand Jurisdictions from all across the country feel that the tide has turned and that Masonry is again on the rise. We can only hope. Success does not happen without effort. Those Lodges experiencing a revival of interest in the Craft exhibit similar characteristics. Fellowship Nights seem to be the best way to gain new members. Lodges that continue to increase in membership are those that consistently have Fellowship Nights. Other recommendations include a higher priority on Masonic Education, more involvement in community affairs, charity organizations, semi-public meetings, Open Houses, the provision of care for Masonic widows and CHIP programs.

CHIP scheduled over 100 events during the last year, averaging 40 children per program. The CHIP's Committee is seeking to upgrade the computer systems statewide. Being an all volunteer venture, there are no overhead or labour costs. At a $1.30 per child, it is money well spent in providing parents with information on their children to keep and use in cases of unforeseen circumstances. The secondary benefit is its great public relations value in presenting Masonry as complimentary to their family lives and values.

M.W. Bro. Louis Greenier II, Grand Master of Masons in Maine, summarized these Reports in his Communication Address. "The issue of membership is on all our minds. We bring a lot of men in the front door, but we're losing them out of the back. Why? My feeling is we are very poor Mentors. We were good at one time. We taught our brethren. We worked with them one-on-one. We bound them to our Fraternity. I think we have tended to let that go in the last few years. We are going to work hard on that. That is going to be one of my pet projects. Freemasonry is not a perfunctory thing. It is a challenge to all. If we're going to survive, we've got to get serious. It's about time that forceful action be taken, to address a situation that needs immediate attention.

Another thing we must consider. We have a tendency in our society to set the bar real low so that people can grab onto it and we think that helps them. It doesn't brethren. You want to set it just as high as you can so you can't quite reach it without help from somebody else. They are either going to lift you up or they are going to push you up, or get a chair for you or a ladder, whatever it may be. But with that help you are going to go to the top. And when you look down, it will be a good feeling. Help your fellow Masons and work together. This just isn't my job. It's our job. I'll be helping you. My job is all of your jobs and I hope you will help me in the same way."

The Membership Development Committee reported that their mandate this year was to focus on recruitment, retention and restoration. One of the challengers faced was an effective way to get the message out to the Lodges and Masons in general. Membership Seminars with handouts, guest speakers, etc. did not seem to work, the result being that they were always preaching to the converted. So the committee took the presentations on the road, to Lodges and District functions to speak on the various problems some of them are facing. Many Lodges are attracting a healthy number of candidates into the Craft. There are several examples of incredible growth and potential. Others are working on restoration programs to bring back members who left Masonry for different reasons. Some continue to struggle with the same difficulties of recruitment and retention in spite of the efforts of the enthusiastic few who try hard to attract new members by promoting the Fraternity in their communities.

The number one problem in Masonry seems to be retention – holding onto the members we have and keeping them enthusiastic. In order to assist the Lodges with their individual challenges, the committee has distributed a very informative Membership CD, courtesy of the Imperial Shrine of North America. This CD answers many questions and concerns facing the entire Masonic Family with regards to membership. Additional assistance was provided by the Education and Training Committee, who have provided a well rounded educational curriculum for all the brethren. Education is, unfortunately, not a priority for many established brethren. However, it is critical to the young men who are joining the Fraternity in numbers not seen in decades. There is a need to speak to them intelligently regarding those mysteries Masonry purports to have and not use, "It's a secret," as a crutch to conceal ignorance. At the Midwest Conference of Masonic Education, held in Springfield, Illinois, it was noted that virtually all the jurisdictions represented are engaged in attempting to understand the allegorical message written into our Ritual. It is now apparent that the Craft needs to change and evolve in this direction. For a century Masons have lamented the fact that we are largely unaware of the true meaning of Freemasonry. Young men are asking questions that require us to search for the answers. Today, the true rulers of the Craft are drawing aside the veil and revealing the secrets contained within the allegory.

The Grand Secretary's report on Membership cautioned against over reliance on statistics. Increases by Affiliation and Restoration are not really gains. The only true gains are Initiations and Affiliations from outside the jurisdiction. Demits are often just a change from one Lodge to another. A Demit this year may be an Affiliation next year. True loss in Membership is reflected in Initiations vs Deaths. The right way to look at is that we have failed to replace those brethren who have passed to the Grand Lodge above. The Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master have issued a Proclamation of Amnesty for the year 2009 to allow any brother who has been suspended for non-payment of dues to be able to petition his Lodge for Restoration with only the payment of the current years' dues – no investigation, nor ballot. This has resulted in some members returning to Lodge after many years of absence.

M.W. Bro. Edward H. Jones, Grand Master, offered a few personal observations on the decisions of Lodges surrendering their Charters instead of seeking an Amalgamation with another Lodge. "Amalgamation offers a continuity of membership and fellowship to the members of two Lodges as they join forces and pool not only resources but also histories and traditions. If a Lodge is closed it leaves the following situation: a history of tradition of Past Masters and honored members who are no longer recalled or recognized on a Lodge notice or in any Lodge history.

They become Demitted members, Masonic orphans. They have not left Masonry – Masonry has left them. They are unable to affiliate following the surrender of a Charter. I charge the Officers of the future to carefully consider their actions when a Lodge must close. Seek an Amalgamation – keep the history and traditions alive. I encourage the Grand Lodge and all members of the Board of General Purposes to review alternatives to our current regulations. I would suggest that they investigate the processes in place in the Grand Lodge of Canada in the Province of Ontario with respect to Affiliations rather than Demits for "orphaned Masons." Let us continue to build a stronger Masonic Family. Strive to make a difference. With the collective support of the brethren in this jurisdiction, I am sure we can overcome any obstacles which lie ahead."

M.W. Bro. Roger W. Pageau, Grand Master, reviewed the second year of his term. "It seems fitting to consider some of the accomplishments of the last year and the work left unfinished. There is always room for improvement. We are convinced our programs are correct, appropriate, and in many cases, well ahead of our peers. While we must always be receptive to new ideas, we can be comfortable that we are still a leader among Grand Lodges. We have frequently heard that the only constants are death, taxes and change. Change is coming, whether we like it or not. In the past, Freemasonry has always been at the tip of the spear of change and Massachusetts has always taken the lead in Freemasonry. Most of the changes are very encouraging, the largest being the enthusiasm with which our Lodges have embraced the Membership Programs. The combination of Open Houses, Media Information Programs and enthusiastic brethren has been very effective in bringing new members into the Craft. The improving awareness of our Fraternity in the Media has generated significant returns. No greater testimony exists than that we have raised more than 1500 new Master Masons this year. This positive trend means that we are clearly on the right path towards reversing the decline we have experienced since the 1970s. Every week I receive requests for Dispensations for more meetings to perform Degrees on a larger number of candidates. Several Districts have conducted very successful One-Day Classes. The average age of our members is dropping and the level of vitality and participation is increasing. We not only look back on a wonderful past, but towards an even brighter future. Our goal is not to eliminate programs, but to improve them, to make them more useful, relevant, imaginative, easy to understand and more helpful to the participant while still retaining the spiritual meaning of Freemasonry. These programs and initiatives include:

1. Lodges of Instruction.
2. Training courses for Lodge Secretaries and Treasurers.
3. The Massachusetts Leadership Institute program, with a new focus on the importance of Lodge Leadership.
4. The electronic delivery of Lodge Notices in a manner equally secure as the present process.
5. A new computerized system to enhance the MyChip program.
6. Youth Programs, including a re-organization of DeMolay, which is experiencing an important revival. Several Chapters which had become dormant or had returned their Charters are active again. Attendance at their recent Congress was more than double that of last year and a number of their Officers have joined us as Master Masons. This is just the beginning for DeMolay.
7. Improved Masonic Education for Candidates and Members.
8. Grand Lodge has issued a Warrant for the creation of the Massachusetts Lodge of Research. This body will explore and report on various Masonic topics selected by the Grand Master and the Director of Education and Training.
9. An Edict from Grand Lodge stipulating that the Worshipful Masters of all Lodges must confer the three Degrees once each year to qualify for a Past Master's Diploma.
10. The Masonic Rookie Award Program, which recognizes and rewards new Masons as they experience and learn the lessons of Freemasonry.
11. We will continue to encourage our Members to ask men of good character to join our organization.

I am also pleased to report that I have signed a Dispensation for the first bi-lingual Lodge in our jurisdiction, to be named Independence Lodge. Part of the Work will be performed in Brazilian/Portuguese, to assist brethren for whom English is a second language. This Lodge will truly be a celebration of universal Freemasonry.

In closing, I remind the brethren that the Grand Lodge of Massachusetts is regarded as one of the premier Grand Lodges in the world. We are the third oldest, and respected as a leader by other jurisdictions. Our charity and membership programs have been adopted by many Grand Lodges in this country and others. This does not happen by accident. It is the result of many years of hard work by leadership and membership alike. Any organization is like a boat on a river. To navigate, the boat must move faster than the current. If it simply drifts, it cannot determine its direction and will ultimately find itself overturned or cast upon rocks. We cannot allow our Grand Lodge to suffer that fate. We must continue to seek our own identity by our willingness to try new ideas and move against the current of mediocrity. Don't follow the herd. Don't sit back and let the current carry you along. Set the course."

The Oration to Grand Lodge, delivered by Senior Warden, Mark A. Marsh of Carson City Lodge No. 1, dealt with the subject of Communication. He drew the distinction between the quality of Masons and the number of Masons the Craft wishes to attract. "To attract like-minded men of quality, we must get our message out. Freemasonry is being out-marketed by other service organizations such as Kiwanis, Toastmasters and Rotary. All these organizations serve the community with very open and public events and are rewarded with positive publicity in consequence. We are competing with them for the time of our members. If we properly communicate the values of Freemasonry, the values our candidates are looking for, then we will find the candidates we want. We need to compete in the market place of ideas and community service. If we can do this, then membership will take care of itself. Freemasonry has exactly the right message for this exact moment in time. The traditional values of Friendship, Morality, Brotherly Love, Charity and Integrity separates us from casual society and appeals to young men seeking an alternative to the chaos in areas of modern American society. How do we get the message out without violating the prohibition against advertising or soliciting membership? We must let our communities know we exist and what we stand for. Many Lodges have launched websites giving a history of the Lodge, a discussion of Masonry and how-to-contact-us information. It has directly accounted for Petitions for degrees, in some cases every month since its launch. The emails reflect a common theme. Good men are out there looking for an organization that stands for traditional values. THEY ARE LOOKING FOR US! THEY ARE SEEKING US OUT! Let us connect with them. To those, like me, who were once skeptical about the impact of the Internet, let me state the obvious. Masonry has joined the age of technology. We need to become known in our communities. Send announcements of Masonic events and pictures to the newspapers. I think it is very important to sponsor non-Masonic events. Freemasonry is getting so much free publicity from television and movies. We have to capitalize on anything that brings us to the general public's attention, reach out to our communities and let them know we are here.

We older members have different motivations or expectations than younger members. They have grown up in a much faster paced society. They have to justify the time spent with us. The Lodge is competing for his time with his family, career, chores and obligations. We must understand this competition. They are looking for the unique qualities of Freemasonry. They are looking for fun and fellowship and not just another typical community service experience. The results of a survey I conducted, asking every member of our Lodge what they would most like to see at a stated meeting, surprised me. Older members and particularly younger members wanted Masonic Education. They felt starved for Masonic Education. As a result, we changed the format of our Meetings to include presentations, in specific detail, on the Nevada Masonic Code, the symbolism of the Entered Apprentice and Fellowcraft Degrees, the Landmarks, the Pillars and even Masonic Scandals such as the Morgan and P2 Affairs. Our meetings are longer, but they are much more interesting and entertaining. I have heard some complaints from the older membership, but none from my target audience, the newer and younger members.

Each of us has our chance right now to make a difference in the life of the Fraternity. It is not the responsibility of just the Grand Master to motivate and lead. Each Master and their Wardens need to ask their membership what the Lodge can do to get the word out about Freemasonry. The State of the Craft is good. Masonry is growing in this state and across the nation. We have the tradition, the values and the role models. We are the rock and foundation in times of change and uncertainty. We have what the candidates are seeking. They just have to know we are here. We can fondly remember our past successes, but we cannot become mired with indecision. Winston Churchill said, "If we open a quarrel between past and present, we shall find that we have lost the future." Brothers, the future is calling and I fear it is impatient."

The State of the Craft throughout the jurisdiction is, for the most part, positive, with many of the Lodges receiving new petitions, and they are busy in the performance of Ritual Work associated with each of the Degrees. It appears that most of the candidates have done their homework on the Internet and are knowledgeable regarding various aspects of the Fraternity. There are Lodges which continue to struggle with aging and declining membership. In some Districts the lack of meaningful work causes young men to leave to seek employment elsewhere; therefore, suitable candidates for Masonry are few and far between. Many Lodges are making adjustments in their meetings to place a greater emphasis on programs of an educational, general interest or of a training nature with a reduced focus on the business meeting. Ramping up their efforts to make meetings more interesting fosters and develops attendance and visitation within the Lodges. The importance of developing meaningful action plans and targets for membership to create an atmosphere of success is stressed. The Reports of the D.D.G.M.s of each District indicate progress in many areas and are generally upbeat. Masonry is well, but not to be taken for granted. It is up to every Mason in each District to turn the tide and work for the survival of the Craft. Grand Lodge will assist, but ultimate success rests on the individual Lodges. This is the goal, the desired end. The Grand Lodge of New Brunswick's Five Year Strategic Plan, a work in progress developed with considerable input from Lodges and Masons across the province, is the road map. The intent is two-fold: to create a strong and viable Fraternity made up of men who practice the principles of Freemasonry and have a strong desire for self-improvement; to provide strong and visible leadership by cultivating and initiating programs which will enhance leadership, knowledge, member satisfaction, communication and cohesion among all constituent Lodges and to maintain our status as the Fraternity of choice for men in New Brunswick.

Key goals and targets include:

- To increase membership in the Grand Lodge of New Brunswick by 10% by 2015.
- To increase attendance at Blue Lodges by an average of 25% by 2015.
- To develop regular programs for inclusion at Lodge Communications that focus on the proper use of Masonic Ritual and Protocol, Masonic Education and Masonic Training. Strategies include:
  - Each Lodge will establish and implement a structure to address the issue of attracting new members.
  - Grand Lodge will establish and implement communication and promotional programs that will support the Lodges in attracting new members.
  - Lodges will establish programs that will increase attendance at regular communications.
  - Lodges will design regular meetings that will make effective use of time and include, as a primary component, education and training.
  - Grand Lodge will develop a monitoring and accountability system for the implementation and evaluation of this plan.

This document will provide the underlying foundation for the development of the Fraternity for the next 5 years. It will be reviewed and reported on annually by Grand Lodge. Blue Lodges should report, through their D.D.G.M. their progress in achieving their targets. The Plan, on its annual review, may be extended for another year which would make it a living document that is always a five year plan that will not require major adjustment. The suggested tactics, a very extensive list or 'Tool Kit,' are not meant to be restrictive or exhaustive. Lodges will develop tactics based on their individual needs and abilities. Working together, with all Lodges contributing to all strategies, the goals are achievable and may indeed prove to be modest. Grand Lodge can and must provide the support for these things to happen, but it is only at the local and District levels that most of the initiatives can occur. Lodges must feel the freedom to address the 3 goals/targets in a manner that is most effective for them. In this sense the document cannot be seen as restrictive, but as liberating. It is designed to improve life by improving the men who live it while never losing sight of the need to preserve the past, serve the present, and prepare for the future.

M.W. Bro. Lawrence G. Moss, Grand Master, reflected upon the positive high points of his term of office and on the much needed work that remains. "Like most other fraternal and social organizations we have had our struggles with membership. Even though we have had modest increases over the past few years (and again the past year), our membership is still ageing. Some Lodges are still suffering from out-migration. Last year we distributed new membership brochures and approved a more liberal policy on solicitation. But, ultimately, brethren, our future is in your hands. New members are vital to any organization, but especially to an initiatory one such as ours. Our very reason for existence is bound up in the Initiation, Passing and Raising of new members for it is in those Rituals that our vital lessons are brought out. Unless every member under our jurisdiction takes it as a personal responsibility to bring in new members, we will surely cease to exist within our lifetimes. I urge you, therefore, to go back to your Lodges and develop and put into place a Membership Plan.

There is occurring, however, a renaissance in Masonry. There is a noticeable increase in the number of young men joining the Fraternity and it is necessary to make changes to accommodate their needs and interests. As Freemasons, we need to understand what Freemasonry is about. I believe that, unless we understand the symbolism and allegories and symbols of the Craft, we cannot live the Masonic life. I have authored in excess of forty papers and my plan is to edit them on paper or CD, to have them distributed to Lodges and Worshipful Masters to use as part of their Masonic Education program."

The Reports of each of the District Grand Masters complimented their Lodges and members on their protocol, Ritual, social events and community involvement. However, with a mobile work force and ageing brethren, membership and the ability to attract new candidates remains the ongoing challenge. Labrador District No. 1 is unique; it has only one Lodge, Polaris Lodge No. 17. For the first time in its history, one of its members, M.W. Bro. John A. Peyton, was Installed as Grand Master and stated that one of his main objectives will be to focus on membership and the issues surrounding it.

"As Freemasons, we need to understand what Freemasonry is about. Education, therefore, is a given. There is so much to learn. Never think you know all the answers. We must continue to educate ourselves and potential new members. At every Lodge meeting, present a paper on some aspect of Freemasonry or describe to newly initiated candidates the significance of what they have just experienced. I have often heard it said that we keep learning until the day we die. So we must concentrate on seeking out those that can and will be leaders of the Craft.

The Internet is an important source of information and commerce in our society today. Our Grand Lodge now has a useful and informative website. It should help us to educate our members and the public about Freemasonry if we use it wisely. There is great interest in the Craft among the general public and our website should be one of the tools in providing some of that interest at local level. We must also recognize that there are some Lodges that continue to ensure that there is an ongoing Mentorship Program to provide beneficial information to newer members of the Craft. It is incumbent on each and every Lodge to have the capacity to undertake this responsibility if we are to maintain each individual's interest and his willingness to participate in the Craft. There is also a definite need to continue with Long Range Planning to address such issues as Leadership, Communications, Community Relations and Finance. We must constantly review The Plan to ensure it reflects our future goals.

Brethren, we are a relatively young Grand Lodge, but we already have a strong presence. What about the future? Where do we see the Grand Lodge of Newfoundland and Labrador going? We build on what we have already accomplished and continue with the successful initiatives we are working on and those already in place. Freemasonry is many things, but most of all, Freemasonry is kindness in the home, honesty in business, courtesy in society, fairness in work, pity and concern for the unfortunate, resistance toward evil and help for the weak. It is a way of life. Let us work together in harmony, as brothers of the Craft, in firming our foundation and building our future."

The Condition of the Order Committee reported that with the renewed interest in Masonry sparked by the media, new books, and the Internet, our order is attracting more candidates to our doors. It seems fitting to highlight some of the positive aspects, such as the sound financial condition of the jurisdiction, along with a few direct and unvarnished suggestions for much-needed improvement in many areas. Concern was expressed regarding the assessment of suitability of applicants being attracted to our Craft. We are used to dealing with potential candidates on the personal recommendation of brothers who know them. Decisions to accept new members should not be based solely on the need to obtain new members. Another issue discussed was the need for criminal reports to accompany applications for Initiation. Over 50% of all Grand Lodges in the United States, as well as, some in Canada have adopted this requirement. The number of enquiries from individuals who have absolutely no connection to Freemasonry is rapidly increasing because of the amount of information available through the Internet. Increased interest is being created by Grand Lodges who, in an attempt to attract new members, advertise through radio, newspapers, TV and Open Houses. The world is changing at a rapid rate. We really don't have personal knowledge of all who apply for Initiation. Despite the limitation of these checks we must exercise due diligence to protect the good name of our Fraternity. Guard the West Gate. Indiscriminate recruitment could result in the ultimate surrender of a Lodge's Charter.

Reports by the D.D.G.M.s indicate that it is evident that some Lodges are experiencing difficulties, but many of them are at least holding their own and quite a few are moving ahead. A major difficulty is lack of attendance. This is a grave concern as some Lodges are balancing on the brink of viability by the seemingly cold indifference on the part of some of their members. Even with ample membership, some Lodges can only open with the assistance of visiting brethren. A significant number of Lodges retired their Charters in the last five years, not because they did not have enough members, but because they did not have enough active Masons.

In response to repeated comments on the lack of uniformity and instruction in the Lodges of the jurisdiction, a Masters' and Wardens' Workshop Document was formulated by the Masonic Education Committee to correct the inability of many Masters to effectively conduct business meetings, degrees, balloting, Installations, openings and closings, and the absence of Masonic Education of any kind. Although the document was approved by the B.O.G.P. in 2007, the committee frankly stated that it has gathered dust ever since, and will not become effective until Grand Lodge makes it happen by instructing the District D.D.G.M.s to fulfill their responsibilities. The committee recommended instituting a District Deputy Grand Masters' correspondence course, to raise the qualifications and abilities of prospective D.D.G.M.s in all areas of leadership, knowledge and administration. Change and progress is sometimes slow and painful but resistance to change should not be used as an excuse to do nothing. Grand Lodge and its various committees are introducing programs and initiatives to cope with and correct these problems and to improve communications between the Board of General Purposes and the individual Lodges. A Masonic Education and Mentors program, conducted at District Workshops and in-Lodge presentations, will ensure that new members will not languish unattended but will become knowledgeable Masons. The books of the Ritual, Protocol and Etiquette, and the Lodge Installation Manual have been revised and distributed. The Grand Lodge website will be updated to contain only current information and will instruct the Lodges and Districts how to do the same. The website is underutilized. It has the capacity to unite the Craft and serve as an educational resource for the leaders and brethren of the jurisdiction. Finally, our leaders must find ways to attract the attention of Lodge members and make them feel they are missing something by not attending a regular monthly meeting. Men will not participate in our order without having something in our Lodges to attract them. The next step of membership involvement is to foster social events designed to the interests of its members and families. Make Masonry a family affair. Strong leadership is required. This will not happen by accident, but will require a concentrated effort on the part of Grand Lodge and the Past Masters of each Lodge while still focusing on increasing the confidence of the Lodge officers. It is the respectful position of this committee that this should be the prime focus of the Grand Lodge of Nova Scotia in the coming months.

M.W. Bro. Owen Field Walton, Grand Master of Masons in Nova Scotia, encapsulated this theme in his Acceptance Address. "Brethren, we are on the brink of extraordinary Masonic times, but these times will not happen automatically. We must make them happen! Any successful C.E.O. will tell you that if the status quo is simply maintained, you are losing ground; remaining in one place is, in actuality, falling behind. What kind of contribution is each one of us making to our membership? We must consider this vital question: "When we are gone, what will be the nature of our legacy to Freemasonry and to the world?"

"My friends and fellow Freemasons, it is axiomatic that do nothing and perpetuate the status quo is like denying treatment to someone who is ill. The treatment for this Fraternity in Pennsylvania begins today." With these words, R.W. Bro. Thomas K. Sturgeon, Grand Master, set the tone for his Address, outlining the radical and innovative changes which will determine the future direction of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania. "With this future in mind, I announce to all Pennsylvania Masons that the 21st Century Masonic Renaissance starts today. There many critical issues to be addressed. I am prepared to offer solutions for the greater good of the Fraternity. You need to know how I envision my term of office. Niccolo Macheavelli, in his book, 'The Prince' questioned whether is better to be loved than feared or feared than loved. I believe my success will lie somewhere in the middle. To be popular I will simply have to keep the ship steering in the same direction, like the Titanic, which the world thought to be invulnerable. Some brothers think the same of the Fraternity. But to change nothing is to do nothing and to do nothing is a guaranteed avenue of failure. No matter how much we love the Fraternity, we cannot overlook the need to treat it as a business and as an organization that mirrors the times we live in. Our expenses have risen dramatically and our revenues have equally decreased. Our dues and fees are not current with the rising economy, partly because we did not want to place another barrier to gaining new members. The last increase of Grand Lodge dues came in 2003. Since then we have experienced a 10% loss in membership. To counteract this, the increase in Grand Lodge dues should be $7.50 instead of the $5.00 approved, just to break even. This does not take into account the impact on investments due to the downturn in the economy. Despite this, members and Lodges in Pennsylvania experience the highest level of membership services of any jurisdiction anywhere.

The other changes I will make include:

MEMBERSHIP – while still placing an emphasis on the candidate to ask a brother to be proposed for membership, I now authorize that we may also engage in SELECTIVE INVITATION, whereby members are now permitted invite a man of good character to join the Fraternity. This only authorizes what has become a practice for many members for years. As an incentive to inviting worthy candidates, I am implementing a SENIOR RECRUITMENT PROGRAM. Any member, 60 or higher, who successfully recommends 2 members less than thirty years old will be exempt from Lodge and Grand Lodge dues for life.

DUES – To bring our dues payment method into modern times and to help with Lodge Cash Flow, every Lodge will be able to receive dues by debit or credit card or by automatic withdrawal from their credit card once each year.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT – Lodges will be expected to perform one local service initiative every month during the next two years. All Lodges should participate in the local food bank, take part in local parades or any event which will promote and modernize our image. Expect me to approve almost any kind of Masonic Awareness project.

RITUAL – I will issue a decision authorizing the printing of the Ritual of the Degrees. Here is the rationale. To be Worshipful Master of your Lodge you must learn all this Ritual by mouth to ear, involving hundreds of hours and months of meetings. How secret is our Ritual anyway? Google ‘Masonic Ritual’ and you will find it on the Internet. I do not propose we sell the manuals on-line or in a local bookstore. The limited number of manuals printed will be controlled by the Master of the Lodge, who will be responsible for signing every copy in and out to ensure an absolute audit. Photocopying, writing or printing in any manner is forbidden. The D.D.G.M. will audit the manuals on his Official Visit to ensure they are properly cared for. The decision also makes clear that no open manual will be permitted in a Lodge during a regular meeting. Any violation will result in the loss of Warrant or Constitution of that Lodge.

Other changes include the open Installation of all symbolic Lodge Officers, including the Worshipful Master. No brother will be asked to leave the meeting. I will relax the dress code for Lodge meetings whereby a necktie is not required and any lesser dress code requirements will be established by the appropriate D.D.G.M.

I authorize Lodges to open and close all of their meetings in a shortened manner proscribed by the Schools of Instruction. I will propose a change to the Constitution to permit a D.D.G.M. to serve up to ten years by mutual agreement with the Grand Master and District Deputy. We have updated our philosophy concerning Masonic Education and Mentoring, to teach a brother and new candidate more about the history of our great Fraternity. I will assemble a Masonic Congress in 2010 for all related Masonic bodies to discuss ways to work together in a unity of purpose for the betterment of our beloved Craft. Finally, I will raise the Grand Lodge Dues by 50 cents a year with all of the proceeds going to youth group initiatives administered by the Pennsylvania Youth Foundation.

Grand Lodge is not exempt from change. I will eliminate eight Masonic Districts. The changes and realignments will make Grand Lodge more efficient and effective. Additionally, I have eliminated several of the traditional committees, merged the responsibilities of others and totally revamped the Grand Lodge committee structure in the interests of efficiency and to save money. This is the Agenda for 2010 rather than 1910. The next generation must always be the greatest generation. Each new generation must re-fight the battles and bring new vitality to the ideals we cherish, or allow those ideals to decay. The higher one’s station, the more severe the criticism he will encounter. When it comes my way I will accept it because I believe the changes I am making are necessary for the perpetual future of Pennsylvania Freemasonry. I need the help of each of you. It is not a one man job. In terms of attitude and humility, Bro. Gerald Ford, 38th President of the United States, frequently reminded people that ‘he was a Ford, not a Lincoln.’ In my case you should know that I am a Surgeon and not a Shark. With your help, faith and co-operation, there will be Masons meeting in our Commonwealth 100 years from now. It will be in no small part due to the 21st Century Masonic Renaissance that started here today in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.”

M.W. Peter U. Lim Lo Suy, in his Inaugural Address laid down the basic thrusts of his term as Grand Master. They were contained in a three-point program, simple to understand and easy to implement and consisted of the following:

1. Membership Growth, Development and Welfare.
2. Effective Lodge Governance.
3. Civic Involvement.

These programs will be complemented by a Handbook for Worshipful Masters and aspiring Masters. They are additionally designed to complement all the materials which have already been published by The Institute of Masonic Education and Studies (I.M.E.S.) whose courses include Masonic History, Jurisprudence, Laws and Regulations, Philosophy and Symbolism, Rituals and Ceremonies and General Lodge Management. The highest priority will be given to programs that dwell on Masonic Education. All elective Officers of a Lodge will be required, within 30 days from their Installation, to take the I.M.E.S. course on Lodge Management to prepare them for their respective duties. All programs are anchored in the Masonic Theme adopted by the Grand Master: MAKING THE DIFFERENCE. "Make your labours matter that they bring goodness to those who may need them. All brethren have a role to play and an indispensable part to undertake. No matter where a brother may be assigned, he will be as important as all the others. Not all of us can be a candle in the dark, but some of us can be the mirrors that reflect the light."

The Report on Membership and Finance declared that Grand Lodge is healthy and vibrant. Despite the prohibition on inviting members, petitions for membership have steadily increased. Almost all Lodges have experienced growth in membership. The Financial Status has been enhanced by this progress and Grand Lodge operated within the bounds of an approved budget.

The Report of the Masonic Charities for Crippled Children indicated that it was living up to the purpose for which it was created. A joint effort with SMILE TRAIN Inc., an international organization dedicated to the treatment of harelip and cleft palate patients assisted in shouldering the medical expenses for 66 patients throughout the Philippines.

The Report of the Grand Guild of Past Masters, created in 1984 and mandated to promote and protect the welfare and interests of Past Masters, their widows and orphans, have to date disbursed more than 18 million pesos in Death and Hospital Gratuity Grants. These benefits have now been extended to all Master Masons who are not Past Masters. All brethren are now covered and given assistance in time of need. All expenses incurred in travel to different Districts to attend meetings are on the personal account of Grand Guild Officers. They do not charge for reimbursement of gasoline, nor do they receive any honorarium.

The Grand Orator delivered a sober and eloquent speech entitled: Harmony Under Siege, Masonry in the Line of Fire. It addressed the responsibility of Freemasonry in confronting the challenges facing the modern world and the social and political conditions in the Philippines. "We are men of differing beliefs, religious faiths, political persuasions, economic circumstances and intellectual faculties. Yet we are bound together by the tenets of those who can best work and best agree. It is from harmony that Masonry gathers its strength. Harmony, stripped of its superficial sophistication, is simply a word borrowed from music, denoting simultaneous and often discordant notes combined to produce a beautiful melody. In recent years, however, discordant notes have shaken harmony in this world. Man made calamities and terrorism threaten civilization. Our own country has its own share of experiences under terrorist hands. Harmony in our physical world is under siege. Freemasonry is in the line of fire. Can we survive the threat? The only thing we cannot survive is the lack of harmony among Masons. Our future lies in our hands, not in the hands of others. Masonry has a past, but it is not passé. I believe Masonry is the key to our progress and offers grounds for hope. We cannot be invisible in times of crisis. I have always maintained that what is bringing Filipinos to their knees is not the devaluation of the peso, but the devaluation of our moral and spiritual values. Alexander Hamilton wisely said, "Those that stand for nothing, fall for anything." What we need then, are a few good men, true Masonic Soldiers with all the weapons in their Masonic Arsenal to win the battle. It must be beyond doubt that to confront this attack on harmony, Masons must close ranks and draw its defense from its landmarks, tenets and rituals. Let us retreat first to our basic Masonic teachings and gather our strength as we prepare to thwart the imminent danger that lies within and outside our Fraternity. What lies ahead? I can only apply John Kenneth Galbraith's objective assessment of the 1930's global depression to our present situation. "The singular feature was that the worse continued to worsen. What looked one day to be the end proved on the next day to have been only the beginning."

M.W. Bro. Rowan B. Casely was pleased to report from his observations during the previous year that the Craft is in good hands and all Lodges appear to be adhering to the Customs and Usages of the Fraternity. He visited many Lodges and witnessed the conferral of Degrees and the Installation of Officers. Constituent Lodges are doing good work and many new Petitions are being received. The experience was uplifting and rewarding. The Condition of the Craft is strong and healthy. Although total membership dropped slightly in 2009, this appears to be slowing and he expressed the hope that this trend of the last few years can be reversed and the jurisdiction will start to gain in membership.

Masonic Education was an important part of each Official Visit, presented by many excellent program speakers. All of their talks were transferred to an MP3 disc and every Lodge has been provided with a copy.

The financial strength of the Grand Lodge is excellent, finishing the year with a surplus. This strong financial position results partially from the generous volunteerism with the Grand Lodge, namely the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer. The assistance of committees in keeping expenses down was also appreciated. The brethren were also thanked for their support in attending fund raising events to support the operating costs of Grand Lodge.

The Grand Master expressed his appreciation at being able to attend the All Canada Conference. While he found it rewarding and informative, he recommended to the next Grand Master that the cost and benefit of attending the conference be evaluated. In 2006, a change was made to the way this conference was funded and this has meant an increased cost to Grand Lodge. He made a presentation to the Board of General Purposes on this matter for future consideration, suggesting that maybe it is time to redirect the money to provide more financial support to future Grand Masters and made the statement: "The Office of Grand Master should be available to all brethren, not just those who can afford it. Our jurisdiction is too small to do both and I believe supporting our Grand Masters with more financial assistance would be more beneficial to the Craft. Additionally, it would allow many other well qualified Master Masons to strive to be Grand Master. Let not the financial capabilities of a Master Mason become a limiting factor. If a future Grand Master still wishes to attend the All Canada Conference, he could then still then attend as an observer and fund the expense himself."

The Grand Master praised the efforts of Mount Zion Lodge No. 12; King Edward Lodge No. 16, and Drader Coronation Chapter, Order of DeMolay, Moncton, New Brunswick for their singular achievement. "What an accomplishment," he began, "to be able to stand here today and tell you that there is now a Chapter of DeMolay on Prince Edward Island. It is called Barrett's Cross Chapter, located in Kensington, P.E.I. We already have trained 7 advisors and have obligated 8 boys from the Kensington area. The Chapter must be sponsored by Masons, am I am so pleased that Mount Zion Lodge No. 12 has stepped up to the plate and provided sponsorship and a meeting place. I do hope this Grand Lodge will continue to support, morally and financially, DeMolay on Prince Edward Island. They do not ask for a lot, as little as 4 hours of your time each month."

The Grand Master closed his remarks, reminding the brethren of their commitment to benevolence, the provision of scholarships and bursaries, and the importance of visiting with Masonic widows and sick and shut-in Masons. He acknowledged the assistance of all Masons in making his journey as Grand Master possible. He closed the Special Communication in form and brethren departed in peace and harmony.

QUEBEC

The Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Donald C. Ross, reviewing the State of Masonry in the Province of Quebec, reported that the overall condition in the jurisdiction is good. "From time to time, minor conflicts occur within a small number of Lodges due to the unacceptable behavior of a few, creating conflict between the younger and older generations over the issues of authority and influence. Such incidents are limited to those for whom the tenets of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth are mere fancy words, and were quickly resolved. On the membership front, we appear to be enjoying the same renewed interest in Freemasonry as is being reported in every jurisdiction we have visited in the last two years. However, we are still not showing a net overall increase since our losses due to death, suspensions and demits remain high. The good news is that while we may not show positive growth in the short term, based on the average age and enthusiasm of our new members, the long range forecast looks promising. Statistics taken from 1995 to 2005 show that in each of those 11 years, the number of deceased brethren exceeded the number of initiations by a significant margin, from a low of 16% to a high of 88%. These figures have been in reverse for the last three years with initiations exceeding deaths. Hopefully, this is the start of a positive trend in our efforts to counter losses. Now, if we could only start working on reducing demits and suspensions . . ."

The Reports of the D.D.G.M.s of each District revealed cause for much satisfaction and likewise, concern. Conditions vary from District to District and Lodge to Lodge. Those with experienced and knowledgeable secretaries provide flawless records and books and these administrative skills are reflected in the vitality of the Lodge. Attention to protocol, ritual, participation in Master and Wardens Associations, delegating work to newer, younger members as soon and often as possible in order to maintain their interest, community involvement and social activities all produce the obvious positive results. On the downside, lack off attention to these basics in certain Districts is creating significant concern over the current and future health of several Lodges. This is sometimes compounded by conditions that can't be controlled such as ageing and declining membership and loss of economic opportunities in rural areas. By way of contrast, even Lodges in certain large populous areas suffer problems because of a lack of attachment to the community. The one positive constant in many Reports was the observation of the increased amount and improvement in the ritual formed by "young" Masons. Comments ranged from good to excellent. Recommendations to confront these issues include a requirement for training seminars and corresponding manuals for secretaries and lodge officers, including new Worshipful Masters. Presentations should be made on some facet of the ritual, explored from perspectives that are often overlooked, to provoke thought and interest in discerning the perhaps subtle messages of the Masonic story. Two new award programs, implemented by the Masonic Education and Training Committee, directed at new Young Masons on the one hand and all Masons on the other have been developed at the request of the Grand Master and are available in English and French. They provide incentives to both the Entered Apprentices as well as Master Masons to help them develop a desire, early in their Masonic careers, to get involved and stay attached to the Craft. They are existing, proven models from other jurisdictions in the United States and have been tailored to fit our needs. They are called, "The Ashlar Award Program” for young Masons, and “The Master Builder Award” for all Masons. Results from these initiatives will be analyzed annually.

The Communications Committee undertook a major overhaul of the Official website of Grand Lodge. They put into effect, as of June 1, 2008, a system to keep track of potential candidates who make enquiries online and refer them to Lodges who have expressed a desire to receive such applications. 192 candidates, two thirds French, one third English, ranging in age from their early twenties to fifties, were referred to Lodges across the entire jurisdiction. Obviously, the committee cannot vouch for their degree of commitment or motivation to join. As this is a relatively new phenomenon, many Lodges still have to adapt to these “internet” candidates. This is a wake-up call for many of them, and we expect the handling of these applicants will improve with time. At the time this survey was taken, roughly between 10% and 15% had actually been initiated. In order to improve this statistic, the committee recommended that one or several experienced brethren make first contact with them before they are handed an application form. Sending the standard letter with an application form simply will likely not work. Moreover, an acknowledgment of receipt should be sent to the candidate without delay even if the Lodge is in recess.

In closing, the Grand Master reflected on the new and old issues which still confront the Craft. He reminded the brethren that attendance at the Conference of Grand Masters in North America provided an accurate reading of the pulse of the Craft across the nation and that all jurisdictions face mutual challenges and concerns. Sharing ideas and working together will ensure that the theme of the Conference, “Freemasonry, Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow” will become a reality.

SASKATCHEWAN

103rd Annual Communication

Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, June, 2009

3,179 Membership

The Report of the Condition of Freemasonry in Saskatchewan is based on the observations submitted by the D.D.G.M.s of the 11 Districts. A summary would rate their condition as good to fair. The good encompass Lodges who practice the essential elements which keep Masonry alive and well: Effective Officer Training; Masonic Education and Research; Candidate Training; Festive Boards, Fellowship and Entertainment; Visitation; sound Finance and Administration; pride in the condition of Premises, Regalia and Furnishings; participation in District Meetings and attendance at Grand Lodge Communications and a local reputation and acceptance built upon involvement in community and youth activities. There are common concerns: ageing members whom find it difficult to drive at night; the difficulty of maintaining membership levels compounded by de-population in rural areas; the resulting financial distress.

M.W. Bro. Rick Galloway, in his Acceptance Speech, addressed these issues in a clear and positive manner. “Freemasonry in Saskatchewan has reached, I believe, a crucial point in its history. Over the last number of years we have been laboring under the yoke of membership and financial challenges that have caused many to despair. But brethren, do not despair. I am a firm believer that if something is right, it will continue to survive and thrive in spite of difficulties.

Brethren, I believe that any business or organization that does not take a regular inventory can go broke or lose its direction. The Grand Lodge of Saskatchewan is a business – yours and mine. Taking an inventory is a difficult exercise, but it can be tremendously beneficial to help us move forward. We do many things right, but I submit that we can do better in other areas of our business. Toward that end, I am commissioning a special Grand Master’s Committee to complete a full business review of all activities undertaken by or on behalf of our Grand Lodge. The end product will be a set of recommendations and a plan for their implementation – such a plan to be approved by the members of this jurisdiction. I am confident that the end product will be a Grand Lodge organization that is most favorably positioned to advance the cause of Freemasonry in Saskatchewan in the near future. Across the world and here in our province, Freemasonry is enjoying a resurgence of interest – partly in response to the influence of mass media. The biggest challenges we will face will be to be prepared for the ones who come and keep the ones we get. The new generation is looking for positive role models and environments that provide value for their time. They will not tolerate negative attitudes and mediocre activities. They will go elsewhere if that is what they find. Our Masonic Family is large and diverse. But I would remind you that your home Lodge is the bedrock upon which all concordant bodies rest. Without your continued dedication to it the health of this Fraternity will suffer. If it thrives the rest will thrive.

I believe that if we suffer from anything in this jurisdiction, it has been a lack of confidence that we will be able to meet the challenges ahead. I firmly believe that actions follow attitudes – that the realization of success follows having a vision of success. Therefore, my theme this year is simple: “Positive Attitudes — Positive Actions.” Our society today cries out institutions that add value, vitality, health and stability to our communities. Does that not describe the potential presented by the ancient order of Freemasonry? During my term I will continue the legacy of supporting and promoting opportunities for positive public exposure in a variety of ways. Toward that end, therefore in this upcoming year, Masons are granted without Dispensation, the right to wear Masonic regalia and service medals when appearing in public on Masonic related duties as well as at public funerals for Masons, all public civil ceremonies such as Remembrance Day services, community parades, Veteran Days, and at Masonic Church Parades. We must also remember the vital support we must give to DeMolay and Job’s Daughters and our Scholarship and Bursary Programs. The youth are our future.

The benign influence of Freemasonry on our civilization has been undeniable. It would be hard to believe that – an organization that has transcended decades, survived political and religious change and upheaval, persevered through attempts at extermination and that has remained true its basic tenets – would have no place in the future. We have something that our society needs that is valuable beyond all material measure. I do not believe that Freemasonry could ever or would ever succumb to some external threat – only we could destroy it from within. It is what we do on a day to day basis that truly matters. And therefore I say: “Positive Attitudes – Positive Actions. Together we will continue to build Saskatchewan Freemasonry and secure our future.”

M.W. Bro. Charles I. R. Wolrige Gordon of Esslemont, Grand Master, gave a favorable overview of the Condition of Masonry. “I firmly believe that there is much to be positive about the Craft in general and the Grand Lodge of Scotland in particular. In many Lodges, Provinces and Districts I visit I see optimism. Over the last year new Entrants to our Grand Lodge have seen a significant increase, and this is shared by an upsurge in interest in Freemasonry in many countries overseas. I believe Freemasonry is no longer seen by the general public as a somewhat sinister, self-serving organization, but is gaining recognition as being an honorable, respectable, integral part of society. As we become more open about our membership and the Craft, it is up to everyone of us to strive to uphold all the virtues we are taught in the Lodge Room and carry them into our daily lives as we as an organization will be judged by our actions as individuals.”

The Benevolent and Care Committee Report discussed ongoing assistance for the Children’s Hospice Association Scotland, and reaffirmed that it was fitting to augment the donation in 2011 to enable the total support for this Charity to reach the half million pound mark to coincide with the 275th Anniversary of Grand Lodge and the Centenary of the laying of the foundation stone for Freemason's Hall. Careful consideration would be given to appropriate publicity. Masonic Homes in several locations provide superb service and the highest standard of care for many brethren and their families. Scottish Freemasons and the Grand Lodge Benevolent Fund have been very generous in their support for a wide range of worthy projects. These charitable efforts continue despite the harsher economic conditions. Grants from the General Relief Fund were awarded to the Scottish Spina Bifida Association which offers advice, support, and advocacy to those affected by this disease; to the organization Enable Scotland to assist with the ongoing work which supports people with learning difficulties and their families; to the Arts, Music, and community projects; to the British Red Cross Appeal to assist those affected by floods in Pakistan; to the Grand Lodge of Chile to assist with the cost of repairs of Masonic buildings damaged in the earthquake; and to the Grand Master's Appeal for Haiti, a sum in excess of fifty thousand pounds.

Relations with other constitutions remain good. The meeting of European Grand Masters in Paris discussed mutual issues and broached the subject of a, "Masonic EU." To date, there is no consensus. New and revived Grand Lodges from the Eastern Block have begun to establish themselves and be recognized. There are still problems arising with certain Grand Lodges and brethren were advised to continue to exercise caution when visiting overseas Lodges. The committee discussed the recognition of Prince Hall Grand Hall Lodges and they were of the opinion that the procedures adopted by Grand Lodge in reviewing applications for recognition were appropriate in that applications from Prince Hall Grand Lodges were considered individually as received, in the same manner as other jurisdictions. The Grand Master confirmed that he had raised this issue at the Tripartite Meeting and that the Home Grand Lodges, England and Ireland, adopted the same procedure. The status of Hong Kong, Singapore and Malaysia was also discussed, and it was agreed that the Home Grand Lodges held exclusive jurisdiction in these territories and they were therefore not open for other Grand Lodges to form Lodges or operate therein. The Ancient and Masonic Order of the Scarlet Cord applied to the Grand Lodge of Scotland for recognition. Originally set up in the early part of the 20th century, its roots lie in the provision of charity, mutual help and benevolence. In July of 2010, it made history by being the first Masonic Order in the British Isles to be inaugurated at Freemason's Hall, London, in almost seventy five years. The committee considered carefully all the circumstances and were of the unanimous opinion that there were sufficient Masonic Orders working in Scotland and that the introduction of further degrees that have no historical connection to the Scottish Craft would be unnecessary and unhelpful. However, there would be no objection to a member of the Scottish Craft joining that Order overseas if they so wished.

SOUTH DAKOTA

Sioux Falls, South Dakota, June 2009

6,372 Membership

This year's motto of, "Growing the Craft" was chosen by M.W. Bro. Virgil D. Anderson, Grand Master, to indicate a dedication to the improvement of Masonry throughout the year, not only in numbers, but in heightened public awareness, improved communication with members and enhancing the image of Masons and the Fraternity across the entire state. Various strategies were employed. First, the SDCHIP program, begun in 2007 has been expanded to involve over half the constituent Lodges, providing comprehensive identification to over 8,000 children. SDCHIP is probably the single most important Lodge revitalization program ever undertaken by members of the Fraternity. In hosting a SDCHIP event, Masons energize their communities, schools, service clubs and individuals. Community response has been astounding. Local Lodges report candidates have been obtained through publicity and involvement in these events. SDCHIP receives no direct financial support from Grand Lodge and is totally supported by generous donations from individuals, Lodges and community organizations. A major obstacle to receiving increased donations and funding from businesses and foundations is the lack of a charitable status for our Grand Lodge. This year we established the South Dakota Masonic Foundation for the specific purpose of providing a channel by which donations to support SDCHIP and our Scholarship programs can be made.

Improved communication has been a goal for this Masonic year. The Grand Lodge website has been completely overhauled to make it more useable, informative and current. Traffic is steadily improving and an increasing number of men have petitioned for membership after making an initial enquiry through the website. Maintaining the site takes ongoing effort. We must ensure it is accurate and informative for it to retain its value. Lodges are encouraged to post any special events on the calendar and link their newsletters and websites with Grand Lodge.

Membership has declined this year, at a rate that nearly equals the death loss of members. It is distressing to note that the number of Suspensions and Demits are nearly equal to the number of Master Masons raised. This is of primary concern as it continues to erode our ranks. Everyone must help in identifying why men are not finding our Lodges worth supporting and try to get them active again. Adding value to Masonic membership can reverse this trend. Returning Degree conferral to Lodges is a good place to start. Mentoring new members in Ritual performance can get them excited and involved about the Craft. One-day conferrals, although impressive by the numbers raised, do not provide the bonding to the Lodge and the Mentoring these men need. Meetings need to be interesting, valid and make good use of our time. If we fail to capture the interest of a member in six months, he will leave.

The Membership Committee has taken a new direction in appointing a Membership Chairman in each District to assist each Lodge with Membership related issues. A Membership Manual that will contain suggestions and outlines to address this problem is in the beginning stages and will be updated each year with new and expanded ideas. Sadly, we have relied on a mailed notice as sufficient to suspend a brother, without enquiring as to his health, finances or reason for delinquency. Age and the inability to manage ones affairs often combine to put the membership of a brother in the hands one who has no idea of what Masonry has meant to an aging father or relative. Remission of dues is a valuable tool a Lodge can use to assist a brother in need, but personal contact is essential to ensure that it is used wisely.

The Board of Custodians of the Work has been involved in several activities to enable brothers state-wide to become more proficient in the Ritual. They announced that they have completed publication of the Ritual Monitor. Two incentive and recognition programs were adopted. The first recognizes brothers achieving points in Ritual Work by awarding pins for proficiency. Those who earn 300 points are entitled to a Ritualist pin. 700 points earns a Senior Ritualist pin and 1400 points a Master Ritualist pin. The second program involves presenting awards to Lodges for improving their levels of Ritual proficiency. These awards are scored and presented by the Custodian in their respective District.

The Grand Orator's Address reflected on the high and low point society and Masonry has experienced over the last two centuries, its current situation, its future, and concluded on a positive and hopeful note. "There will be a backlash against a society that doesn't conduct itself ethically. This will happen here in the next few years. There is going to be a lot of anger. There will be a million lawsuits. I know. I am a lawyer. Lawsuits are a poor way to enforce morality. What will people look for? They will look for organizations like this that stand on principles, have something solid and don't just talk about honesty and integrity. What is the solution? It is a return to ethics, to reason, to toleration, to respect and to treatment of other human beings as we would be treated ourselves. Everyone in this room knows that this Fraternity is based on doing what is right. I see great things ahead."

All brethren pay the equivalent of $84 Canadian to Grand Lodge and anywhere from $50 to $350 to their own Lodge.

Relations with Government, Churches, Media and the Public in Sweden are good and improving. In some cities, Lodge communities arrange "Open Houses" for the public.

Once a year, all newly elected Worshipful Masters and Chairmen of Lodges of Instruction are gathered for briefing. During recent years the working in the Lodges is to an increasing extent supplemented by seminars.

A total digitalization of the Membership Register of the Order is under way. The Masonic Rite practiced in all Lodges is the Swedish Rite.

Communications: All brethren receive a quarterly magazine, "Frimuraren" issued by the Order- Grand Lodge. The Provincial Grand Lodges issue local magazines. The tendency of local Lodges to issue electronic news letters is increasing. The home page of the Order on internet is constantly being improved, also in the English language.

Charity: The equivalent of approximately $4 million Canadian Dollars was spent on charity, medical research and scholarships during the previous year.

The Grand Lodge of Sweden will celebrate its 275 year Anniversary in 2010.

VERMONT

M.W. Bro. Calvin K. Keyler, Grand Master, delivered a positive Report on the Condition of the Craft and Masonry in general in Vermont. "In last year's Report, I said that we are fast recovering from the disease of apathy and that the Craft was getting healthier every day. A new sense of commitment and enthusiasm was beginning to evolve as we witnessed more Degree work and a greater level of Lodge activities in our communities. Yes, we were still plagued by the problems of low attendance, too many Demits and Suspensions and meager Lodge finances. But armed with many of the programs developed by our newly organized committees, we said things were going to get better. Hard statistics from our new Grand Lodge data base have borne this out. The average age of our Vermont Fraternity has been lowered to between 59 and 61 years; the number of deaths is less than the previous year; the number of brothers raised has increased from 2008. We now have almost 1200 brothers under the age of 48. We are headed in the right direction. But, regardless of the number of new members we raise each year, if we do not provide a quality experience for them, then we will become stagnant. I would like to emphasize the success and attraction of our Fraternity based on bedrock principles through a program called, Return to Your Roots. This will encourage recognition of the basic premises of our institution and our inner core of strengths. With this in mind we also cannot ignore the importance of the social and technological advances in our society and must integrate the evolving means of communication into our interaction with each other and the world at large. I will encourage the use of Facebook and Twitter and the creation of an information sharing site linked with our Grand Lodge website.

Much of our success and progress can be attributed to several re-organized Grand Lodge committees whose work is aimed at producing programs of assistance to our individual Lodges. One of the highlights is an initiative called, "The Proud to Be a Mason Program." It is designed to project to the public a more active and vibrant image of the Craft. We have distributed over 6000 "Proud to Be a Mason" pins to Masons in Vermont and in other jurisdictions throughout the world. Sales of polo shirts and caps imprinted with the logo are at an all time high. A portion of the profit from the sale of each item, to date over $11,500, has been diverted to our longest running Charity Program, designed to assist in recognizing and intervening with troubled youth in our schools; those at risk from alcohol, drug, sexual and other forms of abuse. It is called C.A.R.E, an acronym for Comprehensive Assessment and Recovery Effort. It is one of the oldest running Masonic Student Programs in the nation, established in 1988. The program has the backing of Bro. Jim Douglas, Governor of Vermont, and the support of teachers and administrators from throughout the State. It is a perfect fit for a State requirement called, "Response to Intervention." R.T.I., as it is called, identifies and assists students at risk of academic failure. This, combined with the Vermont Masonic Scholarship Program which placed over $80,000 dollars in the hands of students attending college, demonstrates to the public that Masons are doing their part to assist the young people of Vermont.

I further propose the establishment of an Academy of Education and Masonic Knowledge, based on the recommendation of the Committee on New Directions, and that a committee be appointed to set up the administrative infrastructure. Lodges who have education as a usual portion of their meetings tend to be strong growing Lodges with good leadership. Those who don't, tend to be weak. We are creating a, "Short Paper Competition" modeled on a Masonic Education program of the United Grand Lodge of England, to revitalize our Grand Lodge Speakers Bureau. All of these efforts are done with the goal of chipping away at the apathy that threatens to defeat the momentum of Freemasonry.

Increasing operational expenses and declining revenue resources will challenge us all to keep our doors open. I will sponsor programs to review re-aligning Districts and to consider the development of Masonic centers to provide residence for multiple Masonic tenants in order to dilute overhead costs while allowing each Lodge to maintain the integrity of their Charters.

We have bold, innovative ideas and recommendations to assist failing Lodges. Briefly, our Lodges should be a place of beauty and order, not an eyesore. As many of our members are older and less able-bodied, a team that has professional building related skills should be identified and asked to help out when needed. District and Grand Lodge "SWAT" teams that can fix a leak, rake a lawn, paint a wall or porch, put on a Degree or provide people to fill in for Degree Work, should be available to help at a moments notice. A survey of the brethren to establish the skills and willingness to volunteer needs to be a first step. District Deputies are the best source for identifying Lodges in trouble. Their monthly reports are our impartial eyes.

Finally, I enjoin you to be mindful of our traditions. Let us together cheerfully perform the labour we have ahead of us as members of the Craft, and enjoy the fellowship it will bring to us all as we work on the Temple. We were a vital part of the establishment of this Nation, and that tradition can continue today if that is our desire.”

VIRGINIA

231st Annual Communication

Richmond, Virginia, November, 2009

39,604 Membership

Mission Possible. These two words encapsulated the belief of M.W. Bro. Jeffery Eugene Hodges, Grand Master, in the importance, vision and direction of the Five Year Strategic Plan of the Grand Lodge of Virginia. He summarized the goals and objectives, the key activities implemented in their support and an evaluation of the lessons learned over the last three years. The key objectives are:

1. Strengthen our Masonic cultural norm that behavior is always based on Masonic values and Standards.
2. Develop a tailored program to strengthen the Subordinate Lodges.
3. Develop an effective membership development program that attracts a larger number of high quality candidates.
4. Develop a community outreach program to improve public understanding and appreciation of Masonic values and traditions.
5. Ensure that the D.D.G.M., Grand Lodge Committee and District Team roles are optimized to best support Grand Lodge objectives well as District and subordinate Lodge needs.

Committee activities in support of all objectives included: teaching expected Masonic standards of behavior through mentors and role models; expanding the base knowledge of all Masons by the implementation of a Masonic education program to explain the symbolism of the ritual; the introduction and distribution of the brochure, “Mentoring a New Brother;” the establishment of the Virginia Masonic College; improving the quality of Lodge leadership; defining and documenting standards and expectations for successful Lodge operations; a leadership and mentoring correspondence course for Worshipful Masters and Members; implementing requisite training for effective recruiting and membership retention; expanding public awareness of our values and philanthropic activities; utilizing well known members of our Craft to further this objective. The Public Relations Committee developed a series of brochures to be distributed at various Virginia tourist sites and rest areas advertising Masonic places of interest within the state; implementation of the revised D.D.G.M. nomination process to improve D.D.G.M. selection; providing material titled “Selection Criteria for D.D.G.M. Nominees” to be considered by Lodges in selecting a qualified candidate committed to the responsibility of the task, not just one filling a spot. The Grand Master lauded the success of these initiatives and noted that the level of excitement in the Lodges he visited in 2009 was proof positive that the Fraternity saw merit in what has been introduced. The level of giving, even during a period of economic challenge and participation in Lodge and Grand Lodge functions indicated that the fulfillment of our Obligations, a core value, resounded throughout the Fraternity. But he also reminded the brethren that change and progress is an ongoing process requiring the courage to make hard decisions and that status quo, although a comfortable position to occupy is not the place to be.

“We need to be realistic in managing our Fraternity,” he said, in conclusion. “Freemasonry must always be concerned with the quality of men we bring into this Fraternity, and not concern itself with quantity. If that means that we will need to reduce the size of the Fraternity, streamlining the requirements placed upon the membership, so be it. I want the Craft to grow, but grow well. We work in many areas, none of which we wish to see eliminated, but the truth is that the Fraternity’s resources must equate with the demand placed upon it. We must not be managed by emotion, but by intelligence. Our Lodges must address situations concerning their solvency and viability by direct decision making, not tumbleweed management. We must dedicate ourselves to the stability of our Lodges. We must gain control over the lack of progressive line officers. Near fifty percent failure to achieve progression from Junior Warden to Worshipful Master is a major problem we must address. We must improve our middle management. Proper selection and nomination of the D.D.G.M. can contribute to the good of our Craft. We must focus upon building the Craft more with the trowel than the chisel. Attitudes exist in the ranks that are detrimental to the good of the Fraternity. They include many topics. The money spent by Grand Lodge and the reception of individuals of different ethnicity mark only a few. Prudent men must say enough is enough. Spend more time finding in each other the common good than looking for the individual bad. I will not end as General MacArthur stated and “just fade away,” as I have much left to offer the Fraternity. May you continue to understand the plans God has for you and our gentle Craft, “plans for good and not evil, for a future and hope.”

WASHINGTON

152nd Annual Communication

Spokane Valley, Washington, June, 2009

M.W. Bro. Douglas E. Tucker, Grand Master, in his Address, discussed the theme he adopted for his term of office, “Pass it On,” which is designed to reverse the trend of declining membership. “A study has determined that we are losing approximately 1200, WWII Veterans every day. Reason dictates that we would be experiencing a rapid decline in membership as these brethren passed to the Celestial Lodge above. We, as a Fraternity, need to gather as much information as possible from these experienced brothers. It has been said of death that, “You can’t take it with you.” However, if we don’t talk with our brethren from this era, they will have indeed “taken it all with them.” We must understand the positive measures taken by them which ensured the efficient operation of a Lodge. It then becomes incumbent upon those in positions of leadership to pass that knowledge to the next generation of Masons who will one day assume our stations.

The program for the year deals with membership in a more direct manner. You, as individual brothers, are to duplicate yourselves by enquiring of a worthy, qualified person, if he has ever considered petitioning for membership in Freemasonry, in addition to advising said person that he must petition of his own free will. We need to replace ourselves at least once to reach and maintain a membership level of 20,000, which we did have in the not to distant past. Let us consider another point of view. For many years, critics from within the Craft have accused us of “dumbing down” for the sake of membership, modifying our stringent standards to accommodate any man from any walk of life. It is time to raise the bar to higher standards. This will seem heretical to many. However, Masonry is not for everyone. We are here to make good men better, not make mediocre men good. You are cautioned to ensure that the man you are thinking of contacting will be a good fit for your Lodge and the Craft.”

The Public Relations Committee stressed that although many think that effective PR consists in getting our names in newspapers and on TV— and to a very basic extent it is — today, more than ever, the most effective and powerful method of communicating with our various audiences is through the world wide web. It will be so for decades to come. It is imperative that each Lodge updates its website on a monthly basis. They don’t have to be fancy, only current. Stale material is an immediate turnoff to both our membership and the external public.

The Long Range Planning Committee defined its role as a road map. Where do we plan to go? Where do we plan to be? How to we get there? What resources do we utilize? Grand Lodge has learned the hard lesson that we cannot continue to do the same things we have always done and expect positive change. In the words of a brother, "If Masonry was brought up to date today, it would be out of date tomorrow." We have learned to evolve with changing times, whether we like it or not. We also know that we must guard against anything that would dilute the Craft as a strong, stabilizing force in our changing society. We must to continue to ask the question, "If Masonry fails, what is left as an alternative?" We are in the world, brethren, and we are part of the world, whether we like it or not.

The Leadership Training Committee was tasked with the objectives of working with the various Deputies, Masters, and Lodge Leaders to determine training needs; evaluate the training resources available; provide that training; communicate, promote and support the same within local territories through Regional Workshops. Professional, effective leadership and management is the ultimate goal. They were pleased to report that they were generally successful in accomplishing this aim. The Wardens and Deacons Conference was enthusiastically supported as the best way to learn, share and network. The benefits at a personal and Lodge level were well worth the time, effort, and expense.

The Ritual Committee and the Grand Lecturer took the responsibility of aiding the brethren in improving the Ritual and Protocol. Ritual Workshops were held throughout the jurisdiction in a variety of formats and for the most part, well attended and received. The intent of the program is to reverse the tendency to accept or praise mediocre work. Ritual is a legacy to be passed down and must be elevated and uplifted, not cheapened. Criticism of inadequate work by a brother is tempered by aid and assistance in improvement.

The CHIPS Committee reported that 2008 was another productive year. 4367 children were processed, bringing the four year total to over 16,000. The public has accepted this program as a vital community service. Grand Lodge public safety information distributed at these many civic CHIPS events continues to place Freemasonry in a good light with the population, who are enlightened by the history of our great Fraternity and applaud our efforts to protect their children. To cope with the demand, we are upgrading our equipment to a digital scanning system which combines all data onto a simple CD which can then be printed on standard paper. This system reduces by half, the cost for every child.

The downturn in the economy has forced many changes in the entire country. Grand Lodge is no exception. As times change, so do fundamental requirements. Cuts were implemented at all levels. In spite of these conditions, Grand Lodge managed to stay under budget; quite an achievement under these circumstances. To ensure this continues the Grand Master recommended a $1.00 increase in the per-capita to be paid by every Lodge for every Master Mason.

The Grand Master summarized all these positive measures and initiatives. "They translate into a message. We should not conceal our Masonic light under a bushel, but relate it to others. Be more selective in advancing our membership. Pursue quality rather than quantity. Pass it on."

Distinguished Guests, Brethren All:

It is a great privilege and distinct honour to introduce R.W. Bro. Thomas W. Jackson, Executive Secretary of the World Conference of Grand Lodges as the keynote speaker at this Annual Communication. It is no exaggeration to say that R.W. Bro. Jackson is the most knowledgeable and best informed Mason in the world of Freemasonry today. He has served as presiding officer over most of the Masonic orders in existence in North America and holds honorary membership in Grand Lodges on every continent. He has been accorded honorary Grand Rank in countless Grand Lodges, including our own, where he was made Past Grand Secretary in 2001. We are most fortunate that this world renowned Freemason is with us to share his insight and perspective on Freemasonry today.

Brethren, I give you R.W. Bro. Thomas W. Jackson.

MASONIC EDUCATION-LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

Most Worshipful Grand Master, Grand Lodge Officers, distinguished guests and my brothers; it is a distinct privilege and great pleasure for me to be present with you today and to speak to you on a subject so pertinent to the future of North American Freemasonry.

I consider it a great honor for Most Worshipful Brother Daniels to ask me if I would be present and present this paper to this distinguished Grand Lodge.

I do wish to emphasize that when I speak, I do not speak for any Grand Lodge or any Masonic body. What I express is my opinion based upon almost 50 years as a member and over 40 years as a student of the Freemasonry.

The title for my paper is; Freemasonry-Looking to the Future. This is an interesting subject for me to speak and to write on. You might expect that one as expressive as I have been concerning the lack of Masonic education in American Freemasonry would be well prepared to speak on it but even though I have been critical on our lack of education and strongly supportive of the need for it and even though I have written many papers for Freemasonry I could not recall writing a paper or speaking specifically on the subject of Masonic education in the past.

Around 20 years ago I made the observation at the Northeast Conference of Grand Masters, Deputy Grand Masters and Grand Secretaries that American Freemasons were the most ignorant Freemasons in the world. Some of the Grand Masters present took offense to my remark so I qualified it with the comment that we were not only the most ignorant, we were the most cheap. Before going further, let me clarify that ignorance does not mean stupidity; it means a lack of knowledge.

Much water has flowed under the bridge since that time and many changes have been wrought in North American Freemasonry but I stand here today and make that same observation with no reservation. Indeed, with all my traveling in recent years I've become even more emphatic with that observation. With all of the changes that we have made to North America to alter the image of the craft and to change the direction that we have been traveling, we have done precious little to educate our membership and thus we remain the most ignorant Freemasons in the world and we have done little to alter that fact.

There is no one factor upon which to place the blame for the ongoing decline of the interest in Freemasonry in North America but there can be no question concerning the lack of an educational commitment as being a major contributing factor. How can we possibly expect there to be an interest in an organization in which so few of the membership itself even knows what we are or our purpose. For the last 25 years very few major programs conducted by the leadership in North American Freemasonry have been for other than to increase numbers or to raise monies to give away to charity.

I have had over the past 20 years the great privilege of traveling over much of the world visiting Lodges and Grand Lodges and observing how they operate. I have spoken at meetings, seminars and symposiums in over 30 different countries on Freemasonry.

About 10 years ago I was speaking at a symposium in Argentina that was attended by approximately 500 Argentinean brothers. The symposium was being held over a period of five days and I asked my host what these men did for a living that they can take five days of their time to attend this symposium. Argentina is a large country and it meant traveling for many hundreds and in some cases thousands of miles for some to attend. I can only recall a few of the occupations of the brothers that he pointed out around the room but I do recall two men that he told me were neurosurgeons, one that was a nuclear physicist and one that was the conductor of the Philharmonic Orchestra in Saltzburg, Austria. My friends, he pointed to many brothers that we can only dream of having men like them in our craft in North America today but they were in the craft in our past.

This past September I spoke in Romania where I serve as honorary president of the cultural organization and on the academic committee, on the subject of "Freemasonry, Fraternalism, and the Rise of the Idea of Liberty in Central and Eastern Europe". I spoke for the same Grand Lodge last year at a symposium that presented a series of intellectual discussions relative to Freemasonry and it's involvement in current civil societies. These programs attracted some of the greatest thinking leaders in Eastern Europe. I also was given the privilege of addressing a public forum on the subject of Freemasonry in New Delhi India. These programs were not only for the purpose of educating the membership but also the general public.

I do not mean to imply that there is no place in Freemasonry for we ordinary individuals, indeed one of the primary reasons that Freemasonry became as great as it did is because men from all walks of life are accepted in as equals but I am certainly cognizant of the fact that another of the primary reasons was because it attracted some of the greatest minds that ever lived and even to this day we continue to point with pride to these great men but where are they in North American Freemasonry today?

Last November the World Conference of Regular Masonic Grand Lodges was held in Gabon, Africa. Presidents of four countries were present for that conference. At least seven presidents of African countries are members of Freemasonry, two of them serving as Grand Masters. I attended the consecration of the new Grand Lodge in Mozambique also last year where the Prime Minister was installed as the Grand Master.

Freemasonry continues to be held in high esteem in most countries of the world even though they have had to struggle far beyond what we have ever known to even exist as a fraternity. One glaring feature about the Freemasonry as it is practiced in most of the rest of the world is that their members are required to learn. The acquisition of knowledge as has been universally professed in our craft has not become a lost art as we have made it in North America.

I find nothing in our Freemasonry to compare with the stimulus for intellectual discussion that tends to permeate Freemasonry in most of the world. Sadly, this lack of challenge to our members tends to diminish the intellectual quality for which Freemasonry has been historically known. As a result, we have lost much of our allure to a segment of society that structured and gave Freemasonry its societal image.

Regretfully, today only a relative small percentage of our members truly understand the significance of the purpose of the craft. They may understand the words but words are simply words. Understanding must transcend the words and today this may be the greatest failure on the part of North American Freemasonry. Unless we understand the meaning of the words how can we possibly understand the purpose for which we exist?

My friends, in the name of political correctness today we live in a society where our leaders feel that everyone should have the same as everyone else regardless of initiative or ability. We live in an environment that rewards mediocrity so well that there is little incentive to rise above it. We live in a society that desperately needs a stimulus to excel beyond the norm. We live in a society that needs an infusion of civility and logic into our civil society.

Unfortunately, Freemasonry has bought into this political correctness concept and as a result we have seriously damaged our image in society and reduced our effectiveness to make future contributions. Of what value is an organization that made this world what it is if it has lost its capacity to do so? We need more than ever a leadership with a vision to see beyond self-satisfaction and a dedication to rising above the mediocrity of today's social structure. The future of Freemasonry in North America may very well be dependent upon the leadership's realization that Masonic education is a vital component for our survival. After all, how can we possibly convince society of how significant we are if we ourselves do not even know what we are or were? We live in a society that needs the Freemasonry with the characteristics of our past.

Historians are finally acknowledging the influence that our craft has had on some of the greatest leaders that the world has ever known at a time when we are failing to educate our own membership of this influence. My friends, Freemasonry is an organization that should always pull others up to meet with us not climb down to meet with them.

Freemasonry played a vital role during the age of the Enlightenment as one of the principal organizations in America that provided an enclave wherein great thinking minds from different social strata met and created the concept of a democratic society based upon the structure they found in Masonic lodges. My friends, should you ever doubt the significance of these enclaves, consider that the United States of America itself is the result.

I also learned in Argentina, however, that when a man petitions a Lodge in that jurisdiction he will be investigated for a period of a year and if he passes the investigation he may be entered. Upon being entered, during the next year he will have presented a minimum of three learned papers on Freemasonry to the Lodge and then stand examination to qualify to be crafted. Upon being crafted he will go through the same procedure prior to raising. My brothers, the members in Argentina know more about Freemasonry when they are raised than the vast majority of our members will know in a lifetime about our craft.

This is far more characteristic of the Freemasonry of the world than the Freemasonry that we have known in America over the past 25 to 50 years. In that period of time we have excised from the craft most of the intellectual and philosophical qualities for which it has been known to history and for which it continues to be known in most of world today.

Is it not an incomprehensible phenomenon that an organization of the likes of Freemasonry with the avowed purpose of improving the man and in stimulating a desire for him to seek to acquire knowledge should lack any major system for substantial education like we do here in America? Instead of trying to raise our standards and to improve our image in society we continue to reduce our standards and to lower the requirements to become a mason, and to remain a mason. And what have we accomplished? We have not even slowed the rate of loss in our numbers.

I cannot convince myself that the Freemasons of today are any less intelligent or any less capable than were our brothers in the past but we are definitely more ignorant; more ignorant of our past, more ignorant of our present and definitely more ignorant of our purpose. If it be true, that our brothers of the present day are just as intelligent and just as capable as were the brothers of the past then lack of Masonic education must be a root cause of a declining interest and the responsibility for this failure lies at the feet of the leadership of the craft.

I emphasized in Russia several years ago when addressing the Grand Lodge that we must never forget that Freemasonry did not impact this world by rolling over it by the vast quantity of the membership. It impacted the world through the influence of the quality of its membership. It also, did not impact this world by massive contributions to charitable organizations. One can never buy admiration and respect, it must be earned. Nor did it impact this world by expounding upon its greatness in public venues. We do not need to expound upon how great we are. If we live the philosophy of the craft, the world will know that.

Freemasonry impacted this world by improving good men, by taking one good man at a time and making him a better man and we made him better by infusing into him the realization that he was far more capable than he himself considered possible. We stimulated him to want to be better and incited his intellect to want to become more knowledgeable, to want to become more capable and to want to participate in improving the society in which he lived.

It was then the better man, the more knowledgeable man, the more competent man that impacted the evolution of civil society. Freemasonry became the educational tool that provided an environment wherein men like Washington, Franklin, Wren, Newton, Voltaire (even though he was a member for a short while) and many others like them crafted the ideas that created the ideals of a democratic society. God knows this world needs men like them today and Freemasonry should play a vital role in crafting these men. Fortunately, it continues to do so in many countries.

My brothers, this world is as it is today because Freemasonry lived and Freemasonry lived because it undertook the responsibility of taking the good man and making him a better man by teaching him the precepts and philosophies of Freemasonry through a process of Masonic education. These better men then became the leaders that created modern-day civil society and also the image we live by. It has lived when hundreds of other fraternal organizations have long ago ceased to exist.

We can no longer choose to live in the glory of our past. We can no longer have our survival depend upon the claims of how great we were and point with pride to the greatness of our past brothers. We must now decide what we want to be. If we wish to be an organization that will be remembered in history as one that contributed to the greatness of America but one that slipped away worthy of little note, then we continue the path we are walking today. If we wish to continue the heritage that was granted to us by our past brothers, then we must make the decision that our current membership deserves that heritage and develop programs whereby we educate them concerning that heritage.

In my travels, I have been received by presidents, prime ministers, members of the royal families and even African chiefs. I have had serving as my "caretaker" a pulmonary surgeon and chief of pulmonary medicine at University of São Paulo, Brazil, a man regarded as the greatest surgeon in Greece, members of parliament, the military and other government officials. I have been seated next to the chief justice of the Supreme Court in Italy and the Romanian astronaut that flew on the Russian spacecraft. I have participated along with the president in placing a wreath at O'Higgins tomb in Chile, on the tomb of the unknown soldier under the Arc de Triomphe in Paris and along with the president on the grave of the past president of Gabon. I have helped dedicate a Masonic monument on the national Mall in Valpariso. (This would be comparable to our placing a wreath on the National Mall in Washington, DC). I have addressed senates and military leaderships. I have been interviewed by the press and appeared on numerous television programs in a number of countries.

My friends, please note, none of this was done for me, it was done for what I represent; the Masonic fraternity. That is the type of image we carry in the world outside of North America.

Even as the age of the Renaissance lifted the veil of ignorance from the European world, Freemasonry needs an age of Renaissance in America today to lift the veil of ignorance of our membership.

These young men that are showing an interest today are seeking much more than we are providing. They are on a quest searching for something that society is not providing to them. They are searching for a quality organization far above the mediocrity of present-day society. They are searching for knowledge and a system that will provide it for them. They know more about Freemasonry before they petition a Lodge than have any of their predecessors. What they know, however, is what they have learned about the Freemasonry of the past. It is now up to us to provide for them that for which they search. Each one of them and each one of us wishes to be affiliated with a quality organization and that is what Freemasonry must be.

Freemasonry is being given an opportunity that it may never see again. The writings of Dan Brown along with a couple of movies and television programs have stimulated an interest in Freemasonry that has not been seen for decades, even perhaps for a hundred years or more. This interest has created a potential to re-create an image of Freemasonry that has been lost to America. It will, however, require that the leadership uses it as a potential to improve the quality of the craft and not simply as a recruitment tool to improve the quantity of the craft. History has proven that when quantity is lost it may be regained but if quality is lost it is extremely difficult to ever regain. This re-generated interest in Freemasonry is giving us that opportunity.

I have probably expressed quite clearly my opinion on the subject of Masonic Education: Looking to the Future. This world truly needs an organization based upon a foundation of the philosophical purposes of Freemasonry. If we are deserving of our heritage then we must undertake a program of educating ourselves and our membership. The legacy of our past brethren deserves that respect and respect given to the craft will be proportional to the educational requirements of the craft.

Grand Master, Distinguished Guests, Brethren All:

Introduction

A MASONS JOURNEY

Freemasonry is a fraternity comprised of two integral parts. The external and the internal. The external reflects material things we do and is not only easily explained but just as easily measured. For example: We gave x number of scholarships, amounting to x amount of dollars. We treated x number of patients in one of our clinics or hospitals. We have a Masonic Home caring for our aging members. These are the kinds of material things we do and feel very comfortable discussing with others.

Where we run into difficulty is discussing the internal aspect of Freemasonry. Because the things we feel internally are difficult to explain and even more difficult to measure. We often describe the internal as “esoteric” defined as “a meaning that is understood only by those who have received the necessary instructions or training.” A perfect description of Masonry. What we feel in our hearts can’t always be expressed by our lips.

The material things we do can, and often are, done by others as well. What makes Freemasonry truly unique is the recognition that we are beginning a lifelong quest in search of the better man. Not to be better than someone else but rather to accept the challenge to improve ourselves.

The first commitment in becoming a Mason is to receive our degrees through which the fundamentals of our order are communicated to us. The ritual is the opening to increased knowledge that makes us different from any other fraternity or benevolent society. The ritual helps us to begin: A Mason’s Journey. Let’s talk about what it means to be a Mason.

What was your first encounter with Freemasonry?

What was the impression it left on you?

My first experience with the fraternity happened when I was 11 or 12 years old. My background: growing up on a farm in rural Northern Vermont. One afternoon my Mom, Dad and I were sitting on the front porch and a car stopped in front of the house. A man got out and my Dad said:

“Oh, He’s probably looking for directions, I’ll see if I can help.”

So down he went. They shook hands, talked for a minute, and then I saw them hugging, back-slapping, laughing and thoroughly enjoying each other’s company. When my Dad came back I said to him:

“I didn’t know you knew him.”

My Dad said,

“I don’t.”

I said

“Dad you two were acting like long lost brothers.”

Dad said to me;

“In a way we are, he’s my Masonic Brother.”

From then to now I have never forgotten that statement and the impression it left on me. For it clearly said to me—What is the power of an organization that can take two complete strangers and turn them into instant friends?

The second story I would like to share with you concerns the chartering of the first lodges in Vermont. As you well know, Vermont is a border state with a great deal of interchange between people on both sides of the border.

The Grand Lodge of Vermont was chartered in 1794 but prior to that there were 5 lodges which later came together to form the Grand Lodge. The interesting story is the chartering of those lodges. The first two lodges were chartered by Massachusetts and, even though he was not, at the time, Grand Master, Paul Revere signed the charters as a Grand Lodge Officer. The third lodge chartered in Vermont has a very different history. That lodge’s charter was signed by Sir John Johnson, Provincial Grand Master of the Most Ancient and Honorable Society of Free and Accepted Masons in Canada. So, the first 2 lodges had charters signed by a Patriot and the 3rd lodge had a charter signed by a Loyalist. What makes it even more interesting is the charter Master of Dorchester Lodge was Thomas Chittenden who was also the first Governor of the State of Vermont. As noted in his book Ancient Craft Masonry in Vermont, by Lee Tillotson, PGM:

"This circumstance has been commented upon by Brother R.F. Gould: the English writer, who says; 'This is a little remarkable as showing that neither the Provincial Grand Master of a part of Canada (and who had held a similar position in New York) or the Chief Magistrate of an American Commonwealth (Thomas Chittenden who was named in the charter as first Master of Dorchester Lodge) then believed that the War of Independence had severed the Masonic connection between the parent power and the newly created States on the northern continent.'"

The last story I would like to share with you is very personal to me.

On a chilly, windy afternoon in Quebec I stood at the graveside watching one of the dearest friends I have ever had being laid to rest. In my mind I was thinking about this man, about what he had meant to me, about what we had meant to each other. We shared laughter, friendship, good times, some less than good times, but always caring for each other. Ken loved to tell puns and was very good at it. He even got me to doing it and we both agreed—when you tell a pun a groan is as good as a laugh. I couldn't help thinking as I stood there that had it not been for Freemasonry I would never have known this dear man.

These stories are examples of Freemasonry's great gifts to its members - Friendship, Brotherhood, Camaraderie. These are gifts freely given to all its initiates simply by joining.

When a man knocks at the door of the lodge he enters an individual, an hour later he comes out a brother, with a lodgeroom full of new friends, an entire lodge of brothers and friends, a worldwide organization that will freely and gladly extend its hand to him anywhere he goes. These are marvelous gifts. The question now becomes—since Masonry has given us these considerations, what is expected of us in return?

Let me tell another story. This is a story of two men, both involved in the same event, both men Freemasons, one world famous, one barely known. Paul Revere, a member of Saint Andrew's Lodge in Boston and Robert Newman a member of St. John's Lodge in Boston. Everyone recognizes the name of Paul Revere—Robert Newman far lesser known. Paul Revere was immortalized by the poet Longfellow with the famous lines "One if by land and two if by sea." Robert Newman was the sexton of the old North Church and the one who climbed the stairs into the church steeple, carrying the lanterns to signal Paul Revere. One man became world famous, the other remains barely known.

Yet most of us are more like Robert Newman. We are not famous, we are not well known, and Freemasonry doesn't require us to be. What Freemasonry does require of us is that we be committed to our fraternity. Committed in such a way that we fully understand and are willing to adhere to the only two requirements Freemasonry demands of us.

The first—To strive to be a better man. The second—to earnestly endeavor to learn more about our fraternity.

Striving to be a Better Man

Striving to be a better man is part of a life-long journey or quest that we undertake as Freemasons. Contrary to public opinion, shaped by numerous movies and books, Freemasons are not in search of the Holy Grail or any other treasure. The journey we undertake is seeking that inner light that separates mankind from all other forms of life. Mankind has been blessed with God's greatest gift, the ability to think!

And, a conscience which helps us to determine what is good and what is bad, that still small voice of conscience prodded by the values we accept as Freemasons.

We are further challenged by the four I's. There is,

the I

I think I am;

the I

You think I am;

the I

I really am;

and the I

I ought to be.

Freemasonry's challenge to its members is to try to become the I—I ought to be.

Endeavor to learn more about my fraternity.

Carl Claudy, PGM of the Grand Lodge of the District of Columbia, was one of Freemasonry's most prolific writers. Perhaps his most popular book was titled Old Tiler Talks. Let me share a short reading from his chapter What is Masonry?

"Deep stuff," commented the New Brother.

"Masonry is 'deep stuff,' answered the Old Tiler. 'It's so deep no man has ever found the bottom. Perhaps that is its greatest charm; you can go as far as you like and still not see the limit. The fascination of astronomy is the limitlessness of the field. No telescope has seen to the edge of the universe. The fascination of Masonry is that it has no limits. The human heart has no limit in depth and that which appeals most to the human heart cannot have a limit.'"

"But that makes it so hard to understand!" sighed the New Brother.

Perhaps the sentence—"that makes it so hard to understand"—is what discourages many of us from ever wanting to become more knowledgeable about our fraternity. Fear of the unknown. Fear we are going to look foolish because we don't understand the deeper meaning of Freemasonry. But that attitude need not be so.

Just for example: there is absolutely no reason why every lodge that exists, anywhere on the face of the earth, cannot form its own study group. Every lodge could, should, and ought, to have a copy of Coil's Masonic Encyclopedia. Even with as basic a book as that, one can form a study group. You can meet for breakfast, for lunch, for dinner, in the evening, as a part of a lodge meeting or entirely separate. It's up to the lodge members to determine how they wish to pursue Masonic knowledge. But every Masonic subject you can think of is covered in Coil and it's very, very easy to sit down and discuss a topic. It does not require depth of knowledge, it simply requires interested brothers.

You can go a step further and become part of a Masonic Lodge of Research. Ontario has one of the very best in Heritage Lodge. Stop by their table and talk with them about what membership means.

Some may wish to belong to the Quatuor Coronati Correspondence Circle. This is the premier Research Lodge in the world located in London. They have marvelous, excellent papers on Masonic subjects.

The point I want to make is that Masonic knowledge is easily obtainable. You can subscribe to the Short Talk Bulletin published by the Masonic Service Association, which comes out each month with an article of Masonic interest. We have digests on numerous Masonic subjects. Our website contains valuable Masonic information.

The inquiring, inquisitive mind will always look for ways to increase Masonic knowledge.

Another example: You could assign a brother to research the history of the lodge in the town or city where you are located. In many cases you will find that the lodge is actually older than the town or city of its location. That is a fascinating subject to be conveyed to the local people. The lodge can have an open house inviting friends and neighbors in to share with them where you meet and what we do as Masons and to make them aware of the history of the lodge.

There is an endless array of ways to become more familiar with the fraternity and it is our responsibility as Freemasons to explore every way we can think of and then share that information, not only with our Lodge brothers but with the community. The more people are familiar with who we are and what we do the less chance there will be for any misunderstanding about Freemasonry. Do not ever underestimate the value of a Masonic brother who is knowledgeable about the fraternity because knowledge is our greatest asset!

Some years ago Jasper Ridley wrote a book titled The Freemasons. One of the reviewers was Daniel Mark Epstein. He concluded his review with this comment:

"In short, no lodge of Freemasons could ever be any worse, or any better, than the men who built it."

There you have it: strive to be a better man and endeavor to learn more about our fraternity. The stories I've shared with you are my examples, each brother here has his own story to tell: Why are you a Mason? That's what the questioner wants to hear, in your own words. When you are asked that question answer it with your own story! No one can discuss the fraternity better than we its members.

No Lodge of Masons will ever be any better, or any worse, than the men who build it!

Deputy Grand Master's Thanks to M. W. Bro. Richard Elliot Fletcher, PGM

Most Worshipful, the Grand Master, Distinguished Head Table Quests, Brethren and friends.

It gives me the utmost pleasure to express our gratitude to our guest speaker this evening, M.W. Bro. Richard Fletcher, Past Grand Master, Grand Lodge of Vermont, Past Executive Secretary-Treasurer of the Masonic Service Association of North America.

M.W. Bro. Fletcher, your theme of "What It Means To Be A Mason?" is so very relevant for us as Freemasons in the 21st Century. Our speaker this afternoon, M.W. Bro. Jackson, spoke also about the 'education' of today's (North American) Mason. Combined with our own Grand Master's theme of "Get Wisdom, Get Knowledge, but with all thy Getting, Get Understanding" we really have been challenged to ask how much we really do know about ourselves and our gentle craft.

Sometimes we tend to see masonry manifested in material things, like community fundraisers, charitable projects, and social events. These form an important part of our Masonic lives, but is our Freemasonry driven by such material activities or are these, as you might suggest, the derivatives gained through a deeper understanding of the internal meaning of masonry, only acquired through Masonic education and ultimately Masonic knowledge?

You have spoken to us about why it is important to know more about the deeper meaning of masonry. That seems particularly relevant in the promise we make to every new initiate that we will assist him in becoming a better man. As you infer, M.W. Sir, we need to do this by showing him the way to understanding. and the Lodge room is the place where we begin that Journey. If we fail in our commitment to capitalize on the opportunities we have available to us to educate, inform and thereby acquire knowledge, we are failing not only these new masons, but ourselves. It is that commitment that allows us to reach the "I ought to be" stage in our Masonic Journey.

Your words today brought to mind a statement in the MSA publication called "It's About Time!" and I quote "Masons are unique in their commitment to "virtuous education." By this we mean appreciating Masonry's commitment to life-long learning, self-improvement and personal growth. We are reminded that Masonic identity is distinctive because Masons are men of thought and action." Endquote... M.W. Sir, thank you for prompting us to ask ourselves "What makes a man a Mason?" Indeed, as that report suggested, It's about time for us to take the concept of Masonry off the shelf and put the values of Masonry into action.

M.W. Bro. Fletcher, you have been a loyal friend and supporter of the Grand Lodge of Canada for many years and we have enjoyed your company on many occasions. We recognize and thank you for your many years of Service to the Masonic Service Association. We thank you for your message this evening and we wish you and Judy continued good health and happiness in the future.

SUMMARY REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT DEPUTY GRAND MASTERS 2010 – 2011

Algoma District – 9 Lodges

R.W. Bro. William A. Davis

Overall masonry continues in good shape in Algoma District with four lodges showing increasing memberships primarily due to initiations and distinct support and involvement from many of their active past masters. Three Lodges held successful Friend to Friend Nights this spring, attracting about eleven new members in total.

Lodges continue to be involved within their respective communities. The Masonic Chip Program has continued to evolve with partnerships with School Boards and utilizing existing Sport shows as a vehicle to expand the contact base with community members. Masons continue to volunteer with the Salvation Army at Christmas with their annual kettle drive. Our Freemasons Community Plasma Challenge has resulted in Algoma District being able to report to G.L. 56, 554 plasma donations which most importantly has resulted in over 165,000 Canadians having their personal health conditions improved and even their lives saved. They have now set their sights on reaching 100,000 plasma donations. Finally, as hosts for golf tournaments, fish derbies, Ladies' Nights, old-timers nights, and open Masonic picnics, they continue to showcase Masons in the Public.

After attending many installations and emergent meetings, it is observed that the Lodges are in good hands with young Masons with excellent qualities progressing through the chairs. It should be noted that a group of Past Masters are regularly visiting the rural Lodges providing them support with their installations and degree work. The rural members are continually encouraged to visit other Lodges and experience the high quality of work that is shown there. Unfortunately, they tend not to take advantage of this opportunity. The available protocol and etiquette bulletins that have been issued by Grand Lodge, are regularly placed to good use by the members.

I wish to extend my personal thanks to the Algoma District brethren for their generous support in electing me to serve as their District Deputy Grand Master for this past year. The time and effort that our District Chairmen have put in has been appreciated, especially V.W. Bro. Leo Wayrynen, Co-ordinator of Masonic events, R.W. Bro. Robert Manz, Co-ordinator of the Lodge of Instruction, V.W. Bro. Robert Gillman, Chairman of Lodge Resources, and District Secretary, W. Bro. Don Bergman. Your support, candid input and company travelling the great distances of the District have all contributed to making this an enjoyable experience. I would be remiss if I didn't express my gratitude to my predecessor, R.W. Bro. Marvin Salmi and his District Secretary, V.W. Bro. George Morton for their valued advice and support both prior and subsequent to my installation as the District Deputy.

The challenges that lay before us will be in our approach to long-term planning in preparing ourselves and our lodges and our District to the changing needs of today's members so that we may lead them forward to deal with the new challenges that face masonry.

Algoma East – 8 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Bradley W. Eagleson

Algoma East District covers a large expanse of territory with Elliot Lake to the East, Wawa in the West and Chapleau to the North. The remaining lodges are in Thessalon, Blind River and Sault Ste. Marie (3 lodges). Four of the eight lodges are over 100 years old and in fact Keystone Lodge just celebrated their 125th anniversary this season.

The condition of Masonry in Algoma East District is very good with expansion of membership in many of the lodges due to a good number of new initiates. The more remote lodges have a harder time due to the exodus of young people out of the area and the older age demographics in the Towns. Grand Lodge has continued showing their support to Algoma East District and that was demonstrated at both the 125th anniversary for Keystone Lodge and also the Grand Masters Reception in Thessalon.

All Lodges have seen new members and degree work within the year which maintains the interest of the brethren and officers. No lodge has required assistance in regards to money throughout the year and most are in pretty good shape fiscally. Some dues had to be raised last season but this year has seen no increases. Dymont Lodge had indicated a possible issue last season but has since retained a tenant which will restore their funds. Elliot Lake still stays in the positive even though a high percentage of their members are over 65 years old and are paying senior rates. Their Temple Board is looking into possible modifications that will be a great benefit. Grand Lodge is available for certain aspects of finance and will also make recommendations to each Lodge if required.

Chapleau has continued to see growth and interest amongst the community has really improved due to programs such CHIP and Blood Donor Program.

All Lodges are involved in community events whether it be large events such as Bon Soo Carnival, Elliot Lake Fish Derby, golf tournaments or projects like Robbie Burns Night, Wild Game Dinner, sausage making and breakfasts. These all shed an excellent light on Masonry as a whole and many times they spur interest in men that may want to get involved.

Grand Lodge Programs are utilized throughout the District being somewhat at different levels in each Lodge. Long Range Planning document is in place for the District and many lodges have their own. The proudest and most exciting program this season has been the MasoniChIP Program with it's huge success across the entire District.

What an honour it has been to serve as the Grand Master's representative in Algoma District this past year and to also see the positive work that the local Brethren have put forward this season.

Brant District – 13 Lodges

R.W. Bro. William J. Harris

The Lodges of Brant have had a very busy and active year. There appears to be not only a renewed interest but a great desire for improvement not just in Ritual and protocol, but in all aspects of the Craft throughout the District. This became very evident at the outstanding participation in a L.O.I. held early into the year. We set a record for attendance with over 74 Brethren present. All 13 Lodges were represented as well as 12 of the 13 Masters.

It was exceptionally pleasing to see the quality of questions posed to the instruction team, the enthusiasm and participation from everyone present. This enthusiasm and desire for improvement continued long after this meeting ended and was very evident in the noticeable improvement in Ritual and Protocol throughout the District. Every Lodge has taken great strides in correcting and improving on the work. This bodes well for the newer candidates in the quality of education they are receiving and the enthusiasm, skill and desire their mentors are showing in preparing them to be our future leaders. Because of this genuine desire to mentor and prepare the candidates properly it is most pleasing to see that look of awe and desire to learn more, rather than that look of confusion from not understanding what just happened.

We had the distinct pleasure of welcoming our Grand Master and the Deputy Grand Master to Brant early into the year. The Grand Master held a town hall type meeting and expressed his concerns for the need to perform our Ritual correctly and the need for uniformity as well. This was a very educational evening with great participation from all in attendance, and I believe everyone went home with a little more knowledge and a better understanding .

The Lodges of Brant continue to take a more active part in their communities. There are Monthly brunches, family picnics, fish fries, bbq's ladies nights Corn Fest, Pumpkin Fest, the list continues to grow. This has gone a long way in helping with the long range planning for the various lodges by helping with the finances and more importantly giving the public a better view and understanding of what Masonry truly is, rather than the misconceptions the public has held for so many years. This is very evident in the increased interest and applications for membership.

One of the highlights this year was presenting St. John's No. 35, St. John's No.82 and St. George No. 243 with their corner stone certificates congratulations and continued success.

This has been a most memorable and rewarding year and I know I have taken far more from this experience than I had ever imagined. I have to thank the Lodges of Brant for their support, fellowship but most of all the true and lasting memories and friendships.

Also a vote of thanks to the District secretary, W. Bro. Bob Gibson and the District chairmen for your hard work and dedication to the Brethren of Brant, Your efforts and messages were greatly received.

I am very happy to say that Masonry in Brant is not only thriving but continues to improve, and I urge the Brethren to continue that desire to improve for the sake of our candidates and for the future of Brant and the Craft.

Bruce District – 12 Lodges

R.W. Bro. William V. Blackwell

Bruce District continues to be a vibrant district with members visiting both in Bruce as well as other districts. On average 63 members were present at each official visit with 95 on my last visit. Where communities are growing lodges are growing and in smaller rural areas with no community growth membership numbers remain stable or are in decline. Although financially sound their future is in question as you can only recycle Past Masters so many times.

Bruce District lodges continue to hold many social functions, dinners, rib-fests, steak fry's, widows and ladies nights, curling and golf events for Masons and Non-masons all help to promote Masonry in the community and foster harmony and friendship amongst the brethren. Lodges with candidates continue to share their good fortune and have other lodges assist with degree work.

For the third year in a row Children's Hospital of London was the District Charity with another $4000 being raised and donated. Several MasonicChIP programs were run in our district with lodges helping each other with volunteers.

The highlight for Bruce District has been the formation of the Masonic Display at the Bruce County Museum in Southampton. This idea was started by St. Lawrence Lodge No. 131 to help celebrate their 150th anniversary. It quickly blossomed into a district project with all 12 lodges as well as a few from outside our district assisting. The Grand Master officially opened the display on April 30th followed by his reception that evening. All who took part are to be commended for their diligence in completing the project. It will go a long way in educating the public about Masons and Masonry.

The main challenges facing Bruce District include lodges becoming more proactive in long range planning for their financial and membership futures. Rising gas prices will see fewer members out for visitations and the district will also need to look at ways to help defray costs to the DDGM.

It has been an honor for me to represent the Grand Master in Bruce District and I look forward to helping and assisting future members and DDGM's.

Chatham District – 11 Lodges

R.W. Bro. William P. Vanderveeken

Chatham District achievements are the results of a great District Team. The Chair of the Masonic Chip Project continued to build on the previous year extending the work into the neighbouring District with excellent results. The Chair of the Blood Donor Committee attended several Lodges generating awareness of this important need and increased communication. The Regional Blood Donor Chair attended to assist in the presentation of a certificate recognizing the donation of 100 units. The Chair of the Long Range Planning Committee continues to encourage Lodges to make use of Grand Lodge resources. Long Range Planning and detailed Budget preparation have been promoted to encourage a proactive approach to the future.

The 11 Lodges of the District maintain good work. Leadership is enhanced by past experienced officers and the insight of past Grand Lodge Officers. The initiation of new members in several Lodges has improved morale. However, the issue of active attendance and decline remains a concern. Each Lodge participates in their communities generating positive public opinion. 50 and 25 year pins were presented and unique for this District were two brothers initiated together 50 years ago receiving their award at Lorne Lodge May 2011. A significant initiation at Chatham was a grandson being obligated by his grandfather.

The highlight was the Grand Masters Reception for MW Bro. Raymond S.J. Daniels and Lady Brenda held at Chatham March 18th, 2011. He graciously made time to meet past and present Worshipful Masters and newest members and delivered a well crafted message linked to historic Masons of Chatham area.

My sincere "thanks" to Chatham District for enabling me to be part of the "team."

Eastern District – 16 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Douglas Cameron

Eastern District experienced a number of exceptional events and accomplishments during the 2010 - 2011 Masonic year. The dedication and celebration of Glengarry Highland Lodge's new lodge facilities by Grand Lodge highlighted the beginning of the year. Held in conjunction with the October Especial Communication of Grand Lodge at Ottawa the celebrations took place in an exhibition hall on the Maxville Fairgrounds that now, also house the new lodge rooms.

The Ingleside Masonic Center began an ambitious renovation. The upgrades to this facility, that houses four lodges, will make the building more accessible for use by the public. It is also hoped that the facility will become a district focal points.

With the 2011 International Plowing Match taking place within Eastern District, the Masonic IPM 2011 Planning Committee is assuring that a Masonic display tent will be in place. The usual concordant bodies will be involved and Eastern District is looking forward to welcoming the Masonic Leaders group to the Hawkesbury - Chute a Blondeau area.

The Deputy Grand Master will attend the 150th Anniversary Friendly Brothers Lodge No. 143 in early June to celebrate this lodge's outstanding history.

Eastern District has also maintained the ongoing projects that are of great value to our communities and bind the district together. The post secondary Bursary Fund, support of The Heart and Stoke Foundation and the many lodge endeavours continue to provide focus to the Masonic spirit of charity. The DDGM's Project , a fund raising drive for the hospital foundations in Eastern District , was designed to reach out to the district Masons and comply with Grand Lodge directives, met with success.

While Eastern District as a whole is strong, the same cannot be said of all the lodges in our district. Some are in decline, others are stagnating, some are improving and a number are flourishing. The common thread however, is that all of the lodges have members who sincerely care about the condition of their lodge. It is these men who, if supported will see their lodges into the future and provide that place where good men become better.

Erie District – 8 Lodges

R.W. Bro. John L. Spence

In Erie District I think Masonry is in an upswing with an influx of new, enthusiastic, good candidates and the ability to use the programs like Mentors and Brother to Brother and Friend to Friend successfully is making a difference. It is seen in the quality of work each candidate has done proving his work in the three degrees. Our two struggling lodges which are in the process of amalgamation I think will become very a vibrant lodge with youth added to the equation and prospects on the way. All the lodges in the district do exceptional ritual work and take great pride in it and have showed it throughout my year.

Visibility and presence in the communities of our lodges from the many events, breakfasts, dinners, bicycle helmet donations and Grand Lodge programs held bring the much needed attention saying we are here and we care what's going on in the communities. With the addition of the King Edward Heritage Lodge into our district will bring more light to masonry.

The practice of long range planning is more prevalent in the individual lodges more so than at the district level. A committee was formed a few years ago and their plan put into print but that's as far as it got.

The committees of the district did a great job and must be commended on the hard work they did. The masters and officers of the lodges must also be commended on the excellence of the work and the professionalism they conduct the affairs of their lodges, You make my job easy and very enjoyable. Thank you so much.

I had many highlights during my year the biggest being the opening of King Edward Heritage Lodge and seeing the brothers dream come true in keeping their lodge alive to show case it to others. The fifty year and twenty five year service pin presentations and being able to present a William Mercer Wilson Award to a brother from Windsor district, to greet the new members of our district and welcome them into our fraternity and to see a Past Grand Master install his son.

I have many to thank for this year my Mom and Dad, my wife and sons for all their love and support and to the Rundle and Tatomir families for allowing me the privilege to wear R.W. Bro. Arnold Rundles regalia. The old guys from Central lodge who have past to the Grand Lodge above and present I hope I made you proud. Bert, Roger and Jim for all your advice and help and to all the brethren of Erie District for all your tireless work, support and friendship. You make me feel there will always be masonry in Erie district with the spirit you show. Thank you.

Frontenac District – 16 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Wayne F. Martin

The Masonic Association of Frontenac District continues to fine tune its structure and provide assistance to the District lodges whenever called upon. The Management committee under the leadership of the association president provide invaluable assistance to the District Deputy Grand Master, and have been my most constant supporters. In addition to their committee work, these Brethren also made it to most official visits and I have appreciated having them there.

The last year has seen a number of celebrations of Freemasonry in Frontenac District. Prince of Wales Lodge is celebrating its 150th anniversary, and celebrations of Union Lodge's 200th anniversary will follow in short order.

The District hosted the Grand Senior Warden's degree team in October, the Grand Junior Warden's team visited Maple Leaf Lodge in November, and the Deputy Grand Master in May.

Queens lodge crafted a special celebration to present a 70 year pin to Rt. Hon. Bro. John Matheison which the Grand Master attended. I have been pleased to present a number of 25, 50 and 60 year service pins to members of Frontenac District Lodges. These events have been particularly rewarding, since it gives everyone an opportunity benefit from the wisdom and experience of those long serving members.

We have had our losses as well. The District has celebrated over a dozen Memorial services. We passed some very fine Masons to the Grand Lodge Above – men who were highly respected in the Craft and in their communities.

We've done several things this year to try to enhance the value of Masonry to Masons. My series of after dinner talks on aspects of the value of Masonry was inspired by a conversation at a Management Committee meeting. I don't know if it helped anyone else but researching those talks did a world of good for me.

The District Divine service – held this year at Union Lodge was a joint effort with the Royal Arch. It was a nice service and a good turn-out, it was one of the highlights of the year.

Individual lodges have been innovative in making their lodge meetings more interesting and valuable to their members. Some have started the practice of having members give a short presentation about themselves. Ladies nights, along with involving the widows of over members take place regularly. Rusty Mason night, Lumberjack Lodge, and informal breakfast meetings have all taken place, and generated a lot of lively discussion, and a closer relationship with each other.

Lodges of Frontenac District take part in providing bursaries for students, highway maintenance, community fish fires, roast beef dinners, pancake breakfasts, parades, wreath laying ceremonies, and so much more. I believe that we have been successful at showing our communities that we are more than just a sign on the way into town.

Masonry is alive and well in Frontenac District. We have initiated a good number of eager, enthusiastic and involved young men, and applications continue to come arrive on Secretary's desks.

I would like to personally thank the Masons of Frontenac District for allowing me to serve as the District Deputy Grand Master, and the support they have given me during my term of office.

Georgian North District – 10 Lodges

R.W. Bro. John C. Vessey

Georgian North District consists of 10 Lodges. The Lodges are all sound and although one is being forced out of its rental accommodation money is not a problem and they are actively searching for a new home. There are a number of promising facilities available in the community, most with better facilities and amenities than their current location. The ritual and work for the most is well done but most could use some direction and fine tuning. In a number of cases junior members were seen to doing work including entered apprentices and fellow crafts. In one Lodge Grand Honors was lead by a fellow craft. In this light a District Masonic education team was formed this year with the idea of attending the practices of the various Lodges and working with them on areas of weakness. This team met with some resistance this year but it is hoped that as time goes on they will be more and more accepted and utilized.

Two Lodges of instruction were held in the District, the first on ritual and the second on Grand Lodge programs. The first was well attended with over 75 members in attendance. The second was not quite so well attended but 7 of the 10 Lodges were represented. Visitation is promoted and encouraged with a travelling gavel being utilized. It should be noted that I attempted to attend all Official Visits in Georgian South and on one occasion one Lodge in Georgian North had 16 members in attendance.

Masonic Chip has been delivered to three communities and in one instance the focus was changed and it was delivered to people suffering from Alzheimer's and dementia. This was very well received by the community and was well supported by the hospital.

The theme of my year has been masonry must be fun. Ritual and formality are important but above all it must be enjoyable. At one of my last Official Visits the words Masonry must be fun were repeated back to me by members three times. It has been a fun year and it has been my privilege to be the Grand Master's representative from his Mother district.

Georgian South District – 10 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Douglas W. Hammill

Georgian South District is located approximately 1 hour North of Toronto in the heart of Simcoe County. It is comprised of 10 lodges covering an area from the town of Creemore to the West, Barrie to the East and Tottenham in the South, with a membership of approximately 1140 masons. Many lodges are showing significant increases in regards to new members; however, demits, suspensions, and the G.L.A., level out the equation.

This year, the District Project was in support of the Canadian Paraplegic Association of Ontario. Their primary goal is: To assist persons with spinal cord injuries and other physical disabilities to achieve independence, self-reliance and full community participation. This is accomplished with support from Regional Service Coordinators who assists clients with spinal cord injuries or other physical disabilities in the transition from acute care through rehabilitation and back into the community.

This year 3 Lodges of Instructions were conducted in our area for the benefit of the brethren, in October, P&E / Mechanics of the Work & Grand Lodge Resources and in April, the Secretary's Lodge of Instruction. It was evident the lodges, which attended, benefited greatly from these seminars. In the future I strongly recommend each lodge appoint at least one member to attend the Lodges of Instruction, when in our area and feedback the knowledge gained to their membership at their next regular meeting.

Lodges continue to make commendable efforts in being involved with and part of the community. Community activities range from; tea with the ladies & widow, ladies night, picnics, Hwy clean-up, girl guides, blood donor clinics, motorcycle ride events, pool tournaments, trivia night, MasoniChIP, breakfast with Santa to District Christmas parties & Ladies Night.

There were a number of highlights this year ranging from 25 yr, 50 yr & 60 yr Masonic Pin presentation to Georgian South hosting, on behalf of Georgian North & South, the Grand Master's Reception in February.

I would like to thank W. Bro. Jerrold Sampson, District Secretary/Treasurer and you my brethren for your continued support and I look forward to seeing you in our future travels.

Grey District – 12 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Clifford J. Bricker

Grey District covers a long and narrow portion that runs in a north, south area and generally follows along either highway 10 or highway 6 from Arthur to Owen Sound, including Grand Valley over to Orangeville then North. Most of the Lodges are progressing in their own pace, some better than others. This can be attributed to the use of Grand Lodge Programs or lack there of. Most of the Lodges are of a rural setting and find some of these programs although progressive difficult to implement. As membership shifts from those in their senior years to men that are more youthful this may change.

District functions are as follows Curling Bonspiel, Ladies Night, Golf Tournament and a Divine Service all of which have been well attended. These events are all overseen by a Masters, Past Masters, Wardens and Deacons Association that meets and plans the year ahead plus sponsors the DDGM's favourite Charity. This group also held the Districts Reception for the Most Worshipful the Grand Master in May of 2011 for Grey District.

It has been a pleasure and honour to serve the District a representative of the Grand Master, the Official visits have been well attended. My wife and I plus the District Sec. and his Lady have been invited to numerous events and have enjoyed the reception and friendship of our hosts.

If there is to be any general recommendations that I would make it would be to make sure that the P. And E. Essentials are continued and more of the Brethren are made aware of it's value.

Hamilton District A – 14 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Joseph Marshall

Hamilton District "A" is a dedicated, dynamic and vibrant District. The District is enjoying a resurgence of Masonic interest especially in the younger age group. This I thin could, in a large part, be attributed to the vitality of some of the new Worshipful Masters and the energy which they bring to the Lodges in carrying out their duties. A tally of the present enrollment in the District is 1332, which is a decline of 5.1% from the previous year's enrollment of 1403. I am given to understand that much of this decline could be attributed to suspensions due to delinquent payment of dues. It is encouraging to note that the Trestle boards of the summons of the Lodges show that there are a lot of names awaiting Balloting and degree work.

At this time all of the Official Visits to the Lodges have been completed and there are two Installations remaining to be carried out. In the District Lodges, the Ritual and Floor work is carried out at a high standard in most of the Lodges. This is accomplished because of the Mentors and Instructional committees and the eagerness of all participants, some of whom put in a lot of extra time in this area.

Bursaries on behalf of the Masonic Foundation were presented to seven (7) students of the Davis campus of Sheridan College during my term in office.

There have been seven MasoniChIP clinics held within the District at Oakville, Milton, Campbellville and Burlington with another couple scheduled for later in the year. Fund raising for this project has resulted in $1575.00 being raised.

Blood donors have remained at the same level and the Partners for life is showing some results.

The District web site now hosts all of the issues of P & E Bulletins and so could be accessed by the Brethren in or out of the District. There is also provision made whereby all of the Masters and/or Secretaries could be contacted by using the e-mail address on the website.

Many Masonic long service pins were handed out in the District. They consist of 1 (25) yr., 8 (50) yrs, 5 (60) yrs and 1 (70) yrs pin.

The Spring Divine Service held at the New Westminster Church in Hamilton was a success with 173 attending from the three districts. The Fall Divine Service at Beth Jacob Synagogue in Hamilton was also a success. There were 34 Lodges within the three Districts represented with approximately 350 Brethren and others in attendance.

Interest gained at an Emergency Services Clinic, some Lodges in the District are considering the purchase of CPR/AED defibrillators.

Hamilton District B – 12 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Victor J. Abraham

Hamilton District 'B' has 12 lodges. All lodges are reasonably active, financially sound and the future prospects of masonry in the District looks good. The quality of the ritual is very good and the brethren take pride in their work. Many lodges have incorporated Masonic education in their programs. Many lodges are involved in activities in their communities. It was also a pleasure to see the new members participating actively in the ritual.

At the beginning of the Masonic year, the District adopted six goals and initiatives. All initiatives have substantially met their goals. The District Benevolence Project this year was The Dundas Living Centre which was backed by all lodges in the District. We are hoping to achieve the target before the end of the year. The District Blood Donors Program continues to flourish and by end of March 9,000 units were collected with the help of donors and volunteers from all lodges in the District. There are an increasing number of master masons in the line of officers. Several lodge trestle board show applicants awaiting degrees. Visitation continues to grow in the lodges.

The Spring Divine Service, sponsored by Hamilton District Board of Relief, was held in Beth Jacob Synagogue in May. The District, along with Acacia Lodge No. 61, had a major role in organizing this event. It was very successful and well attended with close to 400 persons in attendance.

Masonry in Hamilton District 'B' continues to move forward, thanks to the enthusiasm and dedication of a number of masons throughout the District and, in particular, Officers and Past Masters of the Lodges.

Hamilton District C – 14 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Ian Criag

Masonry in Hamilton District C is alive and well. We initiated 48 new members but our overall numbers still declined from 1155 to 1146. This is a smaller decrease than previous years and I dare to hope that the coming year will be the watershed and our numbers will increase. Five of our fourteen lodges reported a year over year increase. Meeting attendance averaged 33% with Wardrope Lodge topping the list with an average attendance of 54%. I was impressed as I travelled about the district at the upbeat positive attitude and strong bonds of fellowship displayed.

One of the highlights of the year was a Grand Lodge Recognition Night sponsored by The Lodge of the Ancient Landmarks incorporating Doric held on September 14 in the Scottish Rite Cathedral. The three Hamilton districts A, B, and C took part. The new DDGM's were introduced. Five new Grand Lodge appointees were introduced and regalia presented. Six Cornerstone Lodge certificates were presented, three for Hamilton C, two for Hamilton B and one for Hamilton A. The editor of the Hamilton District C newsletter, The Chronicle, was presented with a Grand Lodge award for the best newsletter in our Grand jurisdiction. Several other presentations were made which completed the evening.

Brother William Lewis of Hugh Murray lodge was presented with the William Mercer Wilson medal by the Grand Master at a special evening held for that purpose and later in the year I had the pleasure of presenting him with a 50 year pin.

This was a turn-around year for our Blood Donor efforts which had been in a steady decline for the past few years. We saw increases in the number of lodges sponsoring clinics, the number of clinics sponsored and a significant increase in donations.

Our district charity project this year was in support of the Mark Preece Family House which provides support for families of patients in the Hamilton hospitals. The lodges provided generous support for the project and just as important we were able to increase awareness of this fine facility within our community.

London East District – 14 Lodges

R.W. Bro. J. Geoffrey Clays

London East District is in good shape as far as the quality of Masonic Ritual even though there are lodges that struggle. The fourteen lodges consist of both city lodges and country lodges with distinct differences. With the Protocol and Etiquette issues being circulated and a Lodge of Instruction for the Worshipful Masters held in January, there have been improvements shown over the year.

There have been over thirty new masons join the craft since the beginning of September with eight more ready to join. A few lodges are in good financial shape with most of the rest doing alright.

While most lodges think they are not using any Grand Lodge programs, they are unofficially using some form of Friend to Friend or Brother to Brother in a modified form. The Entered Apprentice manual and the Fellow Craft manual were two excellent tools to assist the new Entered Apprentice and Fellow Craft when they were available.

There are many different ways to show masonry to the community as London East did with the Veteran's Memorial Parkway Clean-Up program this year. There are several parades that have Masonic Floats in them but we need to encourage more masons, especially younger ones, to participate to show strength and vitality.

There was a good turnout at the Remembrance Day Services in Byron, Thorndale, Thamesford, Dorchester and London even though at several of the services Regalia was not worn. Some of the lodges hold a Divine Service as well as the District Divine Service.

There were two Official Visits to the G. Fred Kingsmill Chapter of Demolay that were fairly well attended. I also attended both Installations in January and June. It is great to see these young people do their ritual. Masons could learn a lot from them.

In the last several years there have been Long Range Planning Seminars held with reasonable attendance, but good intentions do not seem to get far. While most lodges or masters have concern for the future, without written plans, they are easily sidelined. I suggest Grand Lodge request at least a Five Year Plan from each lodge.

London West District – 13 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Steven T. Pocock

I think it fairly safe to say that the Condition of Masonry in the London West District is practically unchanged from when I joined twenty eight years ago. Hopefully, the recent formation and introduction of a permanent Long Range Planning Committee will enable lodges in particular and the District in general to address what many have considered ongoing problems.

All thanks must now go to R.W. Bro. Lloyd Hopkins of St. Paul's No. 107 for the immense amount of work he and his committee have done in forming a permanent Long Range Planning Resource Committee for the London West District; it should also be noted that this is the first committee of its kind in the District in living memory. Using Section 12 of the Lodge Resources Manual as a guide the committee, composed of Brethren from six different lodges, identified a number of initiatives that could be implemented that would promote real positive growth within the District.

Further meetings have produced a mandate that includes not only assistance to the individual lodges but to the District Deputy Grand Master and to the District in its entirety.

'Key Result Areas' identified are as follows: (a) District Masonic Promotion and Community Outreach; (b) District Lodge of Instruction; (c) District Administration and Fiscal Planning; and (d) District Computer Resources. The purpose of this Committee is to act as a resource to any lodge or lodges who need assistance in any of the key areas noted.

'Key' Brethren of the District can be called on for their respective expertise to aid and assist the Committee by forming discrete sub-committees when requested; the Committee, therefore, acts in an advisory capacity only.

To restore Freemasonry to its true light, lodges in the London West District now have the exciting opportunity of requesting ready assistance from the Long Range Planning Resource Committee to assist them in all facets of the Craft whether it be degree work, lodge finances, community initiatives or the positive implementation of Grand Lodge programs.

I sincerely hope that Grand Lodge approves of this new and positive direction that this District is taking; it has been long overdue.

R.W. Bro. Michael Grima

Apart from Official Visits, I have made many fraternal visits to all lodges in this District, have attended all Initiations, and on behalf of the Grand Master continued our tradition of presenting each Candidate with a Masonic Lapel Pin, congratulated them on becoming a member of our Fraternity and encouraged them, with the assistance of their Sponsors and Mentors, to keep researching the true meaning of Freemasonry.

The strong and vibrant lodges are attracting new members at a steady pace, while others have not added to their numbers except by affiliation.

The Grand Lodge Programmes are applied by only some of the lodges, and it can be seen that those using the Programmes as they were intended, have reaped the benefits, by adding to their numbers and keeping their lodges more vibrant and active in the community.

My theme this year is Masonic Education + Visitation = Retention. On my Official Visits and in my addresses to the members I have always promoted Visitation and have asked each W. Master to include Masonic Education as part of their meetings. Visitation is an important privilege which will enable us to broaden our horizons as we meet and partake with the intention of Freemasonry, to be happy ourselves and to communicate that happiness to others.

Within this District I have one Lodge which due to their location, are unable to attract new and younger members, and the impact is that they must recycle Past Masters through the Chairs. Without Degree work to perform, the brethren will easily become board, especially if no stimulating or entertaining Masonic Education is given resulting in poor or low attendance.

In another Lodge there are (or were) a small number of members who were constantly disturbing the harmony of the Lodge, and, by their conduct outside the Lodge, bringing a bad light onto the Fraternity. Thus causing brethren who take the Apron Charge in the First Degree earnestly, to withdraw and not attend meetings. This matter is presently being dealt with by Grand Lodge.

Niagara District A – 15 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Paul W. Shaver

Masonry is alive and well in Niagara "A" District. A good number of our lodges have steady to excellent attendance to most monthly meetings. We like most districts have a couple of lodges that are a concern in terms of long term viability, but even these lodges seem to have had a sudden spike in applications and affiliations. Hopefully, change is on the horizon. We have one lodge that has seen a real resurrection. Close to going dark not so long ago, this lodge is now once again a vibrant, growing concern. They stepped out of the box, threw away the old "This is how we have always done it" and brought in a "This is how we are going to be interesting going forward" mentality. They quickly brought the old guard on side and the applications keep flowing in. Not only are they getting new members, they are keeping them and they are lining up to progress through the chairs. Similar variations of this seem to be spreading around the district and there is definitely a light on the horizon even for our most critical lodge.

These new members are young and well informed on what and who we are, long before they apply. They are hungry to belong and their mental condition is favorable for us to lead them in any direction we wish to take them at their initiation. We can do a good job of it through good ritual work, protocol, getting back to the basics of Masonry and give them just enough to keep them hungry to learn more, or go the same old route and disappoint them on that first night, only to have them go off to some other fraternity or social club because we failed to give them what is implicitly promised. The choice is ours.

Allowing these new members to spread their wings, take calculated risks and change our lodge directions is not only the right thing to do, I strongly believe that the future of our craft depends upon it. Will they fall and scrape their knees and elbows along the way? Of course they will, just as we did to make things great back in our days. Give support and advise, when asked, but it is time for the old guard to step aside and let the new guys shine on their own.

Observing this type of change creep in this past couple of years is exiting. I have always been proud to be a Mason, but never so proud as I am today to be a part of this great district.

Niagara District B – 11 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Gary R. Hayward

Despite many of our 11 Lodges welcoming new members into the Craft our actual membership remains virtually unchanged from a year ago.

Generally the quality of the Work has been good to excellent. All Lodges and those participating in Degree work are putting forth the effort and the result has been an improvement in our proficiency. Again our Installations in most cases are done well to excellent, but there is room for improvement in this area. Some Lodges did benefit from viewing the Tips on The Ceremony of Installation and Investiture provided on our District web-site. I must thank the Grand Lodge L.O.I. Team for holding a special session in Niagara Falls held in conjunction with our Brethren from Niagara A in which almost 70 brethren enjoyed a morning of instruction and fellowship.

Protocol has been properly observed and I have noticed more of our Lodges utilizing materials from the Lodge Resource Manual and P&E Essentials to assist them with introductions and banquet hall protocol.

It would appear more Lodges are realizing the benefits of Grand Lodge Programmes such as the Mentors, Friend to Friend, Cornerstone Project, elements of the B2B such as Rusty Masons Nights and most Lodges are offering Masonic Education at every meeting. Combined with social events such as Chili Cook Offs, Wild Game Dinners, Fish Fry's, Theatre Nights and Ladies Nights to name a few are also serving to keep the membership engaged.

In the Community many Lodges continue to be active sponsoring Blood Donor Clinics and participating in Remembrance Day Parades and Ceremonies. We hope to participate in the Relay for Life with proceeds going to my charity of choice the Canadian Cancer Society. Thanks to St. Marks Lodge No. 105 for donating the proceeds of their golf tournament to the Society. Our Divine Service was very well attended presided by our District Chaplain V.W. Bro. George Schmidt. Of special note thanks to the efforts of our MasoniChIP Chairman Bro. George Sider, Myrtle Lodge No. 337 will be hosting Niagara B District's first event with two more planned by the end of the year involving three Lodges.

Certainly a highlight of the year occurred in August as I had the pleasure of accompanying the Brethren of Palmer Lodge No.372 to Union Lodge No.38 in Kingston Tennessee where they exemplified an E.A. Degree in excellent fashion in front of 371 Masons from 166 Lodges, 20 States and three Countries. It was truly awe inspiring and a great weekend of fellowship.

I have had the privilege of participating in 17 Pin Presentations honoring members for 25, 50, and 60 years of service as well as one Lewis Jewel Presentation.

As we combine the enthusiasm and energy of our newer brethren with the knowledge and wisdom of our senior members I believe Masonry is about to embark on an exciting renaissance here in Niagara South or Niagara B District.

I must thank all the brethren of the District for the warm reception and the generous hospitality I have received this year and for making this an experience I will treasure always.

Nipissing East District – 7 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Thomas D. McParland

The work of the officers and members has been very good to average in most Lodges. My appointed Chairman for Education has followed me on different Lodge nights and presented education on proper protocol in Lodge as well as reading the latest book of the work and letting members know they are to follow as closely as it is written.

I have written to our Deputy Grand Master to let him know I appreciate the work of the protocol and etiquette team, as we have used the newsletter on a number of occasions this past year for education purposes.

All Lodges in our District have their finances in order with some Lodges having very good assets set aside for future years where there may be short falls in revenue. Of the seven Lodges, 6 have been able to attract new members during my term of office, with Mattawa Lodge the only one not to have any new candidates and only 31 members. My main concern is for Mattawa Lodge to get and retain some new members, and for upcoming officers to improve the work in the Lodge. Silver Lodge did initiate one new member and will need some new members in the near future as their Lodge is run by Past Grand Lodge Officers and Past Masters.

The Friend to Friend and Brother to Brother nights hosted by Nipissing Lodge were well received and 3 new applications were received for membership from the Brother to Brother night. Nipissing East has hosted 4 MasoniChIP programmes with 3 more scheduled. Thanks to R.W. Bro. Rob. Fleming, area Chairman for all his help in getting our District going. Temiskaming Lodge is hosting a Lodge of Instruction in September for the District, and will be promoted in the upcoming summons for all Lodges to send delegates.

North Huron District – 11 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Wilbert A. Freeman

The condition of Masonry in North Huron Masonic District as variable during the year 2010-2011, as one Lodge received a few applications, a few received one or two and some haven't received any for four or five years. The success of Northern Light Lodge No. 93, the past few years must be attributed to the expansion of the Bruce Nuclear Power Plant at Tiverton. It was nice to see that other Lodges in the District, were helping doing the Fellow Craft and Master Mason Degree when they had no candidates of their own.

North Huron consists of eleven Lodges, I had the opportunity to visit all the Lodges at least twice, and witness most of the Entered Apprentice degrees and presented one 50 year pin. Generally the degree work can be considered as good. Most Lodges are struggling with Masonic Protocol and Etiquette, but are improving as old habits are hard to change in a short time.

We had two main events held in the District this year. The Curling Bonspeil was held at Wingham Curling Club with both draws full.

The Annual Divine Service was held in Fordwich United Church with Rev. W. Bro. Jeff Hawkins presenting the Message. The Lodge of Instruction was held in South Huron this year, with half of the Lodges in North Huron represented.

North Huron District continues to be a strong supporter of the Canadian Blood Services with 7 lodges sponsoring or cosponsoring the clinic. The Masonic Chip Program is continuing to grow. There were three held and the fourth is being planned later this year.

On a sadder note, St. John's Lodge No. 284 after struggling, has started to look to amalgamation with another Lodge. This was necessary because of there being too few members being able to get out the meetings.

In conclusion, I would like to thank the Brethren of North Huron District for the opportunity and putting faith in me as their representative to Grand Lodge, and I hope I have lived up to your expectation.

Ontario District – 15 Lodges

R.W. Bro. James A. Warne

The 15 lodges in Ontario District have from 50 plus to around 200 members, an average of 120 members per lodge. Visitation from each can be in the range of tremendous to abysmal. Support and attendance for district events is usually very good. All of our lodges are take great pride in the ritual, participation often introduced early to their E.A. and F.C. The decline of membership, numerically and in interest during the past decade appears to be at an end. Many new members are intent not only to learn work but also to advance through the chairs.

The common belief throughout our district is that our ritual work is tremendous, and that more effort must be afforded to 'Protocol and Etiquette'. Ontario District may not have achieved perfection, however our present time and future appears to be quite bright.

The 2 Police degrees of our past Masonic year have been an inspiration to all, especially newer members. By-law changes of our district association has created more participation above the lodge level. All Master Masons can now attend and the days of meeting have been altered as to not conflict with Colborne No. 91 and The Oshawa Shrine Club. Also great successes have occurred in the Port Hope area with their recently formed DeMolay Chapter and bag piping classes for local youth. This can only bode well for future membership of area youth.

Attendance and participation of district programmes saw great successes this past year, to name a few: (Masonic Education) three occasions to participate, educate and improve. (Blood Donors) 4253 pints of blood collected thus far. (MasoniChIP) many children can now be identified if the need arises. Also the many Friend to Friend Breakfasts held throughout the district are a positive stimulant for membership. This programme make take some time to develop, I assure the brethren of it's eventual success.

Our District Project (2415) during this past year is SickKids Hospital Cure for Cancer, so far the contributions are perhaps $ 10 000.00, and I anticipate more amounts as the Masonic year end approaches. Not only have lodges donated to this worthy cause, also individuals and our Ontario District Gala. Our Ontario District Gala donates after costs to the charity of that year, this year the monies collected amounted to $ 3 200.00. On behalf of the children, I thank all for their great commitment to this noble cause.

Of a more sorrowful nature 16 Masonic Services have been held. And on a note of optimism, appearances are that average age of membership in Ontario District may be decreasing. Regarding the financial health of our district lodges most are in great standing, some must make revues and considerations. More concordant bodies will benefit the number of Temple buildings located in Ontario District, perhaps even fewer temples shared by nearby lodges.

Through trying times of the past decade many of our district Masons and especially Past Masters have exhibited total devotion to the Craft. The future of this district appears to be extremely bright.

My sincere thanks to Grand Lodge, Ontario District, the Masters, Brethren and Chairmen for the dignities and courtesies extended to the District Secretary and myself during the course of events this year.

It has been a tremendous honour for me to represent the Grand Master M. W. Raymond S. J. Daniels within this fine district.

Ottawa District 1 – 15 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Leslie R. Richardson

This was the first time that ten Worshipful Masters held that office. Each was extremely well organized and very skilled in our ritual. They will be the principal columns supporting their lodges and the district in the future. The five Worshipful masters that had previously held that office did so because of vacancies in their lodges' lines of officers. Their dedication to the Craft and to their lodges should never be disputed.

This year, the lodges reported 78 Initiations and 13 Affiliations. Every lodge reported two or more Initiations; one reported nine Initiations and three Affiliations; three lodges reported eight Initiations. Only nine Past Masters sat in the senior line-officers' chairs. Nine lodges did not have any Past Masters filling those offices: two lodges reported having just one Past Master in those positions. I visited each lodge at least four times and observed 31 Masonic Degrees. Protocol during my Official Visits was near perfect, though it was less-so during other visits to some lodges.

This year, the district adopted and began implementing a new Long Range Plan. Six lodges reported that they did not have a long range plan: five lodges did not have an annual budget. Regretfully several lodges appear to pay lip service to their plans and budgets. While all fifteen lodges reported that they were financially sound; their dues structure, uncollectible dues, numbers of life members, and building costs suggested some will not remain that way in the future.

One half of the lodges did not use Grand Lodge Brother-to-Brother or Friend-to-Friend programs; one quarter did not use Grand Lodge Mentorship programs. Only three lodges held Friend-to-Friend events this year, only two held Brother-to-Brother events. Most lodges rely upon officers, sponsors and senior members for mentor ship of new Masons. Therefore, the district held several Mentor ship and "new-member" Brother-to-Brother events; and , education, instruction and protocol and etiquette seminars.

Form DDGML1 needs to be reworked. While some of its questions should raise concern about the manner in which lodges operate, too often, the philosophy of "that's just the way we have always done things" continues to prevail.

Ottawa District 2 – 14 Lodges

R.W. Bro. John M. Forster

We made progress on the condition of Masonry through Lodges of Instruction and practice. Our charitable project raised over $9000.

Membership is still falling: deaths and demissions exceed initiations and affiliations. The proportion of regularly attending members is declining. Average attendance in proportion to total membership is low.

Community profile is good due to:

- Improved openness of the Craft in general
- Favorable publicity surrounding recent literary works
- 3 visits by our Grand Master and Grand Lodge officers
- Influx of energetic young men into Craft
- District Divine services
- Active blood donor program with lodges participating as volunteers and clinic promoters
- MasoniChIP program

Insufficient attention paid to long range planning. Many lodges don't have a long-range plan or committee.

Temple corporations administer several of the Lodge buildings: this is "off limits" as a subject for Lodge or district reports. Given that some temple corporations are in difficult financial straits, this is alarming. Little or no attention is paid to it at this level. This is a serious concern.

New initiatives. (1) Rough Ashlar committee: specifically to benefit newer Masons. It held a successful workshop in conjunction with a FtoF workshop and introduction of a Cornerstone project. Interaction between the groups was useful and led to initiatives by the younger masons, a leadership group, a car rally and an educational course specifically designed for newer Masons. (2) District Assistance committee is a central source of help to Lodges needing it.

After a busy, enjoyable and exciting year I've found many strengths in Masonry as practiced in Ottawa District 2. Chief among these are the impact of new masons, their energy and enthusiasm for the Craft and the willingness of many to promote and be involved in our mission. There are a number of serious dangers that lie ahead. These are:

- The impact on Masonry of the financial outlook for Masonic premises.
- The impact of a lack of awareness of the crucial need for long range planning.
- Potential failure of communications between recent and established masons.

Peterborough District – 11 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Gary T. Ballard

This year I have been able to visit each lodge of the District at least three times: an Official Visit, a fraternal visit, and for Installation of the Lodge W.M. and investiture of officers. I am pleased to report that I was received with proper decorum and with, what I felt, enthusiasm and friendship on part of the brethren present. I have noted there is an increase reliance on memory and less use of open books of the work on the part of the officers and brethren in lodges although the Worshipful Masters seemed to rely on the book more as a prop rather than something he needed to use.

There is a strong core of enthusiastic Masons in Peterborough District but an even greater number of Masons missing in action at regular and special events in this District. This apathy has shown up in attendance at Official Visits, support for the District Project, and special degree teams who come to perform degrees in lodges. While Grand Lodge programs are available, it is up to brethren in the lodges to step up and implement them. This seems to be lacking as brethren look for someone else to dig in and do the work necessary to bring missing brethren back to lodge.

I find that many of the lodges are becoming insular in that the brethren of the lodge are opting to not visit other lodges for special occasions even as they are disappointed when there are fewer visitors coming to their special event. The solution is obvious but again they want someone else to do something about it.

This year Peterborough District was fortunate in having few Masonic funerals to perform and an increasing number of initiations.

Prince Edward District – 13 Lodges

R.W. Bro. J. Grant Brummell

There is no doubt in my mind that Masonry in Prince Edward District is alive and well. Over the past year, the D.D.G.M. has been blessed with a very strong following throughout the District. The Official visits to the Lodges of the District have been well attended by not only the Masters of the District, but also by the District Chairmen and Masons in general. To date, the installation ceremonies have also been well attended, and the regular monthly meetings are also well attended, with a couple of exceptions.

The District has two Lodges which should be taking a long hard look at amalgamating with a stronger Lodge. Stirling Lodge is struggling to maintain a very old building, the cost of which is pulling them down. Trent Lodge has already sold their building, and are meeting in Frankford, at Franck Lodge's facility, but are struggling to get members out to their meetings. Both of these Lodges are within close proximity to Franck Lodge, and an amalgamation of the three would go a long ways towards creating one very strong Lodge. Madoc/Marmora/Tweed Lodge is a prime example of how amalgamation can work for the betterment of the Craft.

The quality and the level of degree work being put on throughout the District has been outstanding. The District has been entertained by 42 new applicants, and this appears to be a sign of the times, with a resurgence in general interest in the Craft.

Two Brethren from the District, Bro. Jack Hellberg and Bro. Peter Molenkamp have worked diligently at regenerating new life into the District Web Site, which I am proud to say that they have done an outstanding job at getting us back on line. The web site is up and running and seeing a lot of use.

I have had the distinct honour of presenting several long service pins within the District ( Fifty and Twenty five year pins), all of which were graciously received with a great deal of honour and humility.

The District Divine service was well attended, with Padre Sid Horne sharing the service with Reverend Norm Long, from the Frankford United Church. At the Divine Service, it was announced that Bro. (Padre) Sid Horne who is a past recipient of the William Mercer Wilson Medal has been given an honorary Doctorate of Divinity from the College of Emmanuel and St. Chad in Saskatoon, the same school he graduated from in 1950. When addressing the Padre in Lodge now, it's Bro. Rev. Doctor Sid Horne.

The Past Masters, Masters, & Wardens Association held a Ladies evening in February, consisting of a fine dinner combined with a wine tasting demonstration put on by one of the winerys from Prince Edward County, which was very well attended.

Franck Lodge celebrated their 150th anniversary on November 13th, 2010, with Most Worshipful Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels and other Grand Lodge Officers in attendance for the ceremony.

Prince Edward Lodge is celebrating their bicentennial, and have scheduled several events throughout the Masonic year to celebrate the auspicious event. The Master and the Officers of Prince Edward Lodge are to be commended for their efforts.

St. Lawrence District – 17 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Cameron D. Minor

The purpose of my term has been to promote the Grand Master's theme, "Get Knowledge; get Wisdom; but with all thy getting, get Understanding" and the District Charity chosen is Palliative Care in the hospices at Brockville, Kemptville and Perth.

Significant, well-attended and appreciated District events of the year have been:

- The Grand Lodge of Instruction at St. Francis Lodge No. 24, Smiths Falls, directed by M.W. Bro. Donald H. Mumby, Grand Custodian.
- The District Divine Service at Merrickville.
- The Annual District Curling Bonspiel at Brockville.
- The District Masonic Quiz at True Briton's Lodge No. 14, Perth.
- The Frontenac - St. Lawrence Tri-Lodge Ladies Night at Elgin.
- The Grand Master's Reception at Roebuck.
- The Big River Cruise for Palliative Care.
- The District Golf Tournament at Forthton.
- The Twenty-Five(5), Fifty(8) and Sixty Year(2) Pin Presentations.
- The 11th Annual Quarry Lodge at Spencerville

I have been impressed with Masonry in the District: The work ranges from 'good' to 'very good' to 'excellent'; protocol and etiquette have ranged from 'very acceptable' to 'exemplary'. Membership is 'holding' at approximately 1,256 with 27% average attendance. All Lodges are financially sound. A few Lodges have contemplated closure or amalgamation but the will to survive is palpable and they have come back from the brink with new candidates and renewed interest. It is realized survival depends on new members and F2F and B2B have been utilized with success. Fundamentally, though, there is a renewed appreciation of the bonds of Fraternity.

The District Lodges are involved in the community. Benevolence is dispensed to the needy; food banks are supported; post-secondary bursaries are awarded. Brethren are leaders in municipal government, on church boards, agricultural fair boards, local hospice boards, as members of service clubs, as organizers of community events, and as members of the Volunteer Firemen. Masons are known as those who serve others, parade annually to the local church (6), assist at Blood Donor Clinics, operate Child Identification Clinics, lay a wreath on Remembrance Day and attend the Masonic Memorial Services (16) in the local funeral home.

Long range planning has been dormant at the District level; it is an integral part of some Lodges but most rely on past experience and an annual forecast; I only have one suggestion for St. Lawrence District as my term ends: Put the wise, the experienced and the imaginative on a re-constituted District Long Range Planning Committee and let them go from there.

It has been a great honour representing the Grand Master, M.W. Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels, and I am grateful to Merrickville Lodge No. 55 and the St. Lawrence District for this wonderful experience. All the very best to those who follow on this Masonic journey.

St. Thomas District – 10 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Rick Howe

Freemasonry in St. Thomas District is in good shape. The Lodges have several new masters for the first time. The chairs in several Lodges in the District have also have new members. There are only 4 Lodges in the District that have Past Masters sitting in the chair of King Solomon. We have had 16 E.A. Degrees in our District to date, with 2 pending. I presented all the new candidates with the square and compass pins.

The work in all the lodges was done satisfactorily. Most Lodges performed their own work with the exception of a Lodge having to ask twice for help from outside of their Lodge. St. Thomas District lost 16 Brethren to the Grand Lodge Above. We will cherish them in our hearts.

The Lodges in the District are financially sound, with all Lodges owning their own building or portion there of.

We had several events in the District. There was the Grand Lodge Tent at the International Ploughing Match, which gave great exposure of Freemasonry to the public. This included having the pleasure of the Grand Master at the ploughing match and then a meet and greet with the Grand Master and his entourage at Pleasant Valley Golf Club. November the 19th we had the pleasure of a return visit by the Grand Master at the St. Thomas District Grand Masters Reception. On May the 13th a very successful fish fry was held in the District.

My Official Visits were well attended by the District chairman as well as the brethren with their numbers averaging 50 per visit. I also had the pleasure of visiting several other Districts where I was well received and will remember their friendship forever.

The Mentor, Friend to Friend program is working well in the District. The Mentor, Friend to Friend chairman is having a Friend to Friend evening June 11th, 2011 with 11 prospective candidates. If this is a success we will continue with this endeavour for coming years. Our District Masonic Foundation continues to support the Tatum Blackwell fund. This year we helping out with a pool for Tatum. The foundation donated $5,000 dollars to the St. Thomas General Hospital Paediatric Ward. We also made a donation to the St. Thomas General Hospital for breast cancer center for an up-grade of monitors

In closing I have had a very enjoyable year. I would like to thank each of the District committee chairmen for their help throughout the year. A special thank-you to District Secretary W. Bro. Richard Golden for his help, he has made my job much easier.

Sarnia District – 15 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Jamie R. Ireland

What a great year in Sarnia District. The majority of the lodges in the district are experiencing growth as there have been 30 new masons initiated into masonry. One of my most rewarding moments was witnessing the EA degree for my oldest son, in my home lodge. The work in the ritual is being well done by the lodges with only a few exceptions. Most lodges are financially sound but some are struggling, as maintaining their structures are getting more expensive. The number of lodges in the district may need to be reduced in the future to try to correct the problem of small memberships and financial hardships. One lodge has been updated to be accessible to the disabled. This and two other lodges are easily accessible and the main lodge building in Sarnia is working on this problem. A greater use of the GL resources needs to be realized by the lodges and used to be beneficial. Its great to see the visiting that the brethren are doing in the district and the harmony that ultimately occurs.

This year, I have taken part in many 25 and 50 year pins, a Veteran Jubilee Medal and several Lewis Jewel presentations. I presented a few Grand Lodge Certificates and some Certificates for the completion of the DDGM Course. I also presented a bursary to a student, from the Masonic Foundation of Ontario.

There have been six MasoniChIP events in Sarnia District, the always popular District Ladies Night, which my whole family took part in, a District Devine Service by Lake Huron and a District Golf Tournament. Also, there have been several individual lodge events and parades. JW and SW nights were held with the GSW taking part in conducting a second degree. My chosen charity was the Children's Health Foundation, which will receive a generous donation.

Bro. Harry Jr. Cooper also presented brass working tools, through me, to my home lodge at my Official Visit. They are beautiful.

I will always remember this year. Thanks to the GM, the members of Sarnia District, the District Secretary and most of all, my family, for allowing me to hold this high office.

South Huron District – 11 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Douglas Stewart

There have been many significant events take place in South Huron District this year. Starting in September, the Grand Master made his first of 4 visits to the District at the 150th anniversary celebration of Lebanon Forest Lodge No. 133 in Exeter, ON. This was followed by Tudor Lodge No. 141, Mitchell, ON 150th anniversary celebration of their own. District Warden's Night, Ladies Night and the Divine Service were well received in the District. I have been honoured to pin many 25, 50 and 60 year pins on brethren in the district this year. The new program for 25 & 50 year pin presentations was well received in the district as well. I was saddened to attend so many Masonic Funeral Services this year but on the flip side was pleased that initiations were held in most lodges this year. Some lodges were having emergent meetings to initiate 3 candidates on that night. I definitely gave out many Masonic Pins to the new candidates this year.

The Past District Deputy Grand Masters put on a "Lodge of Instruction" for all in attendance as they raised two Fellow craft brethren to the sublime degree of a Master Mason at Britannia Lodge No. 174 on May 19th. Our Past Masters are certainly very active in South Huron and it was a pleasure to be in attendance on that night.

I was both troubled to see a lodge close (Huron Lodge No. 224) excited to see a new lodge rise up like the Phoenix, when the two emerged as the new Lebanon Forest Lodge No. 133 lodge on June 25, 2011. This will be a good amalgamation for both lodges.

Also, on June 25, 2011, a Grand Master Reception was held in honour of W.M. Bro. Raymond S. J. Daniels. We were honoured to have the Grand Master in attendance as this was his last GMR of his term in office.

Overall, I have found the ritual, floor work, and overall enthusiasm for Freemasonry in South Huron to have improved greatly over my term as DDGM.

I would like to thank the brethren of South Huron District for allowing me to be their representative of the Grand Master. It undeniably has been a highlight of my Masonic career.

Sudbury-Manitoulin District – 9 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Albert Stonier

Masonry in the Sudbury-Manitoulin District is in good condition with all nine lodges doing well. Overall membership is relatively steady with many new initiations taking place. The ritual work is generally of high quality and protocol is followed. All lodges of the District are in an acceptable financial situation. Social activities in the District are plentiful, widespread and well attended.

Involvement in the community is excellent and includes a successful MasoniChIP program, well supported Blood Donor activities, and participation in the cancer Walk for Life and Lions Club Telethon. In addition many of the District lodges present education bursaries to local high school, college and university students. A third annual District Veterans Appreciation evening was held which involved significant participation from non-Masons. A District web site is well maintained and offers interesting and topical information to Masons and those interested in masonry.

Java Guild continues to thrive with 60-80 Masons and guests in attendance each week. This is an important activity in that it portrays the less ritualistic face of masonry and is often the starting point for the interest that leads to membership. A subsidized Masonic apartment continues to be offered to Masons and their families when they are visiting Sudbury for medical treatment.

Although overall the District is in good condition, Long Range Planning (LRP) activities continue to be a disappointment, being either absent or weak in their scope and duration. This is an important initiative in that it is fundamentally important to the long term viability of our gentle craft. It is of the utmost importance that Long Range Planning receive the attention it deserves, both on an individual lodge and District level. It is strongly recommended that in the future, Long Range planning is promoted as a District project targeting the lodges on an educational and implementation level. In other words, the why and the how.

Temiskaming District – 6 Lodges

R.W. Bro. William R. Acton

Temiskaming Masonic District actually covers parts of the districts of Temiskaming and Cochrane. It stretches 160 km. from North to South and is comprised of 6 lodges of 39 to 120 members with membership totaling approximately 450 for the district.

The work in most lodges is good to excellent with only one exception and all lodges are working on improving all aspects of the work from openings and closings to the ritual. Although membership is small and with a generally aging demographic, numbers having been declining for a number of years but all lodges now are seeing an increase in interest resulting in many new applicants and all lodges have candidates for the various degrees on their tracing boards. Membership is stable and should start to see an increase in the next few years.

In September, the Grand Master and his Wardens officiated at the amalgamation of two lodges in Timmins and the same was done the previous year in Kirkland Lake. Both of these newly amalgamated lodges have seen an increase in enthusiasm and attendance and feel that the amalgamations were of great benefit.

With only 6 lodges in the district it would seem that some re-alignment of districts in Northeastern Ontario should be considered.

All lodges in the district are in good financial shape although some with single user buildings are finding it a burden to maintain the expenses of their facility. Increasing membership is the best answer to this problem and with the mining boom in the north, the increasing population should translate into more members for all of our lodges.

Some lodges have had CHIP programs and others are planning to have them. Brother to Brother, Friend to Friend and Blood Donors are programs familiar to all lodges and are used in various forms to increase attendance and raise public awareness of Masonry. Most lodges also have socials, barbeques and dinners at which spouses and members of the public are invited. A lot of district Masons are active in their church and service clubs so their influence is seen and felt outside of lodge.

Through the struggles that lodges have been through over the past many years, they have grown wiser and stronger and I believe are poised and ready to meet the challenge of the greatly renewed interest Freemasonry is experiencing in all of our Grand Jurisdiction.

Toronto Don Valley District – 22 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Michael A. Litvak

The face of Toronto Don Valley District was altered from the outset with the withdrawal of Markham Union Lodge No. 87 and its joining Toronto East District. As well, the pending amalgamation of Mount Sinai Lodge No. 522 and Lodge of the Pillars No. 703 would reduce the number of Lodges in the District from 22 to 20.

The theme "Let's Have Some Fun with our Masonry" was professed and was achieved at all levels.

Highlights of the year included the delivery of the prestigious Prestonian Lecture, a rarity outside of the UK. The Grand Lodge of Instruction Team made an historic stop in Thornhill and an amalgamation with its Grand Lodge ceremony occurred. The DDGM had the opportunity to make many presentations including six Lewis Jewels at once, 60 and 50 Years of Service pins, 50 Years a Past Master pins, and a College of Freemasonry certificate. District Deputy Grand Master's regalia from 1862, found in a garage sale in Vancouver, still in excellent condition, were repatriated to St. Andrew's Lodge No. 16 with a wonderful history lesson attached.

The condition of Masonry is such that the brethren recognize the need to attract quality men rather than a quantity of men into the Craft. The delivery of the ritual varies within the District but is ever improving with the encouragement of the DDGM. Protocol & Etiquette still require improvement as does the quality of the messages from the Worshipful Masters in their summonses. This has been made clear to all Lodges.

The District website and Facebook Private Group have become important tools of communication for the brethren. All Committees functioned reasonably well and most were quite active including Education, Lodge Resources and Charity.

Both the Grand Master and the Deputy were quite visible in the District and this was appreciated by all of the brethren.

The DDGM is most appreciative of the courtesy afforded him during the year. He is also quite pleased with the work of the District team, particularly the District Secretary.

Toronto East District – 20 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Leyland A. Muss

My theme this year is "Visitation + Education = Retention". The total number of masons in the District as per the July returns to Grand Lodge is 1,904. We started with 21 lodges as Markham Union transferred from Toronto Don Valley based on them moving to Clarendon in Toronto East.

During the year the Scarborough Temple was sold and 5 lodges moved to the Doric Temple, Ajax, 4 lodges to East Toronto Temple, Chisholm Avenue and 2 lodges to the York Temple without much disruption.

During the year Cathedral Lodge had long standing unresolved issues which caused discord and created division. There were also a number of irregularities that were previously brought to the attention of the Grand Master. It was decided by the Grand Master that the lodge had become dysfunctional and could not continue to function as a Masonic Lodge. Therefore, in accordance with Sec. 85 the warrant was arrested and the operation of Cathedral Lodge was suspended.

During review of the lodges, fewer lodges had Past Masters in the chairs this year. In general, the ritual and the mechanics of the work were well conducted. However, in some lodges some officers did not perform to expected standards in both the ritual-had to be prompted regularly- and the mechanics of the work was not properly done. This showed in lodges where officers did not avail themselves of attending the weekly workshops on the Mechanics of the Work. 3 lodges have applied to be Cornerstone lodges.

I designated Masonic Education, Mentor, Friend2Friend and Brother2Brother programs as the District's Centres of Excellence where we concentrated our efforts to create high quality educational programs. We also utilized the Officer Progression and the Degree Proficiency Workshops conducted by GL Team Leaders. A number of the above programs were either delivered to the individual lodges or workshops were arranged for the District by the respective District Chairmen and their teams. The District conducted 12 Saturday morning classes on the Mechanics of the Work for all Master Masons during the Fall and Spring. At the Officer Progression and Degree Proficiency Workshops over 60 masons were in attendance.

A questionnaire, designed by the District Chairman, LRP, was sent to all lodges to assist them in asking questions of their members and formulating their lodge's Long Range Plan. A 5 man committee at the District level has been established and is working to formulate a Long Range Plan for the District.

There have been a number of community programs including MasonChIP. and Open Doors at both the East Toronto and Doric temples, participation in Winter Carnival and monetary awards at public schools in Clarendon. The District Charity supports WindReach

Farm, a facility which enriches the lives of persons with special needs all ages by providing opportunities to enjoy experiences in nature. The large attendance by masons at these community programs has certainly raised the profile of masons in Toronto East District.

A few months ago St. Aidan's Lodge voted to voluntarily surrender their warrant at the end of July because of falling membership and very low attendance at meetings.

Toronto H. Valley District – 20 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Eugene Palacol

It is with gratitude and honour to represent the Grand Master as District Deputy Grand Master of Toronto Humber Valley District this year. I am equally thankful to the brethren of Toronto Humber Valley for affording me the exceptional opportunity to serve the Craft, carry out a platform and achieve the goals through an environment that invites, supports and involves interaction amongst the Lodges and the brethren of the District.

It is my pleasure to report that Masonry in Toronto Humber Valley District is one of strong fraternal relations, financial sustain ability and viability and inspiring sense of benevolence and social responsibility.

The District Project for the year was WindReach Farm, for which we had the goal to raise $10,000.00. And our target was achieved and significantly surpassed with the innovative activities along with the concerted efforts of the Lodges, and combined with the magnanimous support and generous donation of $60,000 by Sunnyside Corporation on behalf of Trillium Lodge No. 575.

In continuing the educational thrust of the District, the following initiatives were sponsored by the District: a Grand Lodge of Instructions in October 26, 2010, hosted by Rehoboam Lodge No. 65 and an evening of Masonic lecture at Zeta-Shamrock Lodge No. 410. The play, "Masons on Trial" was hosted by Perfect Column Lodge No. 510 at the Etobicoke Temple. These events were well-attended and the instructions and knowledge acquired were effectively cascaded to the Lodges.

Other projects implemented by the District with varying successes were the District Divine Service, as well as other events like the Pancake Breakfast, The Fall Dinner and Dance, Spring Ladies Night, and the Golf Tournament, proceeds from which were earmarked for the district charity program – WindReach Farm.

To further promote and establish a common platform of communication within the District, the district website www.torontohumbervalley.ca was consistently promoted to the Lodges in every opportunity possible. Together with the district newsletter "Between the Pillars", these tools conveyed a common direction, crafted a unified culture of fraternal brotherhood and encouraged dynamic exchanges of Masonic information.

A majority of the 22 Lodges in the district has experienced a resurgence of applicants and candidates, some significantly more than others. With modified versions of the Friend-to-Friend program, some Lodges had from 8-10 new candidates initiated this year alone. The use of websites, social networks and other technology driven communication tools have proven to be a huge draw to compliment the friend-to-friend programs.

The quality and caliber of these new candidates are evident in their enthusiastic participation and excellent performances in degree works. The Lodges are now challenged to continue a stimulating and dynamic level of ritual proficiency and engaging lectures to approximate the commitment and enthusiasm of these younger brethren or else we risk losing them.

Over-all the number and the quality of new members in the District have steadily grown and with the innovative implementation of the Friend-to-Friend program, complimented by other social events involving non-masons, significant increase of new applicants will be expected from across the District.

Most of the Lodges are financially stable, maintaining an effective balance between its investment portfolio and the yearly income from dues and other projects to support Lodge operations. 85% of the Lodges practice effective fiscal management, exercising due diligence in their financial decisions and establishing appropriate controls in the management, tracking and reporting of its finances to ensure transparency and ease of audit.

To be commended are Lodges who have consistently engaged in community programs, ranging from Hockey Team Sponsorship, supporting the Etobicoke Children's Aid Society, Christmas Party for single mothers and their children, donation of Christmas toys for children and financial assistance to charity groups i.e. Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Food Bank.

Collectively, the District will have to act and embark on more initiatives that will further promote benevolence and charity towards our immediate communities. I suggest that in the future, pooling resources amongst the Lodges will further enhance the effectiveness and reach of any one program.

This year has provided me with some of the most memorable experiences of my Masonic journey. I am proud and humbled to have been of service to the Craft, to the District and most importantly to you, my brethren.

Toronto West – 23 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Mark Stoiko

Toronto West District is blessed with many leaders: Worshipful Master of Lodges, Chairmen of District programs, Grand Lodge Officers and Past Grand Lodge Officers. In this report I wish to summarize the District programs and the District theme.

Strategic Plan: When preparing the plan and programs for Toronto West we were guided by the strategic plan. The Grand Master asked us to focus our attention on three areas: Improving Masonic Learning Opportunities; placing a heavy priority (focus) on Communications; and raising the Bar in our Rites and Ceremonies. We have responded with excellent effort and some truly remarkable outcomes.

District Project: The District project is the Three Hospices Project. The beneficiaries of the project are The Dorothy Ley Hospice in Etobicoke; Heart House Hospice in Mississauga; and, Ian Anderson House in Oakville.

District Chairmen: The District Chairmen communicated directly with their Advisory Board facilitators and with their Grand Lodge counterpart. Programs were executed with excellent results.

District Events: Toronto West had a year of many exciting events. We began with six Receptions for Grand Lodge Officers. There are three District meetings in the year; a Grand Lodge of Instruction in October; a District Lodge of Instruction in January; a District Divine Service in December; a Theatre Night in January in support of the District Project; Bowl for Kids' Sake event in March; Grand Master's Reception for the five Toronto Districts in March; and a District Horse Racing Event at Woodbine Racetrack and Slots in June. I have been very pleased with the support of the District events.

My theme this year is the Grand Design found in the General Charge of the Ceremony of Installation, the Grand Design of being happy ourselves and communicating that happiness to others.

Grand Lodge programmes in the District contain breadth and scope, including the five primary programs found in Lodge Resources: Friend to Friend, Mentor, Brother 2 Brother, Officer Progression and Protocol & Etiquette.

In closing I thank the District Secretary, W. Bro. Don Thompson, for his tireless commitment. And finally, I express my gratitude to the support given me by the Advisory Board.

Victoria District – 14 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Gareth Kellett

It has been both a privilege and honour to serve Victoria District this year as District Deputy Grand Master. For that, I thank both the brethren of Arcadia Lodge No. 440 and the District for granting me this great opportunity and enabling me to continue my Masonic journey.

This year has been an exciting one for Masonry in the District. We have been favoured with visits from several Grand Lodge brethren. The Fall began with a visit from M.W. Raymond S.J. Daniels, our Grand Master when he came to help King George V No. 498 celebrate their 100th Anniversary. Later, we welcomed R.W. Bro. D. Garry Dowling, Deputy Grand Master, when he visited Murray Lodge No. 408 to help celebrate their 125th Anniversary. As well, during the year we had visits from Assistant Grand Chaplain and both Grand Wardens.

There have been many presentations this year, especially 50 yr. and 60 yr pins to several brethren. The downside of this illustrates our aging population. Although we continue to initiate many new members, at least 26 this year with every Lodge except three having one or more initiations, our membership is declining with fewer than 950 members. This is caused by the large number of demits, suspensions and deaths.

Visitation is very important within the District, especially among our senior members. More must be done to impart to our new members the importance of visiting.

Improvements were made with the website and the newsletter( the latest one was one of the best in many years). As well the Chip programme has been very successful. All of this is the result of very dedicated chairmen. As well, the Travelling Gavel is, again, making its rounds in the District.

In conclusion, Masonry is very much alive and well in Victoria District. It has been an enjoyable year and a great journey.

Waterloo District – 15 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Richard W. Kaufman

It was been my honour and privilege to serve as the District Deputy Grand Master for Waterloo District this year. I want to thank those who have assisted me this year in leading the District; the Chairmen, the Event Coordinators, the committee members and the “doers”. I would like to especially acknowledge the contribution of my friend and Brother Gerald Gottvald for servicing as District Secretary.

Our District has experienced a renewed interest in Freemasonry expressed by a surge in membership by initiation. Thirteen of fourteen lodges initiated 53 candidates into Masonry between September 2010 and June 2011. In an effort to relieve the pressure on the individual lodge trestle boards a Fellow Craft Field Day was organized under dispensation and coordinated by the Chairman of Protocol and Etiquette for the District. On Saturday March 19th, 7 Brethren from 5 different lodges were passed to the Second Degree over the course of the morning.

With regard to some of the traditional metrics of lodge health such as; quality of the work, protocol, finances, the effectiveness of Grand Lodge programs and forward thinking of strategic or long range planning, all receive a passing grade. Among the many successes of the District there was one event of a more subdued and tragic nature that occurred, Galt Lodge No. 257 went into darkness. The ceremony of Extinguishing of the Lights was held on January 31st with over 100 masons in attendance.

One of the goals this year was to update the District Website and make it the primary communication tool to and for the Masons of Waterloo District. With the support of the Brethren we were able to launch a much improved, user-friendly, modernized website on January 1st, 2011. In March we started to keep a District Calendar current using the lodge summons to update the calendar to reflect the proposed agenda for the evening’s meetings. The traffic on the website is growing, every Mason in Waterloo District knows where to click to find out what’s gone on, or what’s going on in Waterloo District!

Wellington District – 12 Lodges

R.W. Bro. David G. Hyde

One minute you think all is running well and then yet another Masonic service, far to many in fact. A high one night sitting at the side of VW Bro Morley Hunter when as acting master he conducted a second degree, (this will always be a highlight for me) and then a huge low when we lost him. We lost many brethren, I have been pleased with the turnout of brethren for the Masonic services held throughout my term of office thank you all.

In general the quality of the work across the district is good with some lodges being better than others, protocol and etiquette is average but Grand Lodge officers and visitors for the most part are received with dignity and respect.

I enjoyed attending the Grand Masters receptions, and our own district reception for our Grand Master an evening that could not have worked out better, apart from the weather after the banquet!

In June Walker Friendship Lodge No. 321 planned a quarry lodge at the Dufferin aggregates quarry in Acton. And at a fraternal visit to Wellington lodge the master W Bro Weightman had decided to use the technology available to him with his employment for a presentation of what could only be described as jeopardy in masonry, a very well put together presentation, and a fascinating and very enjoyable evening indeed.

What can be said about the wild game night, I think this was the best so far with our Grand Master in attendance and not to be out done by Mr. Red Green himself .

Some lodges are organized with a good mentor program in place and use the Grand Lodge programs, however most lodges do not use any of the Grand Lodge programs and this is a great loss to them. The membership is improving with new brethren being initiated in all the lodges.

It has been a great honour for me to serve the brethren of Wellington District and to represent them as DDGM. I would like to thank my mother lodge Credit Lodge No. 219 for their support.

Western District – 10 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Barry D. Jackson

The most significant event that Western District had in my term as DDGM, was the visitation by the Grand Master. Particularly the "Town Hall Meeting" information session he had with the brethren of Western District. By the Grand Master having an informal meeting with the brethren, it allowed anyone to ask any question , without fear of reprisal or being out of protocol. I feel that this approach to having a meeting with the Grand Master, is one of the best ways to make a group of Masons feel relaxed and secure and puts all Mason's on the level with the Grand Master.

I took the Grand Master's ideas on Masonry and proposed them to all the Lodges. To slow down on Degree Work. Let the EA, FC or MM learn his particular degree, know what has happened to him in his transformation journey, and enjoy Masonry, rather than make a candidate someone to fill a meeting .

The condition of Masonry in Western District is not a health body, there is a slow bleed on the active senior members and on the financial stability of certain Lodges. I have used the Grand Master suggestion, and have relayed to all Lodges that they need to have open houses. (But they must be done properly) . Western District can survive, but all the Lodges in the District need to stop dwelling on the problems and start to react. If all the Lodges did 2 open houses a year, and they contact Grand Lodge on how to do them properly, I am certain that the bleeding will stop and the condition will improve, and once again. Masonry in Western District will thrive.

Wilson North District – 11 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Kenneth S. Small

It has been a honour and pleasure to represent the Grand Master and the district this year. A good year is not possible without the assistance of a very good district secretary, and I thank Wor. Bro Gerald Hable for a great year. The district grew this year by approximately 5%. With all fine candidates who are becoming very active in their perspective lodges. The year was highlighted by a meeting held at Oxford Gardens retirement home in Woodstock. We took masonry to the brethren for a very emotional and enlightening meeting. The strongest lodges in the district continue to find new ways to keep the interests of the their members. The other lodge who are not as strong met as a group and put on two successful events. This group refuses to sit back with a wait and see attitude. This was made possible by sitting down with these lodges and helping them identify where some of the problems lie and where improvements are possible.

The district continues to embrace the Grand Lodge Programs with the F2F and Mentor programs leading the way to district growth.. The other Grand Lodge programs are doing very well, including Blood Donors and the Masonic Chip program, in which the lodges have participated in, either on their own or in conjunction with another lodge.

The financial side of some of the lodges may become serious if they are not looked at in a constructive manner. In most cases, lodge dues are not covering basic expenses. Some lodges fund raise just to break even. This practice needs to change before it is too late for some.

The outlook for the next five years is very positive with many new masons joining the fraternity. The lodges understand that they need to keep lodge nights interesting, and informative, along with a social side that is becoming more and more necessary to keep the interests of not only the new masons but the existing brethren.

Wilson South District – 10 Lodges

R.W. Bro. James B. Smith

Masonry in Wilson South is enjoying a remarkable growth this year with most of the lodges. Each of the ten lodges was busy with degree work. This was also good for the work being done. That old saying practice makes perfect. The work and operation of the lodges in Wilson South are in good hands with the core of long term masons to guide them. I have spoken a number of times this year on the knowledge that each lodge has in the members that we never think to use until they are gone. Lodge buildings are being looked after very well, with a number of them having some renovations. With each of the lodges always looking for ways to make easier for our older members to attend. A number of lodges have done well with the Friend to Friend program. All who attended enjoyed the information that was presented. St. John's Lodge No. 104 held a Friend to Friend night and everyone who came to this even submitted an application to the lodge. It is this kind of involvement with the people in our communities that will ensure the survival of masonry. St. John's lodge is building for a strong future. This year Ashlar hosted a lodge of instruction in Tillsonburg with over sixty members coming out to participate. This event was received very well and M.W. Bro. Mumby and all the members that travel to present these programs should be recognized for the great work and support they provide. All the lodges that attended showed improvement in most areas. The futures looks good for Wilson South on the short term and encourage all the lodges to look to the future and start looking at where they will be in 5 or 10 years.

I would like to thank all the lodges and members in Wilson South for their support and help in this past year and look forward to working with Wilson South's next district team.

In closing I would like to say what opportunity it was to represent the Grand Master M.W. Bro. Raymond S J Daniels and the Grand Lodge of Canada for this past year.

Windsor District – 7 Lodges

R.W. Bro. Barry J. Evans

The most notable event in my district was the amalgamation of Ontario Lodge No. 521, Dominion Lodge No. 598 and Palace Lodge No. 604 on November 2, 2009. The Grand Master presided as a new vibrant Trinity Lodge No. 521 combined the strengths of the former three.

Windsor District held its inaugural ChIP program on May 1st and 2nd. It was an overwhelming success with 443 children processed. Over 30 volunteers and several corporate sponsors worked tirelessly. Plans are already underway for a second one in the fall with intentions to make it an annual event.

Among the more notable charitable events, were "Warm Hands - Happy Hearts", Time Horton's Camp Day and the annual Goodfellows' Paper Drive. Many Windsor children benefited from donated mittens and others will be able to attend a summer camp as a result. The Goodfellows assist those in need year round.

The annual Divine Service was re-instated in a church setting this year, after being held at the Masonic War Memorial for several years. It provided an opportunity to educate the public about Masonry. A Memorial Service is also scheduled for June.

A Recognition Night was held to celebrate a rather unique occurrence. During 2008-2009 Masonic Year, eleven Brethren of Windsor District held the senior positions in the region's Masonic organizations. They represented Grand Lodge; Grand Chapter and Grand Council in the York Rite; the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite; and the Ancient Arabic Order of the Mystic Shrine.

A Dedication Ceremony was held April 22 for a new inlaid Mosaic Pavement in Blue Room of our Temple, involving Great Western Lodge No. 47 and Trinity Lodge No. 521, oldest and newest lodges respectively.

A Grand Lodge of Instruction, headed by M.W. Bro. Donald Mumby was held for the region in October. Many Windsor District officers and members attended. It has been gratifying to see the level of work in the lodges improve as a result of the lessons learned.

The privilege of serving as the Grand Master's Deputy for the Windsor District is an honour for which I will be eternally grateful.

York District – 19 Lodges

R.W. Bro. William L. Boyle

The York District's year started the Saturday following Grand Lodge Communications with the hosting of the Jamaican visitation by Robertson Lodge No. 292, Aurora. M.W. Bro. Raymond S.J. Daniels was in attendance. This event is becoming a reciprocated Official Visit between the two Grand Jurisdictions.

Next we celebrated the 50 year anniversary of the Lodge of Fellowship No. 702, Richmond Hill. The event was well attended by the Lodges of the District and the Lodges surrounding it.

Next was a celebration of 150 years of Union Lodge No. 118 in Schomberg. This event was also well attended.

On a sad note the second District Deputy Grand Master of York District, R.W. Bro. Rea Gibson, passed to the Grand Lodge above following a short illness. He was the founder of the GTA Masons website.

Our District was called upon by the Town of Bradford to host a luncheon for the funeral of Sapper Brian Collier of Bradford. This was an unusual call, but when presented to the Brethren they unanimously exercised the virtue of charity by raising the funds for this event and supporting the event in person.

The District Charity this year is Rebecca's Run for Muscular Atrophy. The District has embraced this opportunity and the Masters of the Lodges have challenged each other to attend the event in Newmarket to raise funds for this great cause.

Other committees of the District have performed well due to the outstanding support of the District members. The blood and organ donors and the District Librarian have reported much success due to the support of the Brethren of the District.

District events this year including the Robbie Burns night, the District chili night, the curling bonspiel and the Ladies Gala were all successful.

The Rising Sun Lodge No. 129, Aurora, hosted the chili night, and the winner was Robertson Lodge No. 292, Aurora. However the truth be known, the chilies were all excellent and all of the participants that supported the event were winners.

Our District Divine Service this year at York Pines United Church had more members of the Masonic service than members of the church. There were 18 Lodges and over 60 members including their families.

Appointments by the Grand Lodge this year: V.W. Bro. Lionel Sandiland, the Grand Steward, Richardson Lodge No. 136, Stouffville and V.W. Bro. Garry Reeve, the Grand Steward, Malone Lodge No. 512, Sutton, continued their support to the District by attending at all Official Visits.

We were also honoured this year to have Bro. William Dodds become recipient of the William Mercer Wilson Medal. York District is proud of Bro. Dodds and the Brethren he joins, Bro. Jim Virgin and Bro. Ted Berry, for being recipients of this medal of high distinction.

The Rising Sun Lodge had a graveside service for the founding member of their Lodge, Bro. Robert Lyon, First Master of the Lodge in 1860.

Another important night was the Installation of Bro. Ken Dick of True Blue Lodge No. 98, Bolton. He is the great-great-great grandson of the founding member V.W. Bro. William Graham, 1858.

The Wardens this year banded together to perform degree work at different Lodges and ran a barbeque for the spring District meeting, at which all 19 Lodges were present. The Wardens also committed funds to the District Charity.

Union Lodge No. 118, Schomberg, again hosted the chip program at the Schomberg Fair.

I'm pleased to say that as many as 16 current Masters have attended together at an Official Visit this year. This is a sure sign of the growing fellowship between Lodges and the support they give each other in the York District.

The District also had the honour of presenting a number of service pins for 60 years, 50 years and 25 years to distinguished Brethren for their loyal dedication to the craft.

The best summons this year is the Lodge of Fellowship #702. Congratulations R.W. Bro. Ian Sinclair.

Events to be completed include the challenge of the District Masters at Rebecca's Run on July 9th, the dedication of the Sun Dial at Richardson Lodge No. 136, Stouffville on June 8th; the installation of Richmond Lodge No. 23 and Union Lodge No. 118 on the 24th of June; the District golf tournament.

In closing I would like to thank the District Secretary, W. Bro. Harvey Rideout, for his untiring support and hard work. It has been my pleasure to represent the Grand Master and a privilege to be of service to the Brethren of the York District.
